Will Answer Allegations of 'Fraud' and 'Falsehood' but Leave 'Mud-Slinging to My Opponent,' He Says.

By EDWARD A. HARRIS
A Washington Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Ok., Sept. 25.—In fighting mood, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey declared at a press conference here today that while he will leave "mud-slinging" to his opponent in the presidential campaign, he will answer in his speech tonight "point by point" the allegations of "fraud" and "falsehood" hurled at him last Saturday night by the President.

(The speech will be carried on radio station KSD at 9 o'clock St. Louis time.)

The first question asked at the press conference shortly after the Republican nominee arrived here from the West Coast was for his reaction to the President's speech. Dewey appeared well primed for the query.

"I thought it was a tragedy," Dewey said slowly, "that a nominee for President of the United States should find it necessary to bolster a waning cause by the importation of the language of our enemies, and by sinking to the level of mud-slinging through the use of the words 'falsehood' and 'fraud.'

"But since Mr. Roosevelt has raised the issue of fraud and falsehood, I shall deal with it point by point tonight. I shall undertake the unpleasant duty of ascertaining where the truth lies—but I shall not sink to the level of mud-slinging or the use of epithets. I leave that to my opponent."

When Dewey said "the unpleasant task of ascertaining where the truth lies," a correspondent from an Eastern newspaper broke in with: "Unpleasant for whom, Governor?"

"I leave that for you to decide," he replied, before continuing his statement.

Reply to "Appeasement" Question.

An Oklahoma City reporter asked the nominee if he cared to comment on the existence of "some feeling" that in his Los An-

John Wheeler, Machinist, Fired on Through Brush, Is in Critical Condition.

John Wheeler, a machinist, was in critical condition today at City Hospital from a cerebral hemorrhage and gunshot wounds in the left eye, face, right arm and shoulder, right leg and abdomen, suffered yesterday when he was shot accidentally while squirrel hunting. He is 44 years old and lives at 7800 North Broadway.

With Albert E. Hampton, 7820 North Broadway, and James Vernitte, 7820A North Broadway, he was hunting near Vale avenue and Old Jamestown road in northern St. Louis County. Hampton told police Wheeler was partly concealed by a tree and he fired at him through brush when he mistook him for a squirrel. Constable Rudy Baumer of St. Ferdinand Township said Wheeler was struck from a distance of 50 yards.

Aircraft Bound From Havana Last Heard From Saturday in Storm Over Vera Cruz.

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 25 (AP).—No trace has been found of a passenger plane from Havana with 23 persons aboard missing since Saturday afternoon, the Mexican subsidiary of Pan American Airways said today.

The plane, bound for Mexico City, was last heard from over the storm-whipped state of Vera Cruz at 4:50 p. m. Saturday.

Aboard were 19 passengers, including 12 Mexicans, two of them small children; six Cubans and an American woman, listed as Cynthia Farie. Among the Cubans were two Havana newspaper men on the way to report on the impending visit of Cuban President-elect Ramon Grau San Martin.

COLONEL 'SOUVENIR HUNTERS' SORE OVER MARINE GRENADES

PELELIU ISLAND, Palau, Sept. 25 (AP). (Via Navy Radio).—Joe Rosenthal, Associated Press photographer, was exploring a captured Japanese cave extending through Umorbrogol Mountain when Marines started tossing in grenades from the other side.

Rosenthal's companions called out, "knock it off." The Marines outside shouted back, "you damn fool souvenir hunters have no business in there. You'd better clear out."

"That," Rosenthal remarked later, "made the two Colonels with me pretty sore."

FIRES $100 WORTH OF SHELLS TO KNOCK GERMAN OFF POLE

WITH UNITED STATES AIRBORNE TROOPS IN HOLLAND, Sept. 21 (Delayed) (AP). — Lt. John Spooner of Wilmington, N. C., demonstrated his marksmanship today by picking off a German observer from a telephone pole at 6000 yards with a field artillery gun, but his feat did not entirely please his commanding officer.

Spooner got his man after firing three smoke bursts and then 10 rounds with a 75-mm. gun. His Colonel, however, figured the ammunition cost the taxpayers $100 whereas "the infantry kills Germans at 5 cents a round."

ENEMY'S ISLAND AIR FORCE BROKEN; 29 SHIPS SUNK IN NEW MANILA RAID

UNITED STATES FLEET HEADQUARTERS, Pearl Harbor, Sept. 25 (AP).—United States carrier plane raids on the Philippines, which the Tokyo radio reported continued Saturday, have driven Japanese naval forces to new bases and "broken" the island air force, Adm. Chester W. Nimitz announced.

Nimitz said last night that American flyers smashed the Manila area for the second consecutive day Thursday, destroying or damaging 200 Japanese planes, sinking 29 more ships in Manila Bay, damaging 20, sinking or damaging 16 small craft.

(Japanese broadcasts said, without American confirmation, that a third successive day's assaults were launched against Manila Friday and that the attacks continued Saturday with blows against southern Luzon and the central Philippines.)

Jap Landing Frustrated.

Warships guarding the bitterly resisted invasion of Peleliu Island, in the Palau group, frustrated a Japanese attempt to reinforce their garrison Saturday, Nimitz also reported. A convoy of 13 barges and a motor sampan, filled with men and equipment, was destroyed. Only a few of the enemy are believed to have escaped, some by swimming ashore after losing their equipment.

An American destroyer commanded by Cmdr. Joe. W. Boulware of Perry, Mo., and Beverly Hills, Cal., teamed with four LCI gunboats to sink a number of the landing barges. The destroyer sent up starshells and used its searchlights to direct the Japanese craft and train its guns on them.

The destroyer caught another barge running south for the Japanese-held northern tip of Peleliu and sank it with its five-inch guns.

At the same time, an American cruiser stood by Malakal harbor, finest in the Palaus, and shelled two camouflaged and previously bombed-damaged Japanese ships. At least one direct hit was scored on the ships. Malakal harbor lies southward of Koror Island in the heart of Japan's "Singapore."

The First Division United States Marines made small new gains on both flanks of Peleliu. Soldiers of the Eighty-First Army Division continued mopping up on Angaur Island, six miles southward.

Forced Withdrawal.

"The operations of the Third Fleet," said Nimitz in his communique, "have forced the enemy to withdraw his naval forces from their former anchorages in the Philippines and to seek new refuges in the same general area, have disrupted inter-island communications and have broken his air force in the Philippines just as operations of the Fifth Fleet broke the enemy carrier-based air force in the battle of the Philippine Sea."

Planes from the huge attacking fleet have destroyed 906 Japanese

FOREIGN WORKERS INSIDE REICH ARE TOLD 'HOUR FOR ACTION HAS COME'

Cautioned Against Useless Provocation of Gestapo in Putting 'Instruments of Resistance' Into Use.

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, ALLIED EXPEDITIONARY FORCE, Sept. 25 (AP).—A spokesman for Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower told the 12,000,000 foreign workers in Germany today that "the hour for action has come," and gave them instructions for activities in the last round of the battle for Germany.

The workers were exhorted to beware of the Gestapo and not to underrate its powers.

The text of the message:

"The hour for action has come!

"Note carefully the following instructions:

"The organized cells of foreign workers within the Reich will take immediate action according to the pre-arranged plan. Members of organized cells will refrain from all unorganized resistance and useless provocation of the Gestapo. They will obey the orders of their leaders precisely.

"Foreign workers who are not members of organized cells and who have not already carried out my instructions to go into hiding in the towns or—preferably—on the land, will do so at once.

"I have already warned them that they are in gravest danger if they remain in the factories. Their safest course is to disappear from the towns and cities and to seek shelter and employment on the land.

"In certain areas of Germany, workers of the organized cells are today being provided with means for active resistance. These instruments will not be effective if they are used thoughtlessly or without purpose. Those of you who find them should immediately read the instructions that are provided and memorize them. Then destroy the instructions. Hide the instruments in a safe place. Determine carefully where and how the instruments can be used most effectively. Work out your plan of action. After your plan is complete in every detail—and only then—put the instruments to the use for which they are designed.

"Bear in mind, while deciding on your plans, that foodstuffs and crops in Germany will be needed after the defeat of Hitler.

"Act wisely. Do not underrate the power of the Gestapo. However, remember that today the Gestapo stands in fear of the 12 million foreign workers who, by acting now, can seal the fate of the Third Reich."

F.D.R. REPORTED CONSIDERING LA GUARDIA FOR POST IN ITALY

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 (AP).—President Roosevelt was reported today to be considering Mayor F. H. LaGuardia of New York for appointment as a member of the Allied control commission for Italy.

LaGuardia probably would be made a brigadier general in the Army.

The commission is responsible for seeing that Italy lives up to the terms of the armistice imposed on her.

5TH ARMY DRIVES ON THROUGH HOLE IN GOTHIC LINE

12 Miles From Bologna—Rimini Highway — 8th Army Meeting Desperate Resistance.

By NOLAND NORGAARD

ROME, Sept. 25 (AP).—Exploiting their success in smashing through the Germans' Gothic line, American troops of the Fifth Army have punched to within 12 miles of the Bologna-Rimini highway, Allied headquarters announced today.

At the southeastern edge of the Po valley, however, the Eighth Army ran into heavy fighting with Nazi infantry, paratroopers and armored forces desperately holding a line across the entrance to the broad plains to the north.

The rate of progress Fifth Army units due north of Florence are making toward Bologna, a city of 270,000 at the edge of the Lombardy plain, remained obscure. Yesterday advance elements were within 15 miles of Bologna. Today the main forces were well across the Santerno River and had captured the Coroncina hill mass around Futa Pass.

Farther west and south, the Fifth Army cut the Prato-Vernio-Castiglione highway, an important communications route through the Apennines.

Brazilians Gain.

On the west coastal sector Brazilian troops have been "engaging the enemy and have made a small advance, suffering few casualties," an Allied headquarters statement said.

CHURCHILLS BACK IN ENGLAND FROM PARLEY AT QUEBEC

Crossings Made on Liner Queen Mary, London Discloses.

LONDON, Sept. 25 (AP).—Prime Minister Churchill and Mrs. Churchill have arrived in England from the Quebec conference with President Roosevelt.

The journey to America and back was made on the liner Queen Mary.

Churchill's party included Lord Leathers, Minister of Transport; Gen. Sir Hastings Ismay, Churchill's chief of staff in the Defense Ministry; Churchill's physician, Lord Moran, and J. M. Martin, the Prime Minister's chief private secretary.

CHALLENGES PLEA OF HOUSE FOR LIST OF CONTRIBUTORS

Constitutional Government Group's Secretary Willing to Tell of Expenditures.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 (AP).—Edward A. Rumely, executive secretary of the Committee for Constitutional Government, declined today to provide the House Campaign Expenditures Committee with a record of the organization's financial contributors. Disputing the right of the House group to inquire into contributions to the committee, Rumely said he was ready to defend his stand in court.

"Very regretfully I have got to tell you no," Rumely said when asked by Chairman Anderson (Dem.), New Mexico, if he intended to produce records showing contributions of $100 or more to the organization founded by Frank Gannett, New York publisher. He was willing, he added, to present records of expenditures.

Rumely, appearing in response to a subpena, told the committee he was refusing on advice of counsel and on his own belief that the Committee for Constitutional Government is not a political organization and therefore is not subject to the investigation.

RUSSIANS TAKE ANOTHER PORT IN ESTONIA DRIVE

Haapsalu, 63 Miles Below Tallinn, Falls — Fighting Flares on East Prussia Border.

LONDON, Sept. 25 (AP).—Russian troops have captured Haapsalu, Estonia's third port, 63 miles southwest of Tallinn, Moscow announced tonight.

More than 800 populated places were taken in this drive along the Baltic seacoast, the broadcast communique said. More than 200 places also were taken west of Rujiene and Valmiera and more than 80 in the area east of Riga.

By DANIEL DE LUCE

MOSCOW, Sept. 25 (AP). — Red Army forces closed in on the Latvian capital of Riga today for the climax to a successful Baltic offensive, and local fighting on the Lithuanian frontier of East Prussia heralded a possible large-scale invasion of the Junkers province.

(A Moscow broadcast recorded in London by the Soviet Monitor said Russian troops crossing from southern Poland through Lupkow Pass into Czechoslovakia had captured Humenne, 25 miles inside the republic. The Reds were reported to have routed the 228th and 101st German Infantry Divisions after a fierce battle.

(A Bucharest communique said Russian and Romanian troops crossed the southeastern Hungarian frontier. They were believed to be less than 35 miles from Sgezed, Hungary's second city.

POLISH TROOPS CROSS RHINE TO HELP AIRBORNE UNIT AT ARNHEM

Limited Relief Improves Situation of Trapped Division—10-Mile Gain on 30-Mile Front in Belgium.

LONDON, Sept. 25 (AP).—Two new British and American wedges have thrust across the German border in a direct drive on the Siegfried line anchor of Kleve, it was disclosed today. The threatened sweep into the Ruhr, Germany's northern industrial area, was gathering breadth and force.

At the same time, the British Second Army thrust more troops across the upper branch of the Rhine near Arnhem, where British airborne troops had written a new epic in a heroic eight-day stand, and began building up the hard-won foothold on the north bank of the river.

On the right of the Kleve-pointed wedges the British, with airborne reinforcements, were fighting on a 13-mile front from Deurne east of Eindhoven to near Volkel, to the north, in an area only about 16 miles from the German frontier.

Fighting in Forest.

Supreme Headquarters announced that troops were engaging the Germans in the Reichswald, forested area whose edge at the Dutch border is only six miles from Kleve. Front line reports said these troops were British tank forces.

Front line reports said American parachutists attached to the British Second Army had taken Beek, Dutch border village three miles southeast of Nijmegen and only about eight miles northwest of Kleve, and these troops, too, were fighting in Germany. Beek is five or six miles north of where the entry into the Reichswald apparently was made.

Advance in Belgium.

To the west of the British corridor driven to Arnhem, Canadians and British advanced 10 miles on a 30-mile front to the Antwerp-Turnhout Canal, seized a bridgehead across the canal about eight miles northeast of Antwerp, and entered Turnhout about 25 miles northeast of Antwerp.

The Germans said new airborne forces had been dropped south of 'S-Hertogenbosch ahead of this drive threatening to cut off Germans retreating in Western Holland by a squeeze to the Ijessel Meer (Zuider Zee).

Help for Trapped Division.

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's communique announced that Polish reinforcements from the British Second Army had slipped across the upper branch of the Rhine at Arnhem by night and bolstered the hard-pressed British airborne division.

Supreme Headquarters said last night the position of the trapped force was "definitely brighter" after receiving "limited assistance" from the rescue column. A firm junction between the two forces still has not been made, however, Supreme Headquarters said.

Front dispatches have said the relief column was so close that it began providing artillery support for the ringed troops four days ago.

The Polish troops who established the first contact brought at least a message of hope to the trapped men.

First Army Sector.

On down the line, Lt. Gen. Courtney H. Hodges' United States First Army broke up a German counterattack in the area east of Aachen and turned huge 240 mm. (nearly 10-inch) guns on targets only 18 miles from the Rhine.

Front line dispatches said the Americans' big guns east of Aachen were bellowing at positions well east of Duren and on the approaches to Cologne.

The communique announced that one German strongpoint, presumably a part of the Siegfried line, was wiped out in the Rotgen area, south of Aachen, and that the Americans had made other

Mild Quake at 6:37 A. M. Rattles Dishes in St. Louis Area; No Damage

An earthquake of mild intensity, probably centered in the St. Mary's fault region about 68 miles south of St. Louis, was felt throughout the St. Louis area this morning, shaking residences and rattling dishes and small objects. No damage was reported.

The five seismographs of the St. Louis University Institute of Geophysical Technology recorded the first wave at 37 minutes and 37 seconds after 6 o'clock and the second wave 12 seconds later. No other waves were recorded.

Numerous telephone calls, reporting the quake were received by the university and by newspaper offices, from St. Louis County, north, south and central St. Louis and the East Side.

A resident of Webster Groves said he felt a jolt as he was dozing in bed, and that the jolt was followed by a "jiggle" and then a "tremor that made the whole room rock for about 10 seconds."

A woman in South St. Louis said she heard the chimes of her clock ringing during the period of the quake. The most frequent report was that of rattling glass and chinaware.

The last earthquake felt here was early in the afternoon of Nov. 17, 1942. The epicenter was about nine miles from St. Louis University. The quake was of light intensity and continued for about a minute and a half.

Declaration of Independence Out Of Bomb Shelter; Danger Past

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 (AP).—The joint Chiefs of Staff have concluded finally that the nation's capital, for the first time since Pearl Harbor, is safe from enemy air attack.

Archibald MacLeish, Librarian of Congress, said today he had to obtain the permission of the joint chiefs—Gen. George C. Marshall, Adm. Ernest J. King and Adm. William D. Leahy—to display again the Government's most prized documents, the original Declaration of Independence, Constitution, and British Magna Charta.

He added that the permission was granted on the conclusion that there is no likelihood now of even a token bombing.

They will go on display next Sunday.

The documents have been guarded like gold. They were whisked away to a secret, bomb-proof place after the Japanese attack.

As soon as the Chiefs of Staff made their ruling, the papers were brought back just as secretly.

Even now the hiding place cannot be revealed.

"We might want to use it again, MacLeish explained.

Library employes will dust off the bases on the second floor of the library this week and without ceremony replace the facsimiles which have been on display with the genuine articles for the first visitors next Sunday.

Some tourists thought the copies were the real thing in the last two and a half years. When they learned different, guides were bombarded with "how comes," but MacLeish said "they all seemed to understand when we explained."

U. S. AIR TROOPS KEEP OPEN LINE OF SUPPLY FOR ARMY IN HOLLAND

Beat Back Attacks by Strong Panzer Force Threatening Road Vital to British Farther to North.

By WALTER CRONKITE
Representing the Combined American Press.

WITH AMERICAN AIRBORNE TROOPS OUTSIDE VECHEL, Holland, Sept. 24 (Delayed) (AP).—German tanks are rolling into action practically from Ruhr assembly plants with their guns blazing, but they have not been able to break our hold on the road junction of Vechel.

One of Germany's best remaining panzer forces is resting somewhere back along the Willem canal after unsuccessfully attempting all day yesterday to seize the town.

Their attack started at dawn when they shelled the road on which bumper-to-bumper convoys are feeding the British Second Army. The Germans temporarily halted the supply columns and moved to within 1000 yards of the road before the Americans, with British help, drove them off.

Just before dusk Typhoon planes came into action with their rockets. They hit suddenly and hard at the German tanks and the enemy withdrew. Now the Germans are being squeezed north by the Second Army's flanking columns moving up from the south.

However, their efforts are strengthening with each attack and ahead of us is heavy fighting for the corridor, despite the fact the Germans have lost about one-third of their original strength in the past three days. Because of this, the Germans are using their equipment conservatively.

TRAPPED MEN HOPE FOR CLEAR SKIES

By ALAN WOODS
(Representing the Combined American Press.)

WITH BRITISH AIRBORNE TROOPS IN THE ARNHEM AREA, Sept. 24 (Delayed) (AP).—German shelling of our little stronghold is continuous and getting more vicious.

Now it seems they are bringing up batteries of 88s, and confused firing about 100 yards away may mean the German infantry is attacking.

We can hear a German Spandau gun firing, but since some of our men are using captured weapons, we can't judge from the sound whether it is turned against us—and we can't see because of the trees.

Typhoon planes were attacking enemy guns with rockets earlier, but now it is raining again. One day's clear sky would make all the difference in the world.

But, meanwhile, rain or shine, our men go on fighting—beating off attacks and themselves attacking while waiting the arrival of the Second Army.

I can't yet write the full story of all they have done and all they have endured, but if in the years to come any man says to you, "I fought with the Arnhem airborne force," take off your hat to him and buy him a drink. His is the stuff of which England's greatness is made. The few of Arnhem will rank in glory with the few of the Battle of Britain.

TANK DESTROYER UNIT ADVANCES 65 MILES IN BATTLE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 (AP).—The army's new 18½-ton tank destroyer, with its 76mm. cannon was the "streamlined speed demon that put a streak of lightning in our drive across France," the War Department was informed yesterday by one of its observers.

Capt. Charles R. Adkins, automotive expert for the army, who has reported back after a month in France, asserted that the "M-18 is the hottest thing in today's armored warfare." A tank destroyer unit of M-18s in one instance advanced 65 miles in three and a half hours of combat, he said.

The destroyer is mounted on 10 bogey wheels operating independently; thus one damaged wheel will not stop the M-18. A new engine can be installed in an hour and three-quarters.

Allies Enter Reich From Nijmegen

Nazis Yield Epinal.

Lt. Gen. George S. Patton's Third Army slashed close to Baccarat, 28 miles southeast of Nancy and about 45 miles southwest of Strasbourg on the Rhine. The Germans announced the loss of Epinal on the Moselle, 40 miles below Nancy and about the same distance above the Belfort gap. Americans already were fighting well east of Epinal.

In these two sectors a Germany at bay was making a desperate stand and Allied gains were being measured in yards. The German Army was throwing in counterattack after counterattack which left the battlefield strewn with wrecked tanks and dead or wounded troops. Behind it a German civilian army with shovels was digging frantically to create new lines of trenches.

At Metz, the Germans still held out against Patton's tightening lines, and clung to trenches and tank positions on the west side of the Moselle opposite that fortress city. But the Americans were squeezing in from positions which last were announced as only six miles away.

Nazi Tank Attack.

The Germans lost 21 tanks in a counterattack yesterday in the Dieuze and Chateau-Salins areas a little less than 30 miles northeast of Nancy. Another strong enemy counterattack by artillery-supported infantry was cut to bits by American guns to the west, between Metz and Nancy.

The Americans drove the Germans out of Leyr, eight miles northeast of Nancy, while to the southeast they made progress in the Faulx and Champenoux forests toward Baccarat.

French forces made a two-mile advance in the Mondon forest from a point give miles north of Baccarat.

Battle at Arnhem.

The crossing by Polish troops of the quarter-mile-wide Rhine branch at Arnhem was in the face of a storm of German shellfire which had compressed the red-bereted British parachutists at one time into a mile-square area just west of Arnhem.

It did not seem likely that the parachutists had succeeded in holding either the road or rail bridge over the river for Gen. Dempsey's forces.

A correspondent with the British airborne force wrote in a delayed dispatch: "I heard we were hard pressed and I suppose we are, but we are pressing the Germans pretty hard, too." Another correspondent in the bridgehead said that the paratroop unit "has got its teeth into the German defense position on the northern Rhine and like the proverbial British bulldog it won't let go."

Dempsey had waged a bitter week-long flight to force his way 50 miles north to accomplish the link-up. His troops traversed a German "shooting gallery"—along raised roads across marshy land where every tank and truck was an elevated target for German guns concealed on either side of the narrow corridor.

Corridor Widened.

The British also broadened the Nijmegen corridor, walling it off with tanks and American airborne reinforcements which fought off repeated but weakening German counterattacks.

The Germans tried yesterday to cut this supply lane near Veghel, south of Nijmegen and north of Eindhoven, this time thrusting comparatively small tank forces from the east, near Erp, but they were beaten back again.

Reopening of the Eindhoven-Nijmegen road, which had been cut for a time by the Germans near Veghel, improved considerably the Allied position in the Holland salient, now four to five miles wide at its narrowest points.

No developments on the remainder of the western front were reported officially and there was a lull in operations on the Channel coast, where Nazis still hold out at Cap Gris Nez, Calais and Dunkerque. It is estimated that 5000 Germans are in the besieged garrison at Calais. Reuters news agency said Cap Gris Nez had been captured.

There was no word of progress of the United States Seventh Army, battling west and south of Belfort, and along the Riviera. The Berlin radio said the new American Ninth Army had intensified its activity, but "made no progress toward the German frontier." The Ninth's sector was not specified.

Allied headquarters report said Hodges' First Army had taken 183,827 prisoners and forces under Patton had captured 92,600, making a total of 276,427 for the United States Twelfth Army group since June 6.

13 MORE GERMAN GENERALS CALL ON ARMY TO REVOLT

MOSCOW, Sept. 25 (AP).—Moscow newspapers published today a statement by 13 German generals and three colonels captured in Romania, appealing to the German army to revolt against Adolf Hitler and make an immediate peace. The document was drafted by Maj. Gen. Count Hulzen, commander of the 370th Infantry Division, the newspaper account said.

The appeal recalled a similar message by 17 generals of the Central Army Group destroyed in Poland early in the summer, and declared that 20 divisions had been lost in Romania by destruction of the Sixth and Eighth Armies, known as the South Ukraine Army Group.

Fewer Auto Deaths in 1943.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 (AP).—The Census Bureau said today that the number of deaths in automobile accidents during 1943 was the lowest for any year since 1928. The nation's total was 18,254. The highest total was in California which listed 2562 and the lowest in Wyoming where 41 persons were injured fatally.

—Associated Press Wirephoto.

Arrows mark Allied action on the northern sector of the Western Front. British forces have entered Germany in the Reichswald (forest) area and American troops also have struck across the border southeast of Nijmegen. Other British units made contact with airborne soldiers in the Arnhem pocket. The Canadians advanced northeast of Antwerp and British units were reported to have entered Turnhout. Yanks of the First Army continued pressure above and below Aachen.

Battle of Nijmegen Bridge Ranked With Tarawa as Epic of Courage

By ROBERT WILSON

WITH UNITED STATES AIRBORNE TROOPS IN HOLLAND, Sept. 22 (Delayed) (AP).—For raw courage, the battle for Nijmegen bridge fought by American airborne troops ranks with the Marine capture of Tarawa.

It was a masterpiece of military improvisation—"impossible according to textbooks"—achieved only "through the quality of our troops," declared the General commanding the division that did it.

The audacious operation of crossing the 300-yard wide tidal Waal Rhine in daylight under enemy fire, in which British troops and the Dutch underground played important roles, was conceived and finished in less than 24 hours.

The Germans held both ends of the bridge, a life line to the airborne forces isolated at Arnhem, eight miles north. It was decided that a frontal assault was suicidal.

Instead the commanders decided to cut a half-mile northwest of the town, leap the river, turn east, and come at the bridge from behind.

The General was informed of the plan at 9 p. m., Sept. 20. It first was necessary to clear enemy troops from the south bank, and American infantry with British tanks did this early the next day, taking 300 prisoners.

While this fighting was under way, boats were brought up and hidden near a factory power station to await H-hour, which was 3 p. m., Sept. 21.

At 2:45 p. m. a heavy barrage of artillery was poured on to the north bank, followed by smoke shells. Then the first of 26 boats stuck their noses in the water.

The Germans raked the river with artillery, motor, machinegun and small arms fire. Thirteen of the boats returned. An eight-mile-an-hour tide carried them 500 yards west, and men had to go out and drag them back to the starting positions.

Again the boats braved the river. "It was a case of paddling like hell with machinegun bullets ripping the water, coming closer and closer and finally no longer hitting the water," said Col. R. H. Tucker, Ansonia, Conn. "They hit something more solid."

Eight boats returned from the second trip. One landed with three dead and four wounded out of a boatload of 11 combat infantrymen. Some troops had to bail out the bullet-riddled boats with canteen cups.

Finally only five boats were left and there were 700 men still to get across somehow. But the job was done and those that crossed found many dead Germans.

Striking east quickly, they overran an old Dutch fort surrounded by a moat.

"I don't know yet how we did it," Tucker said. "You'd never have got American troops out of a fortress like that. We took 30 live Germans."

The doughboys slugged their way over a 30-foot high railroad embankment and closed in on the north end of the bridge.

Meanwhile other troops, who also were veterans of Sicily and Normandy, were engaged in the fiercest fighting alongside British troops at the Nijmegen or south end of the bridge.

Fanatical Enemy Resistance.

"The enemy fought with a fanaticism never before experienced by our veterans," said Lt. Col. Benjamin Vandervoort, Columbus, O.

SS (Elite Guard) German troops attacked Allied medical men kneeling by wounded. With bayonets and knives, the Americans and British rooted the Germans from their holes on the approaches to the bridge.

Finally both ends of the bridge were captured, and at 6 p. m. British tanks rolled across.

But it was due to the Dutch underground that there was a bridge there.

"These people really deserve liberation," said the general. The Germans wired the bridge for destruction, but the Dutch kept the wires cut.

240-Mm. Cannon Blasting German Railroads and Communications Centers Near Rhine.

By DON WHITEHEAD

WITH THE AMERICAN FIRST ARMY IN GERMANY, Sept. 24 (Delayed) (AP).—Shells from big 240-mm. guns of Lt. Gen. Courtney H. Hodges' American First Army were pounding targets only 18 miles from the Rhine today, while the Germans strengthened their defenses of the Reich.

East of the frontier city of Aachen, German civilians were put to work digging trenches and preparing fortifications.

The Gremans apparently are pulling together all the odds and ends of the units they can muster and putting them in line to impede the American advance. Most of these "sacrifice" units are composed of elderly men, boys and misfits.

"These boys are souped up for the time being," one Allied officer said, "but they are not good for the long pull because they have got a lot of secondary stuff in the ranks. After they are hit a time or two they'll begin to believe the stories of the boys from Normandy that Germany has lost the war."

Duren a Target.

Heavy guns strung along the First Army's front are hurling shells into Duren and other communications centers in a strategic shelling to cripple railroads and harass the enemy's movements of troops and supplies.

In no other campaign have the Americans mustered such a concentration of big guns as now are blasting at the enemy, and when the weather permits, fighter-bombers are hitting hard at the enemy's rear lines.

For the past several days the weather has hampered Hodges' efforts to build up supplies. The fall rains have set in and muddy roads have slowed convoys and multiplied supply problems, while at the same time giving the enemy relief from steady pounding from the air.

Role of Air Army.

The officer said the First Allied Airborne Army in Holland had been of invaluable aid to the United States First Army because it threatened the German Fifteenth Army and disrupted the enemy's over-all plan of defense.

The enemy's desperation is shown in the fact that when he cannot reconstruct divisions battered by the Allies he forms brigades and shoots them into the line wherever the threat looks greatest.

"Some of these brigades are 'one-round Hogan' outfits," the officer said, "and are fighting over their weight. When they come in and get a good shellacking, they lose a lot of their spirit and are not so ready to come back for another beating."

Fresh enemy troops coming in from the east appear vigorous and strong because they have not suffered the long reverses of units which retreated all the way from Normandy. Because this spirit is spread among the newly arriving troops, there is every indication that heavy fighting is ahead before the back of the enemy's defenses can be broken.

During the day the Americans beat back two minor counterattacks and inflicted an estimated 40 per cent casualties on the attacking troops.

LEDO ROAD INTO CHINA OPEN; LIFELINE FOR AID TO ALLY

Usefulness Contingent on Chinese Army's Ability to Stop Japanese in Yunan Province, Seattle Newspaper Says.

SEATTLE, Sept. 25 (AP).—"Usability" of China's new lifeline, the Ledo road, was disclosed yesterday by the Post-Intelligencer.

The paper said the juncture of the vital overland link with existing arteries in China first was learned from a "visiting source close to the Chinese embassy." It was confirmed officially by the United States Army Engineers in Washington, D. C.

"Future usefulness of the route as a source of eleventh-hour supplies to beleaguered Chinese armies is contingent upon efforts to stave off mounting Japanese pressure on the Yunan 'feeder' roads," the paper pointed out.

Extending from the Ledo railhead in Eastern India, the road passes through the jungles of Northern Burma and joins roadways of China's Yunan province at Trunghka, Burma.

"Surfaced by gravel carried in the head-baskets of Indian women, the road is in part a two-lane highway, meandering in places to elevations up to 4300 feet.

"Built from scratch by road crews, headed by woodcutters and followed by bulldozers and steamrollers, the road was always only a step behind Gen. Stilwell, whose knowledge of the country was perforce based on maps 21 years old.

Built by Army engineers under Brig. Gen. Lewis A. Pick, the Ledo road, known as "Pick's Pike," was begun in December, 1942, the paper said.

"United States postal authorities, without stipulating the delivery route, (have) announced that parcel post, discontinued to China since Feb. 27, 1942, is now being accepted for delivery to nine Chinese provinces," it added.

U. S. 79TH INFANTRY DIVISION IN ACTION WITH THIRD ARMY

WITH THE AMERICAN THIRD ARMY IN FRANCE, Sept. 25 (AP).—The 79th Infantry Division and the 134th Infantry Regiment are in action with the American Third Army, it was officially disclosed last night.

WITH THE FIRST ARMY IN GERMANY, Sept. 24 (Delayed) (AP).—The United States Fourth Infantry Division was one of Lt. Gen. Courtney H. Hodges' First Army units which smashed into the Siegfried line after a great drive across France and Belgium.

Censorship permitted identification of the division today.

The division landed in Normandy on D-day and participated in the drive to capture Cherbourg. Under Maj. Gen. Raymond O. Barton, it was one of three units which spearheaded the breakthrough west of St. Lo. It fought its way into Paris alongside the Second French armored division and, with hardly a pause drove on to the east and hammered a wedge into the Siegfried line.

Princess Killed in Vienna Raid.

LONDON, Sept. 25 (AP).—The funeral of Princess Maria Elisabetta of Liechtenstein who was killed during an air raid on Vienna, took place yesterday in Veduz, capital of the principality of Liechtenstein, according to a Swiss radio broadcast recorded here.

TROOP CARRIER PLANES LAND 20,000 TONS IN NETHERLANDS IN WEEK

HEADQUARTERS U. S. TROOP CARRIER COMMAND, Britain, Sept. 25 (AP).

UNITED STATES carrier planes flew 8000 sorties in the first week of the first Allied airborne army's invasion of Holland a staff officer estimated yesterday.

He said at least 40 million pounds of heavy supplies and troops had been landed since the airborne operations began last Sunday with a loss of less than 3 per cent—this despite heavy flak and fighter opposition after the Nazis recovered from their initial surprise.

TWO SHORT ROBOT ATTACKS MADE ON SOUTH ENGLAND

LONDON, Sept. 25 (AP).—The Germans struck at the London area and the southern counties with flying bombs twice during the night.

The attacks came in two short bursts—just after dark and again early this morning—and caused some casualties. Eleven persons were injured when one bomb exploded on the grounds of a Catholic boys' school in the country, blowing the roofs off school buildings and smashing windows and doors.

FINNS TAKE TWO TOWNS IN DRIVE TO EJECT NAZIS

Haukipudas on Bothnian Gulf Captured — Austrians Said to Have Turned on Nazis.

HELSINKI, Sept. 25 (AP).—Finnish troops are making steady progress in their efforts to drive the Germans out of northern Finland and fulfill the terms of an armistice with Russia.

A Finnish communique today announced the capture of Haukipudas and Poulanka from the German occupants and that troops still were advancing against the Nazis in Lapland. Haukipudas is on the Gulf of Bothnia, six miles north of Oulu on the way to the German stronghold of Kemi. Poulanka is about 45 miles west of Suomuusalmi in the heart of Finland.

Yesterday's communique reported the Finns had occupied part of Suomussalmi. They were overcoming mines, demolitions and road blocks set up by the retreating Nazis.

(A dispatch from Stockholm last night said four Finnish divisions were battling their former comrades-in-arms, said to number 100,000 Austrians and Germans. Austrian troops, who at one time made up 80 per cent of the German garrison in the north, were reported unwilling to fight the Finns, with the result that "gunffre" had broken out between the Austrians and Germans. The Finns were said to be hopeful of ousting the Germans within four weeks without any help from the Russians.

(A Helsinki dispatch to Aftonbladet said the Germans burned the village of Kuusamo in retiring northward. West of Salla, fighting was reported between the Finns and Germans.)

Former Royal Physician Dies.

CONSTITUTION PUT INTO 12 SECTIONS BY COMMITTEE

By a Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, Sept. 25.—The Constitutional Convention committee on phraseology and arrangements has completed the work of arranging the 20 files adopted into a Constitution with 12 articles. The present Constitution has 15. The arrangement will be submitted to the convention Wednesday for its approval.

All related sections have been placed in properly connected order in the document prepared.

The committee on schedule has made provision to avoid conflict if the proposal for a unicameral Legislature, which will be on the initiative ballot at the November election, is adopted in advance of the adoption of the proposed new constitution, which provides for a bicameral Legislature. A section inserted by the committee on schedule provides that if the unicameral is adopted it shall prevail.

Campaign Being Planned.

In the period of recess of the convention since last Thursday, committees have been at work preparing plans for the campaign for the adoption of the Constitution and of handling all the details of summission. Their reports will go to the convention for approval Wednesday.

They recommend that there shall be an executive committee consisting of President Blake, Vice Presidents McVay and Nacy, and the chairman of five other committees to be created, to supervise the work of the five committees and of the whole plan of campaign and of the final settling of the affairs of the convention.

The five committees which it is proposed to set up are:

Ballot and election, to prepare the notice of the election on the adoption of the constitution, and the form of the ballot.

Publications, to ascertain the cost of the publication of the address to the people and notice of the election in the newspapers of the State, and the number and cost of publication of pamphlets containing the text of the constitution and the address to the people.

Contract, to prepare and examine all contracts in connection with newspaper publications, other printing and all other contracts connected with the final work of the convention.

Information Centers Planned.

Public relations, to establish centers throughout the State for distribution of information about the constitution, to set up a public relations organization to supply newspapers, civic groups, service clubs, political organizations, schools and the public generally with information and to arrange for members of the convention to conduct a speaking campaign for the adoption of the constitution.

Documents and files, to arrange for the preservation of all documents of the convention, including the stenotype report of the debates.

Virtually all of the delegates to the convention will be assigned places on these committees. President Blake, although he has the personnel of the committees decided on in anticipation of favorable action on the reports, said today he would not make public the names until the convention had acted on the reports.

DONNELLY TO STUMP ALONE, OTHER DEMOCRATS IN GROUPS

JEFFERSON CITY, Sept. 25 (AP).—State Senator Phil M. Donnelly will campaign by himself in quest of the governorship this week while other Democratic candidates campaign in groups. Donnelly scheduled speeches at Hartville, Mansfield and Ava on Tuesday; Gainesville and West Plains on Wednesday; and Willow Springs, Cabool and Houston on Thursday.

A caravan of three candidates — Roy McKittrick for United States Senator, Forrest Smith for Auditor, and R. W. Winn for Treasurer—will campaign in Moniteau County Tuesday, Cass Wednesday, Johnson Thursday, Lafayette Friday and Pettis County Saturday, and also will attend a labor meeting in Kansas City Tuesday night.

J. E. Taylor, Wilson Bell and Walter N. Davis, running for Attorney General, Secretary of State and Lieutenant Governor respectively, will visit Maries and Miller Counties Tuesday, Osage and Gasconade Wednesday, Montgomery and Warren Thursday, Lincoln Friday and St. Charles County Saturday.

L. N. Searcy Dies of Heart Disease; Served 3 Terms as State Senator

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

EXCELSIOR SPRINGS, Mo., Sept. 25.—Former State Senator L. N. Searcy of Eminence, Shannon County, died of heart disease in a tourist camp here early today. He was 62 years old, and was a lawyer, newspaper publisher and a delegate to the State Constitutional Convention. He sought the Democratic nomination for Attorney General in the Aug. 1 primary, but ran third in a field of four candidates.

Searcy was born in Audrain County, but lived most of his life in Shannon County. He was Prosecuting Attorney, County School Commissioner and County Highway Engineer before his first election to the Senate, in 1926. He served one term then, and was elected to the Senate in 1934 and 1938.

His wife died at their home in Eminence last May. They had four children—two sons, J. N. Searcy of Sunnyside, Wash., and J. Ben Searcy of Eminence, now Shannon County Prosecutor; and two daughters, Georgia Searcy of Kansas City and Mrs. Raymond Bills of Jefferson City.

SEARCY COLORFUL, ALWAYS A FIGHTER

By CURTIS A. BETTS
State Political Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, Sept. 25.—The death of Senator Searcy takes from the Missouri political scene one of its most colorful characters. His public life has been one of constant battle. He was one of the recalcitrants of the constitutional convention, one of the ultra-conservatives throughout his legislative career.

He was ruthless in a legislative fight and he was in every one that came up, always with the element in the Senate and in the convention which opposed anything of a progressive nature. He was intensely partisan.

There was little of the diplomat about him. When he was in the majority he was a bull who tolerated no interference. When he was in the minority, as he frequently was, he made his blustering fight just the same, and when defeated accepted defeat as part of the game.

In his private relations, even with those he fought and those who fought him most bitterly, he was a kindly, agreeable person and was personally liked by all the members of the Senate and of the convention.

In the 1941 Legislature, Searcy was the directing head of the attempted governorship steal, the chairman of the partisan Democratic committee which was framed under the direction of the Democratic State Committee to conduct a so-called investigation of the election of Gov. Donnell, Republican, with a view to declaring that, notwithstanding the election returns, Donnell's Democratic opponent, Lawrence McDaniel, had been elected and was entitled to the seat.

Throughout the contest, Searcy made no pretense that the movement was anything but partisan. He was frank with the newspapers in telling of the various moves, as he was always frank in his public utterances. Donnell was finally seated as a result of a Supreme Court decision. Searcy had no comment.

In the Senate he was a member of the old Casey-Kinney-Brogan combine which ruled the Senate for many years and controlled all legislation. In his last session, this combine was without power and Searcy had less influence. He was defeated for re-election in 1942 by a Republican principally because of his connection with the governorship steal.

In the convention he led the fight against the amendment to curb the small-loan companies and, although it was apparent he was in a losing fight, he fought to the last ditch.

More than six feet tall, swarthy of complexion and with ruffled hair, he was a commanding, often almost a terrifying figure on the floor of the Senate and the convention.

TWO WOMEN, 80, HIT BY AUTO AND KILLED

Companion Injured at Modesto, Ill.—Driver Burned to Death Near Festus.

Mrs. E. J. Watt and Mrs. Susan J. Whitlock, both 80 years old and residents of Modesto, Ill., were killed there last night when they were hit by an automobile driven by Clyde Dow of Springfield, Ill. The Illinois State Patrol said the two women were crossing State Route 111 with Mrs. Charles Short, 56, who also was struck. Mrs. Short was taken to Macoupin County Hospital at Carlinville in critical condition, the patrol said. Modesto is 65 miles northeast of St. Louis.

Charles Mayer, 48, was killed last night while crossing United States Highway 40 about two miles west of Troy, Ill. He was a farmer and lived on Rural Route 1 at Troy. The driver of the automobile, Pvt. Raymond Baldwin, stationed at Fort Leonard Wood, told State police he was traveling west. Mayer apparently became confused by an eastbound machine and stepped into the path of his car, he said.

Accident Verdict in Death of Driver Burned in Crash.

A Coroner's verdict of accident was returned today at Festus, Mo., in the death of Samuel H. Crowe of Peverly, who burned to death Saturday night when his automobile caught fire after being struck from the rear by a truck.

The accident occurred two miles north of Festus on United States Highway 61. The truck driver, Charles E. Wisdon of Ste. Genevieve, Mo., told police both vehicles were northbound.

Crowe's car was moving slowly or was stopped, and had no lights, Wisdon said, and he did not see it in time to avoid the accident. The machine caught fire and it was four hours before patrolmen were able to remove Crowe's body.

Woman Crossing Street Struck by Auto, Critically Injured.

Mrs. Johanna A. Husterer, 69, is in critical condition at City Hospital today of a compound fracture of the right arm and skull injuries suffered early yesterday when she was struck by an automobile while crossing the street near her home, 3363 Washington boulevard.

The driver, Paul Borsch, 1055 Wall street, told police he was driving west on Washington and did not see Mrs. Husterer. He heard a thud, he said, and after stopping found her lying in the street.

HONOR SYSTEM STAYS DESPITE ESCAPE OF 19 PRISONERS

Although 19 soldier prisoners have escaped from the Jefferson Barracks rehabilitation center recently, the honor system still prevails there and prisoner trusties are still permitted to work outside the stockade, Col. C. A. Greenwalt, commanding officer of the center, said today.

Certain precautions are being taken, however. A second and heavier fence 12 feet high has been constructed around the stockade, floodlights are being installed and five guard towers from which all parts of the stockade can be seen, are in course of construction.

Eight of the escaped prisoners have been captured by civil authorities, one returned voluntarily after wandering around the post and 10 are still missing. Although about 25 per cent of the 1000 prisoners have had criminal records before entering service, the rehabilitation process is applied to all with the ultimate aim of returning as many as possible to their original outfits where they may receive an honorable discharge at the end of their service, it was said.

2 YEARS PROBATION ON CHARGE OF TAKING ARMY TOOLS

Terrell D. Nelms, 7220 North Broadway, was placed on two years' probation today in United States District Court after entering a no contest plea to charges of taking tools from the St. Louis Army Ordnance Depot, 7200 North Broadway, where he formerly was lieutenant of guards.

He told Judge Rubey M. Hulen he often was permitted to borrow tools from the plant, but that he took the pools charged without permission to repair a stove pipe at home. The tools were valued at $8.29. Judge Hulen ordered him to pay $50 costs.

12 ST. LOUIS NEGROES COMMENDED BY ARMY

Eight Are Operators of Ducks Unloading Ships Bringing Supplies to France.

The names of 12 men from the St. Louis area were listed by the War Department today in reports describing the achievements of Negro troops in supplying European invasion forces with food and ammunition.

Eight St. Louisans were operating ducks — big amphibian trucks—on the coast of France. They are members of units of the Army Transportation Corps which landed in Normandy shortly after the initial invasion, and have worked day and night to unload craft bringing supplies and equipment needed by the men at the front.

The St. Louisans may be operating trucks made in their home town, inasmuch as the St. Louis Chevrolet plant at 3809 Union boulevard has been turning out the six-wheeled vehicles.

The War Department listed the following as duck operators: Tech. Cpl. Rheudell H. Carpenter, 4032 Cote Brilliante avenue; Tech. Cpl. James E. Fitzgerald Jr., 821 North Twentieth street; Tech. Cpl. Lester Livings, 710A North Newstead avenue; Tech. Cpl. Nathaniel Phelps, 2228A Cole street; Pvt. James O. Seay, 2208 Franklin avenue; Cpl. Charles E. Clay, 3900 West Belle place; Tech. Cpl. Archie Luss, 3017 Thomas street; Tech. Cpl. Earl O. Embree, 1124 Hampton avenue, Alton.

Good conduct medals for exemplary behavior and efficiency in sending supplies to France have been awarded to the following St. Louisans, who are members of a Transportation Corps port battalion in England: Tech. Cpl. Robert L. Branscomb, 423 Leffingwell avenue; Sgt. Hugo Davenport, 4418½ Cote Brilliante avenue; Cpl. Mickey Jones, 2245 Park avenue, and Tech. Cpl. Andrew Sykes, 2809½ Cole street.

POSTMASTER ON PROBATION ON POSTAL FUNDS CHARGE

Dyke H. Stephens, postmaster at Montauk, Mo., was placed on six months probation today by United States District Judge Rubey M. Hulen after he pleaded guilty to a technical charge of embezzling $34.36 in postal funds. Judge Hulen ordered him to pay court costs of $50.

Defendant's counsel, Joseph T. Davis, told the court that Stephens, who operates the postoffice in connection with his general store, sent a money order for $34.36 last May 2 without depositing the money in the postoffice funds. Davis said Stephens had several checks from customers which he was unable to cash because Montauk has no bank and that he planned to go to Salem the same day to get them cashed.

The same day a postoffice inspector found the shortage, but had the inspector come the following day, the money would have been in the postal funds, Davis said.

THREE MONTHS FOR ILLEGALLY ACQUIRING T 'GAS' COUPONS

Boyd Cordrey, former attendant at a Wellston filling station, was sentenced to three months in jail and fined $200 today by United States District Judge Rubey M. Hulen on his guilty plea to charges of illegally acquiring 55 T gasoline ration coupons.

Cordrey was found by a Site Oil Co. supervisor to be short $18 in cash and coupons for 302 gallons of gas, Assistant District Attorney Arthur Hapke told the Court. While the supervisor was at the station, Cordrey handed a stranger about $18 in exchange for a package later found to contain the 55 ration coupons, Hapke said.

"Somewhere along the line we've got to break up the practice of illegal dealing in ration coupons," Judge Hulen declared in sentencing Cordrey.

P A C Groups Didn't Violate Voting Laws, Justice Department Finds

Not Illegal Since No Contribution Was Made by Organizations, Biddle Rules in Replying to Senator.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 (AP).—Attorney General Biddle advised Senator Moore (Rep.), Oklahoma, today that the Department of Justice's investigation has failed to disclose any violation of Federal election laws by the CIO Political Action Committee or the National Citizens Political Action Committee.

Replying, in a letter dated Sept. 23 and made public today, to a written complaint from Moore, Biddle based his findings on these main points:

"It seems clear that so long as the CIO Political Action Committee confined its activities to primary campaigns and political conventions, it did not violate this (corrupt practices) statute.

"There can be no illegality under Section 313 of the Federal Corrupt Practices Act, as amended by the Smith-Connally Act, unless a contribution is made by a labor organization; in the absence of that fact the penalties of the section do not attach either to the one who makes the contribution or the one who receives it."

PAC Stayed Within Limits.

On Moore's contention that the Hatch Act had been violated by contributions amounting to more than $5000, Biddle wrote that his investigation showed that the PAC had stayed within the limit on each contribution to a candidate or committee. He added that provisions of the law apply only "when in fact real contributions are made to particular political committees and candidates."

To support a conclusion that the Hatch Act had been violated, he said, it must be assumed "that a union or a corporation commits a felony if it merely sets up on its books a fund allocated to political purposes, even though the fund is in fact never used in the manner prohibited by statute."

Spirit of Law Not Violated.

Biddle disagreed with Moore's contention that the financing method adopted by the National Citizens' Political Action Committee "is a mere technical effort expressly designed for the purpose of attempting to evade" provisions of the Corrupt Practices Act. He said the financing system appeared to him designed to comply with both the letter and spirit of the law, and added:

"Any other construction of the statute would require me to assume that the Congress intended to place the persons who belonged to labor organizations or who hold stock in national banks, or in corporations organized by authority of Federal law, under a special disability and to deny them a privilege that belongs to all other citizens."

The Attorney General had taken the same general position previously, on earlier complaints against the PAC, but this was the first time he had set out his detailed reasoning.

ST. LOUISAN ON HOSPITAL TRAIN MEETS SON FOR FIRST TIME

Second Lt. Joseph C. Debrecht, with one arm in a plaster cast, was introduced to his 4-month-old son yesterday in an unscheduled reunion at Union Station with his wife, Mrs. Edna M. Debrecht of 5312 Itaska street. After several hours with Mrs. Debrecht and Joseph Jr., the Lieutenant boarded the hospital train taking him to O'Reilly General Hospital, Springfield, Mo.

Lt. Debrecht was wounded in the wrist in France by a German machine-gun bullet on July 11. After hospitalization in England, he was returned to this country, landing in New York last Sunday. He was assigned for further treatment to Springfield. Yesterday, when he awoke, he learned that the hospital train stopped in St. Louis. He telephoned Mrs. Debrecht and arranged the meeting. His son was born here while Lt. Debrecht was at a port of embarkation for Europe.

Lt. Debrecht, 28 years old, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Debrecht, 4943A Tholozan avenue. Before joining the Army three years ago, he was employed in the accounting department of General Motors Acceptance Corporation in St. Louis.

Woman Found in Lagoon.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 (AP).—The nude body of a woman with her throat slashed, identified by police as Mrs. Margaret Fitzwater, 53 years old, was found floating yesterday in the lagoon fronting the Pentagon building in nearby Virginia, home of the War Department. She was a housekeeper and lived in Washington.

EX-HEAD OF LEAGUE COUNCIL FOR FORCE TO BACK SECURITY

PARIS, Sept. 25 (AP).—White-haired Joseph Paul-Boncour, a dramatic figure of prewar international affairs, has come out of obscurity, no longer as an active politician but as a political philosopher.

The home of the former president of the League of Nations Council and Foreign Minister in Leon Blum's government was and he spent the four years of the Nazi occupation in a house on the opposite bank of the Cher River.

Paul-Boncour, whose youthful, energetic look belies his 71 years, still seems to be looking for the universal peace about which men talked at Geneva. He still believes in the ideal of collective security—but he wants it backed by force. It is his belief that no collective system would work in Europe which does not include Russia.

$50 FINE FOR 'CRUELTY' TO CAT

Charles Dienstbach, 5056 Beacon avenue, was fined $50 and paroled today by Police Judge George J. Grellner for mutilating his cat "to keep him home nights." He was charged with cruelty to an animal.

Dienstbach said he did not know he was violating the law. He explained he wanted to keep the cat from prowling the neighborhood. A neighbor made a complaint to the Humane Society, which notified police.

BARRACKS MEMORIAL HONORS 400 WAR DEAD

2500 Attend Ceremony for Men From St. Louis Area Who Have Given Lives.

Four hundred war dead from the St. Louis area were honored yesterday in the first military memorial of the war at Jefferson Barracks, which was attended by 2500 persons, including 500 relatives of the soldier dead.

A military parade of troops from the renabilitation center headquarters and the 757th Military Police battalion followed addresses by Col. Richard E. Anderson, commanding officer of Jefferson Barracks, and Maj. Wilbur C. Small and Lt. Edward Bryant, chaplains.

A three-volley salute was fired from the post cannon at conclusion of the parade, for which the drum and bugle corps of Post 1102, Veterans of Foreign Wars, played. Sounding of taps closed the ceremony.

In his talk, Col. Anderson paid homage to the soldier dead from this area. "They will remain forever in the memory of their deeds," he said. "No words of ours can enhance those deeds, but we can dedicate ourselves to finishing the job they so ably started."

MAN ACCUSED OF DISTURBING PEACE PUT ON PROBATION

Keeping two radios going full blast at all hours and dropping a typewriter on the floor of his upstairs quarters at 1318 Bayard avenue at 3 o'clock yesterday morning, resulted in a fine of $300 against Charles H. Bassett today in Police Judge George J. Grellner's court.

The peace disturbance charges were brought by Bassett's daughter, Mrs. Elaine Wharton, whose husband is overseas in the service and who lives with her mother, Bassett's estranged wife, downstairs at the Bayard avenue address.

Bassett denied that he had disturbed the peace of his daughter and said he was a sickly man. Judge Grellner, on receiving a promise from Bassett to mend his ways, suspended the fine and placed him on probation for two years.

Shoeshine Held on Liquor Charge.

Joseph E. Wheeler, Negro, was arrested yesterday in his shoeshine parlor at 942 North Sarah street by members of the police liquor squad after they reported buying a half-pint of whisky there for $1.25. They said they found three more bottles of whisky and two of beer in the place, and two cases of beer in Wheeler's car. He was booked for selling liquor without state or city licenses.

$3289 IN CURRENCY IN POCKET OF MAN KILLED BY AUTO

Walter Cowell Also Carried War Bonds With Maturity Value of $625.

Attendants at St. Louis County Hospital were surprised when they searched the clothing of Walter Cowell, 60 years old, who was killed early yesterday when struck by an automobile while walking near his home, 9997 Manchester avenue, Warson Woods.

In a pocketbook was found currency totaling $3289, and in his vest pocket were war bonds with a maturity value of $625. The latter were made out to Mrs. Billie Whitecock of Stuttgart, Ark., said by Glendale police to be a sister.

Cowell had been maintenance foreman for the Thomas J. White Plastics Co., 9977 Manchester, for about a year and a half. Before that, he had been employed for 25 years by White's father, J. H. White, a contractor, as a cement finisher and foreman.

He was killed when hit by an automobile driven west on Manchester by Benton L. Black Jr., 312 Essex road, Kirkwood. Black said Cowell was walking west and stepped into the path of his car.

GANGSTER FRANK WORTMAN FINED $20 IN SPEEDING CASE

Frank Wortman, East Side gangster, was fined $20 today by Police Judge Joseph B. Catanzaro on his plea of guilty to a charge of speeding. He was given a suspended fine of $10 on the same charge by Judge Catanzaro last Aug. 14, but the case was reinstated after the Judge learned of Wortman's criminal record.

Wortman was arrested last July 20 on the Express Highway, with Monroe (Blackie) Armes, another Illinois gangster, for driving 45 miles an hour. Police found $3896 in their possession and a number of revolver cartridges. Wortman and Armes, who was not held on the speeding charge, served Federal prison terms for attacking prohibition agents and releasing a prisoner in a raid on a still near Collinsville in 1933.

4 FIRE CAPTAINS NAMED FOR FULL STRENGTH OF 74

Appointment of four Fire Captains, bringing the number of department heads to full strength of 74, was announced today by Fire Chief Frank Egenriether.

Promoted from privates were Phillip S. Vaccaro, to command Hook and Ladder Company No. 15, and Henry O. Schlueter, to command Engine Company No. 9.

Reappointed after leaves of absence were Charles Thotur to Hook and Ladder Company No. 19, and Louis P. Steiner to Engine Company No. 21. Steiner has been serving in the Coast Guard for 18 months.

8 CHUTISTS, 4 OTHERS KILLED IN NIGHT CRASH

Mass Leap in After-Dark Maneuvers Largest Ever Tried in U. S.—30 Injured.

CAMP MACKALL, N. C., Sept. 25 (AP).—Eight paratroopers and four crewmen were killed late last night in the crash of a C-47 transport plane during a mass parachute jump as a part of troop-carrier airborne maneuvers in this area.

Four paratroopers leaped to safety. Headquarters announced that 30 men required medical treatment in the mass jump, largest night jump ever held in this country.

A board of inquiry will investigate the accident. Names of the victims will be announced later.

Thousands of paratroopers last night plummeted behind the lines of the "Red" army and formed the spearhead of the "Blue" forces moving toward the Mackall landing strip.

The landing of the paratroops was the first phase of the combined troop-carrier airborne maneuver being staged in the sandhills to familiarize the troopers with the tactics recently adopted by American forces in skirting the Seigfried line and to develop a new technique in airborne warfare.

Landing of the sky troops took place in a brush area approximately five miles from the Mackall landing strip. Thousands of glider troops were expected to join them today and reinforce them in their drive toward the strip.

A squadron of CG-13s, the Army's newest glider, will be employed to evacuate the wounded by air.

About 10,000 troops will be used in the maneuvers.

Fire in Panama (Ill.) Business Area.

GREENVILLE, Ill., Sept. 25 (AP).—Panama, Ill., a nearly deserted mining village near here, lost half of her business buildings this morning when fire of unknown origin swept away four frame structures. Fire departments of Greenville, Hillsboro and Sorento brought the blaze under control. Loss was estimated at $35,000.

Dewey to Reply to F.D.R. Tonight

geles and San Francisco speeches he had "appeased" the New Deal through his indorsement of the National Labor Relations Act, old age security, unemployment insurance and other administration-sponsored programs.

Dewey thought a moment and then said: "I'm surprised to find that feeling. Would you say there are people in this state who would be opposed to something like old-age benefits?" His questioner said he guessed not, and Dewey added: "I'm simply trying to cure the defects of the New Deal."

Many Measures He Dislikes.

This opened the way for a request that he enumerate what New Deal measures he would favor repealing if he is elected.

"That would take me all afternoon," he commented.

"Are there that many you don't like?" someone pressed.

"I really think," Dewey said, "that the question is far too complicated to be answered this way at a press conference."

In response to further questions, Dewey said he is still in the process of formulating his foreign trade policy; that he spoke to large and enthusiastic numbers of "Democrats for Dewey" in California; and that the arrogance of New Deal agencies dealing with small business is equalled only by their usefulness—but here he corrected himself and said he meant "uselessness."

Will Seek to "Dish It Out."

Dewey had made amply clear at the press conference and in his statement issued yesterday, that he did not like the President's speech. He and his aids take the view that in many respects it was "unfair," and this evening, in his seventh and last major talk of the current swing, Dewey will seek to "dish it out," as he has never done before.

Since he has said publicly, in effect, that the President "asked for it," and is going to get it, his talk tonight has assumed importance beyond that of his preceding speeches of the trip. Dewey and his advisers know that he must make good his threat or lose some prestige throughout the nation. To this end they scrapped the address he had prepared some time ago for Oklahoma City and they have worked incessantly since the President's speech to perfect a new, sledge-hammer address that will convey power and punch without resorting to "mud-slinging."

Dewey's Advisers Disturbed By Roosevelt's Speech.

Gov. Dewey's aids and advisers frankly didn't like President Roosevelt's speech. In fact, they are pretty wrought up over the thing.

The two battlers stand at last in the center of the ring, face to face, and Dewey has made it clear that from now on it will be a rip-roaring slugfest. The President, he says, started it.

What clouds this picture of righteous indignation on the part of the Dewey headquarters is the simple fact that the youthful challenger had been trying for weeks to get "the Champ" to come out and fight. Dewey's campaign handlers on the special train had daily nightmares over the prospect of a shadow-boxing affair, with their man unable to lure the three-time winner from his corner.

In the wake of their overwhelming success in this respect, as shown Saturday night, the Dewey forces held no madcap celebration. No one in the Dewey party aboard the special train offered joyfully to buy all the correspondents a drink after the President had concluded his talk. On the contrary, as noted, they didn't care much for the speech. Parts of it actually made them feel bad. The body blows of the titleholder were not only more ambitious than expected, but in their earnest judgment some of the blows hit below the belt.

At least one of Dewey's advisers told the Post-Dispatch correspondent, with visible feeling and obvious sincerity, that "the whole revolting exhibition" sunk to a level even lower than below the belt. "The President," he said, "slipped into the political gutter."

Dewey's Men Didn't Hear It.

Gov. Dewey and his aids have made clear that they didn't actually hear this "gutter-slipping" speech. Their radio equipment in the observation car was damaged in the train crash at Castle Rock, Wash., and, although two radio engineers have been working on the large set since then, unfortunately they simply couldn't tune in the speech Saturday night. Jim Hagerty, Dewey's press secretary, told correspondents Dewey was quite disappointed.

By a stroke of sheer luck, however, the receptivity on the little radio in the reporters' lounge car, several hundred feet from Dewey's private car, was most excellent, and many of the correspondents heard the entire address. It was an absorbing scene. As the President spoke, the anti-New Deal correspondents looked glum or smiled in a revolting sort of way. Those with administration bents were disturbingly irrepressible, as the President showed the old fighting vigor, the wit and devastating ridicule that characterized his campaigns of other years.

Liked by Some in Opposition.

It is worth noting that many of the anti-administration correspondents said the speech was one of the best candidate Roosevelt ever made. The representative of a rabidly anti-Roosevelt eastern tabloid observed sorrowfully: "He blew Mr. Dewey right out of the water."

Even as the President concluded his radio address, the Dewey special train was undergoing insult right on top of the President's intended political mayhem. It had just pulled into Needles, Cal., for servicing and supplies, and some of the Democratic inhabitants, undoubtedly too young to vote, plastered the windows with Roosevelt red, white and blue stickers. When the train moved on a few minutes later, after Dewey had given a brief talk, it bore the brightly-colored Roosevelt stickers. In the morning the stickers were gone, and even with a magnifying glass you couldn't tell where they'd been.

White House Gets 86 Wires Despite Wartime Restriction.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 (AP).—The White House by noon yesterday had received 86 telegrams on President Roosevelt's Saturday night speech, despite the wartime bar on congratulatory wire messages. None of them used the word "congratulations." Seventy-eight were described as favorable and eight critical. In peacetime the White House would have expected 2000 telegrams on such a major speech.

Democratic National Committee officers said that public reaction indicated the campaign opener was "the most masterful political speech President Roosevelt ever delivered."

Paul Porter, director of publicity, reporting a flood of commendatory messages by telephone and telegraph, said numerous state committees had requested transcripts of the address for local rebroadcast.

"Demand—I think that's the test of it," Porter said, reporting that the calls came from all parts of the country.

Hannegan Says Roosevelt May Speak Twice in New York State.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25 (AP).—Robert E. Hannegan, Democratic national chairman, indicated today that President Roosevelt might speak twice in New York State, whose 47 electoral votes are the biggest prize in the November election.

Hannegan told a press conference that Roosevelt probably would talk in New York City in the last week of the campaign and added, "He may make more than one speech in New York State."

Asked if this indicated any concern over Democratic prospects of carrying New York, Hannegan said his policy was to be "always concerned over every state" until election day.

Hannegan issued a formal statement in which he asserted his conferences with party leaders in the 48 states confirmed his personal belief that Gov. Thomas A. Dewey, Republican presidential nominee, "will make a showing against President Roosevelt in 1944 no better than that of Herbert Hoover in 1932."

"Roosevelt's Mind Still Pretty Good," Says Wallace.

Concluding an upstate New York speaking tour last night, Wallace said:

"Some people say President Roosevelt is a tired old man, but I think his mind is still pretty good. The great fear of certain reactionaries is that his mind is awful good."

Wallace called New York's soldier vote law an "amazing maze" produced by "a very ingenious man. Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, Republican presidential candidate, has called the law the "simplest application form for any state in the Union."

Dr. Michael Hoke Dies.

BEAUFORT, S. C., Sept. 25 (AP).—Dr. Michael Hoke, former chief surgeon of the Warm Springs (Ga.) infantile paralysis foundation, died in a hospital here last night. He was 70 years old.

DEWEY SAID TO BE SCOUTING FOR DATA ON PEARL HARBOR

One of G. O. P. Nominee's Backers Says He Will Consider It for Address.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 (AP).—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey was reported by one of his backers today to be gathering data on the Administration's handling of the Pearl Harbor investigation, with a view to deciding whether to make it the topic of a major campaign address.

Senator Bridges (Rep.), New Hampshire, said the Republican presidential nominee had assigned research assistants to assemble "the facts about Pearl Harbor." Bridges told reporters "the Democrats are scared to death that the Pearl Harbor question will be brought into the campaign by Dewey."

He expressed doubt that findings of special Army and Navy boards appointed in July to conduct separate Pearl Harbor inquiries, preliminary to possible court martial proceedings, would be made public before election day, Nov. 7.

"It looks like a stall to cover up until after the election," Bridges said.

President Roosevelt was asked about the Pearl Harbor discussions in Congress at his news conference last Friday. He replied that anyone with undisclosed information about the attack had better submit it to the investigating boards. He added with a smile that there might be a lot of things like that talked between now and Nov. 7.

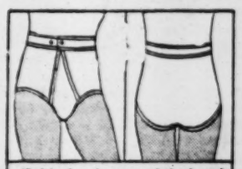

Another Republican senator, Ferguson of Michigan, said over the week end he was informed the Army and Navy inquiry boards had about finished their work and that he was "hopeful" the services would make public their findings within two weeks.

3 Killed at Indiana Crossing.

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Sept. 24 (AP).—Three persons were killed at a crossing six miles northeast of here yesterday as their car was struck by a Grand Trunk passenger train. The dead were Sylvester Kintz, 40 years old; his wife and 6-year-old foster son.

ARMY SEIZES STEEL FIRM ON F.D.R. ORDER

Will Operate Plants Where 600 Quit After Concern Defied WLB.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 (AP).—President Roosevelt ordered War Secretary Stimson today to take over and operate the plants of the Farrell Cheek Steel Co. at Sandusky, O., where 600 employes have stopped work and interrupted production of war supplies.

A group of Army officers took over the plants.

A letter to Roosevelt from Chairman William H. Davis of the War Labor Board said the company had refused to abide by terms of WLB orders governing relations with its employes and that this had "resulted in the actual interruption" of production.

Davis said all production employes began a work stoppage Sept. 11.

"This has caused a complete curtailment in the production of critical war material which, in the opinion of the board," he said, "will unduly impede or delay the effective prosecution of the war."

The firm makes castings for trucks, shovels and cranes, tanks and landing craft.

apparently were part of a big pincers movement designed to knock weakening Hungary out of the war. German and Hungarian troops strung out in eastern Slovakia and northern Transylvania were imperiled.)

A narrow land corridor still offered a chance of escape to the German garrison in Riga, but Red columns approaching from the north and east made large gains.

The mopup of Estonia was nearly completed as a large part of Marshal Leonid A. Govorov's Leningrad Army moved southward along the Gulf of Riga. Soviet naval forces yesterday captured the Baltic seaport of Paldiski on the Estonian west coast.

The flareup along the East Prussia border was in the sector where Gen. Ivan Cherniakhovsky's First White Russian Army has been held in static trench warfare more than a month by the prolongation of enemy resistance in the Baltic at his flank and rear. His combat patrols have made continual raids into East Prussia, but no permanent foothold has been won on German soil.

The midnight Soviet communique said Cherniakhovsky's units drove the Germans from a forest northwest of Mariampole, and six counterattacks failed to retake the position. Russian bombers raided Stalluponen, seven miles inside East Prussia, on the Kaunas-Konigsberg Railway, setting ablaze trains and fuel stocks, the communique reported.

650 Baltic Localities Taken.

To the north Soviet armies yesterday overran 450 populated places in Northern Latvia and Southern Estonia and 200 towns and villages in northwestern Estonia, to press the Germans closer to the sea. Two hundred fifty of the places were east of Riga.

Gen. Ivan Maslennikov's Third Baltic Army, attacking on a 60-mile front north and south of Valmiera, taken Saturday, captured Rujiena, 37 miles from the coast town of Ainazi; Dure, 10 miles south of Rujiena and 36 from the coast; Rubene, 20 miles south of Dure, and only 32 from the coastal town of Liepupe.

The column which seized Rubene was about 50 miles northeast of Riga, and Gen. Andrei Yeremenko's adjoining Second Baltic Army took Skriveri, 43 miles southeast of Riga, and the rail station of Taurupe, 46 miles east of the Latvian capital.

In southern Estonia the Russians captured Nuia, 30 miles northwest of Valga and 39 miles east of the coastal town of Haademeeste.

Five More Transports Sunk.

The Germans were fighting furiously in Latvia in order to protect the retreat of their troops down the Gulf of Riga coast from Estonia. At least 3000 Germans were killed and hundreds captured as Soviet planes hammered the foe in Latvia, the Russians reported.

Aircraft of the fleet continued to rain blows on enemy evacuation ships. The Soviet command announced that five more transports were sunk Saturday, three of them west of the Estonian island of Osel, one west of Liepaja, Latvian port, within 50 miles of East Prussia, and one southwest of Liepaja.

(On the Warsaw front a communique from Gen. Bor's Polish partisan army said that Red Army liaison officers now were working with the partisans after crossing the Vistula River from captured Praga. Soviet officers are established in the three main Polish defense headquarters in the capital, reported the communique.)

Sofia Minister Asserts Bulgaria Is Co-Belligerent of Allies.

ANKARA, Sept. 25 (AP).—Bulgarian troops are fighting beside Russians under Marshal Feodor Tolbukhin, Foreign Minister Petko Stainov told the Anatolian news agency yesterday, contending that this gave Bulgaria the status of a virtual co-belligerent with the Allies.

Asserting that Bulgaria's new relations with Yugoslavia were based on the principles of Slavic brotherhood and racial ties, he said the new Bulgarian Government wanted close political and economic ties with Greece also.

A Bulgarian spokesman denied a report that Prince Cyril, Fedor Filoff and Gen. Mihoff, members of the former regency, had been arrested by Russians and taken to Moscow. The former regents, he said, are under arrest in Sofia, awaiting judgment by the "people's court."

5TH ARMY DRIVES ON THROUGH HOLE IN GOTHIC LINE

To the west, other Eighth Army troops penetrated 2000 yards beyond the Rimini-Bologna Railway north of San Giustina to within 1500 yards of the Rubicon River, thenr an into a stiff enemy counterattack yesterday.

Gurkha patrols entering Sant'-Arcangelo found the Germans had evacuated the town, blowing up a bridge over the Rubicon behind them.

Lt. Gen. Mark W. Clark's headquarters proclaimed that "in nine days the Fifth Army has destroyed the (Gothic) line which it took the Germans nine months to build."

"Doughboys driving northeast from Firenzuola seized four heights—Monte la Fine, Della Croce, Monte Cucca and Porarra—this clearing an access to the Po valley," an official statement said.

These features are roughly 15 miles from Imola, which is on the Bologna-Rimini rail route.

Although there have been unofficial reports that the Germans have begun evacuating some troops and supplies from the western part of northern Italy, Eighth Army headquarters declared there were no indications that the Germans had started any withdrawing movements in the Adriatic sector.

Resistance being encountered indicated the enemy "still follows Marshal Kesselring's orders to fight to the last man and the last bullet," headquarters said.

This type of last ditch resistance was not surprising, since a substantial portion of Nazi troops committed to combat are virtually marooned by lack of transport and inability to disengage without disastrous losses.

Sid Feder, correspondent with American troops, said prisoners blamed the stupidity of their German commanders and betrayal by Italian labor gangs as much as the American assault for the collapse of the Gothic line.

As the Wehrmacht fled northward from the smashed strongholds of the carefully prepared line of fortifications, the prisoners insisted that the German commanders were too shortsighted to realize that defenses had to be set up against attack from over the mountains as well as along highways because of the daring American style of assault.

They also said that labor battalions which built the mountain bulwarks played a lot of tricks which the Germans didn't realize, such as putting the only exits and entrances to dugouts and pillboxes at the front so that the defenders were exposed whenever they had to enter or leave.

Frontline reports today said the weather was becoming cloudy with rain threatening the entire battle zone.

Allied naval units bombarded enemy targets along the French-Italian frontier and other naval forces were active in the Gulf of Genoa.

Here's why we often can't furnish service
...even though a telephone is on the premises

That is hard to understand, isn't it? But, you see, telephone calls do not flow from a main to which you can be tapped at will. Telephone service doesn't turn on with a switch or ignite from a pilot flame.

Each telephone must have its pair of wires running to a telephone office. And each office must have tons of intricate equipment to set up connections between thousands of pairs of such wires. Each telephone call is a tailor-made, two-way item.

Wartime demand for months has kept the telephone system here working beyond its engineered capacity. War needs are taking the entire output of the great Western Electric factories that could otherwise supply equipment for more telephones.

Meanwhile, so many people here want telephone service that we are not able to care for them all. Many have been waiting a long while.

So, although it's true that a telephone may be left in place for several days after a customer moves out, almost always it is cut off at once from the central office. Its cable pairs and switchboard connections are assigned immediately for war essential service or to whoever has been waiting longest.

The day when telephone factories once more can turn out equipment for peaceful uses will be a great day. Then we can build to take care of all who are waiting. Then we can restore, too, the spare "margins" of plant essential to a flexible telephone system, able to give you service when and where you want it.

BIG U. S. BOMBERS HIT RAIL YARDS IN 3 GERMAN CITIES

9 Big Planes and 3 Fighters Lost—New Attack on Enemy Garrison at Calais.

LONDON, Sept. 25 (AP).—Upward of 2000 American planes—1200 of them heavy bombers and the rest fighters — struck blows today at five railyards supplying the western front and at the big chemical and synethetic oil works at Ludwigshafen.

Flying Fortresses and Liberators bombed one rail junction at Ludwigshafen and two each at Frankfurt and Coblenz—both Siegfried line supply depots on the Rhine. Nine bombers and three fighters were lost to ground fire. No enemy planes were encountered.

About 300 British heavy bombers dumped more than 1120 tons of explosives on besieged Calais in an hour-long attack.

British heavy bombers dropped more than 3900 tons of bombs on the German industrial cities of Munster and Bochum Saturday night. American and British fighter bombers worked most of Sunday over a wide variety of ground targets in support of armies on the German frontier.

French-based United Staes Thunderbolts were called in to help break up a large formation of Nazi tanks blocking Lt. Gen. George Patton's Third Army in the Nancy area. The low-level attacks scattered the tanks into woods where they were strafed and bombed.

Capt. Thomas Collins of Lexington, Ky., a pilot, said the planes "got plenty of them."

"It was the biggest tank battle I've seen," Collins said. "When we came down to attack there were at least 100 Nazi armored vehicles in the counterattack—about half of them tacks. They were banging away at our tanks and the Americans were coming right back at them."

Italy-based planes attacked military targets in Yugoslavia, three airdromes in the Athens area and railway yards at Salonika.

American Fortresses and Liberators destroyed large numbers of huge German Junkers transport planes, intended to evacuate military personnel from Greece, in the attack on airdromes near Athens, reconnaissance photographs showed. In the last previous raid of its kind 77 of the big planes were wrecked on the ground on the same fields. The toll yesterday has not yet been announced.

A 500-ton submarine was sunk at the Skaramanga U-boat pens 10 miles north of the Greek port of Piraeus. Two merchant ships were hit.

MAN FOUND DEAD IN AUTO; EXHAUST PIPED INTO TRUNK

The body of Frank Verderber, 40 years old, was found early yesterday in the trunk of his automobile in the garage at the rear of his home, 5511 Alaska avenue, by his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Verderber. A piece of automobile heater hose extended from the exhaust pipe into the trunk. The ignition of the car was turned on, but the motor was not running.

Mrs. Verderber told police the family had returned from a show at 11 p. m. Saturday, and she and their two daughters had retired for the night. She awakened at 2 a. m. and, finding her husband had not gone to bed, started a search for him, she said. After finding him in the car trunk, she called a physician, who pronounced him dead. She was unable to give a reason for Verderber's action.

'ABSURD' MAIL BAR ON BOOKLET REVERSED BY APPEALS COURT

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 (AP).—The United States Court of Appeals, declaring the courts have "a duty to avoid absurdity," reversed today a lower court ruling upholding a Postoffice Department bar on mailing of a pamphlet entitled "A Report on Contraceptive Materials."

The pamphlet was prepared by the Consumers' Union of the United States, Inc., and the Appeals Court's decision said it was distributed to union members only on receipt of "a certificate in writing, signed by each member who received a copy, as follows, 'I am married and use prophylactic materials upon advice of a physician.'"

The Appeals Court decision, written by Justice Justin Miller, expressed the opinion that Congress did not intend to authorize the Postoffice Department to "exclude from the mails properly prepared information intended for properly qualified people."

MINES PARACHUTED ON BRITAIN CAUSED VAST RUIN IN '40, '41

Censors Release New Details; Explosives British Left at Dunkerque Used.

LONDON, Sept. 25 (AP).—Extensive damage and casualties were caused in England's largest cities, including London, when the Germans dropped land mines and bombs containing one and two tons of explosives by parachute during the six months of intensive night raids in the winter of 1940-41, it was disclosed today as the government relaxed long-standing censorship rules.

The Nazi planes at first released huge land mines which were believed at that time to be those left by the British in France during the retreat at Dunkerque. Some did widespread damage. Others failed to explode but were a menace until weary bomb disposal squads dealt with them.

London, Birmingham, Southhampton, Plymouth, Liverpool and other large centers were the targets. Even magnetic sea mines were parachuted inland.

Two mines destroyed 350 houses in the London area and another caused havoc over a half-mile radius. Among larger London building hit were the Leicester Square Theater, Blue Post Inn, and the Y. M. C. A.

The mines caused considerable confusion at first. Home guards thought they were German paratroops.

"Remember me?

"It's been two years since I looked out at you from another War Chest ad. Yes, I'm still here in this hell hole they call a Jap prison camp.

"You want to know what it's like here? Did you ever know what it's like to be all alone in a crowd? No place to go . . . nothing to do. Day after day, night after night you count the minutes, the hours, the weeks . . . until you can't count any more.

"That's how it was before the War Prisoners' Aid packages started coming through. Then we got games, books and magazines . . . something to do . . . and all of a sudden we knew that as long as these packages kept coming, we'd come through O. K."

That's only part of how much your War Chest giving means to American prisoners of war. It means, too, a song brought to the heart of a lonesome G. I. in China through a U. S. O. WHY QUINTUPLETS use this great rub for SORE THROAT COUGHS due to COLDS

Wonderful for Grown-Ups, Too!

Ever since they were tiny tots—whenever the Quintuplets catch cold—their chests, throats and backs are immediately rubbed with Musterole.

Musterole gives such blessed prompt relief because it's more than just an ordinary "salve." It's what so many Doctors and Nurses call a modern counter-irritant. It not only relieves coughs, sore throat, aching chest muscles due to colds, makes breathing easier—but it actually helps break up congestion in upper bronchial tract, nose and throat.

JAP LOSSES IN 3 WEEKS OF U. S. RAIDS INCLUDE 429 VESSELS, 1065 PLANES

UNITED STATES PACIFIC FLEET HEADQUARTERS, Pearl Harbor, Sept. 25 (AP).

THE revised box score of total damage inflicted on the Japanese by the Halsey-Mitscher naval forces from Aug. 30 through Sept. 21 in sweeps over the Bonin and Volcano islands, the Palau group and the Philippines, as announced by Adm. Chester W. Nimitz:

Ships sunk	122
Small craft sunk	61
Ships damaged	137
Small craft damaged	109
Total	429
Planes destroyed in air	380
Planes destroyed aground	598
Total	978

These figures exclude 87 damaged planes which makes the total aircraft lost to the Japanese in that period 1065.

American combat losses in all these actions:

Planes destroyed	51
Pilots lost	37
Air crewmen lost	20

aircraft and sunk or damaged 149 ships since they first hit the Philippines Sept. 8 with an attack on Mindanao. Raids were made on the central islands Sept. 11, 12, 13. Then the airmen came back to hit Manila Sept. 20-21.

Harbor Full of Ships.

In their Thursday attack, the Americans found lessened Japanese aerial resistance and a harbor surprisingly full of ships.

In aerial combats, they downed 59 planes against 110 the previous day, but their bag of ships was nearly double the 11 sunk and 26 damaged on Sept. 20.

Ships sunk—40.
Small craft sunk—6.
Ships probably sunk—11.
Ships damaged—35.
Small craft damaged—11.
Floating drydocks damaged—2.
Aircraft destroyed in combat—169.
Aircraft destroyed on the ground—188.
Planes damaged on the ground—45.
Planes damaged by ships' gunfire—3.

That means that in two days the Americans have put out of action 86 Japanese ships, 405 planes, 17 small craft and two drydocks.

11 U. S. Planes Lost.

Nimitz reported 11 American planes were lost in the two-day strike. This was less than he had previously reported for the first day alone. Presumably some planes returning from the initial attacks landed on carriers other than their own and had not been reported safe at the time of the Sept. 20 announcement.

Nimitz said the two-day assault cost the lives of 10 pilots and five air troopmen. There was no loss or damage to any of our surface ships, he said.

The attackers concentrated on the targets they previously had hit in assaulting the Manila zone—the bay area, Cavite naval yard, the Nichols and Clark airfields. The latter is some 60 miles northward of Manila. Damage to installations was "extensive and widespread."

Adm. William F. Halsey Jr., commands the attacking fleet, augmented for these forays by the carrier task force of V. Adm. Marc A. Mitscher.

DUTCH CELEBES, BONINS BOMBED

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, New Guinea, Sept. 25 (AP).—Allied aerial attacks ranging from Dutch Celebes, hit with 105 tons of explosives by land-based Southwest Pacific bombers, to Chichi and Hachi islands in the Bonin group, were reported today by Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters.

Japanese interception was negligible.

Meanwhile P-T boats tightened their blockade of by-passed Japanese forces on Halmahera Island. The P-T craft have sunk at least two Japanese supply and troop-laden boats in Morotai strait, between Halmahera and American-occupied Morotai Island.

Fighter sweeps over Ceram, another heavily hit Japanese base, destroyed or damaged 11 luggers and barges and many small craft.

Fifty Dutch Government representatives landed on Morotai with American invasion forces on Sept. 15 to re-establish the Netherlands East Indies civil administration.

REA APPROVES 100 MILLION IN LOANS FOR POSTWAR LINES

Loans xceeding 100 million dollars for construction of rural electric power lines after war already have been approved by the Rural Electrification Administration, and applications for additional loans totaling 108 millions are on file, W. E. Herring, chief of the REA cooperatives' operating division, declared today in opening a conference devoted to job trainihg and safety programs.

There are 397,861 miles of REA-financed lines in 46 states, making electric power available to five million men, women and children who had never been able to enjoy its benefits before, he continued, but more than seven million farm and non-farm rural dwellings in the country still do not have access to electricity.

Some 75 representatives of vocationa lagriculture departments, trade schools and agricultural and engineering colleges from 20 states are attending the six-day conference sponsored by the REA, at which plans for training construction and line maintenance workers will be studied.

BALKAN PARTISANS GOT 5000 TONS OF SUPPLIES BY AIR

Allies Disclose Extent of Material Flown to Guerrilla Groups.

ROME, Sept. 25 (AP).—The Allied air command disclosed today that more than 5000 tons of guns, ammunition and other supplies had been flown during the last two years to Yugoslav Partisans and to patriots in other central and southern European countries.

In addition to secret landing grounds in Yugoslavia, other fields have been laid out and used for some time in Greece, Albania and other countries, the command said.

The Royal Air Force has been in charge of the operations, with large numbers of American transport pilots participating.

"Tito's army," the command's report said, "owes much to the gun-supply runners of the R. A. F."

"Without this vast variety of supplies, the Partisan armies would most likely have remained guerillas, their losses would have been heavier and the Balkans would have remained a German bastion, instead of a morass which threatens to engulf all of the enemy forces that are left."

Once, an urgent call for 30,000 pairs of shoes for Marshal Tito's men was met, despite the facts that the Yugoslavs had big feet and no size under nine could be sent.

NAZIS PUT JEWS INTO ARMY; 20 AT U. S. PRISONER CAMP

FORT CUSTER, Mich., Sept. 25 (AP).—Chaplain Martin M. Perley was "flabbergasted" when he received a call from the director of the Fort Custer prisoner-of-war camp asking him to visit a group of Jewish captives who had just arrived from the Normandy battlefront.

"Jews in the mighty Nazi army? It sounded incredible," he related today. "I found the men in a separate compound. There were about 20 in the group and they were still clad in the uniform of the German Army. Most of them, I found, were half-Jews, and only one of them was a full Jew. They had been drafted into Nazi labor battalions."

According to camp officials, the men were given uniforms and arms and absorbed into the German Army. On arrival at Fort Custer they asked for Jewish prayer books.

A.A.F. GRAVE PROVES TO BE THAT OF GOAT INSTEAD OF SOLDIER

St. Louisan Found Marker, Notified Officials and Crew Dug It Up.

MUSTANG BASE IN ITALY, Sept. 25 (AP). — Capt. Robert Rhoades, 5704 Bartmer avenue, St. Louis, driving along a lonely Italian road, spotted a little white cross in a field. He got out of his jeep and went over for a look. On the cross was this inscription: "Billy McGee, AAF."

Rhoades reported his discovery on the assumption that McGee might have been reported missing in action while his death remained unconfirmed. Word was sent to Washington and a crew from the United States Fifteenth Air Force was ordered to exhume the body and place it in a military cemetery.

After 20 minutes of digging the men threw down their shovels. "Billy McGee" was an Army Air Force goat.

Capt. Rhoades is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Rhoades. He is a graduate of St. Louis University High School, and has four brothers in military service.

SHERIDAN WEBSTER DIES; REFORM WORKER

Backed Many Civic and National Causes in Long Career.

Sheridan Webster, tireless worker in civic and reform movements, died in City Hospital last night, following a collapse on a South Side street a week before, as he was on his way to a meeting of one of the numerous groups with which he was associated. He was 80 years old.

The funeral will be at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the Imbierowicz undertaking establishment, 5401 South Grand boulevard. Burial will be in Valhalla Cemetery.

Populist, Single Taxer, labor organizer, temperance worker, Socialist, friend of Henry George and Eugene V. Debs, Mr. Webster was a lifelong advocate of a variety of causes, none of them connected with his own financial or personal advancement. In recent years he lived in a room at 304 Clark avenue, where he kept the Chess and Checker Club, open to dwellers in the neighborhood who sought that form of recreation. A lawyer, he showed little interest in corporation practice, but would spare no effort in defending penniless clients.

Two movements in which he engaged, in the early years of this century, were the Free Bridge campaign, resulting in the building by the city of what is now MacArthur Bridge, and the demand for universal street car transfers, in which, single-handed, he won a victory over the old United Railways Co.

Free Bridge Movement.

The Free Bridge movement was directed against the Terminal Railroad Association's bridge arbitrary charge, which placed St. Louis industries at a disadvantage in comparison with those of East St. and Granite City. The Million Population Club, in which Mr. Webster was an enthusiastic worker, was one of the organizations demanding relief by a municipal bridge which should be free of discriminatory tolls. When the Wells municipal administration proposed a bond issue not to include the bridge, the group headed by Frank H. Gerhart and Mr. Webster raised the cry "No Bridge, No Bonds." After a campaign which Mayor Wells termed "the Free Bridge pandemonium," the first $3,500,000 bond issue for the bridge was voted in the summer of 1906.

Following the consolidation of most street car lines, a transfer system was instituted which did not provide for issuance of more than one transfer, and thus did not make it possible to reach all points on a single fare. Mr. Webster began demanding transfers to various points, and refusing to pay his fare when they were not given to him. When he was put off a car, he filed a suit against the United Railways Co. The law was on his side, and the company consented to a decree by which he received one-cent damages, and the transfer system was revised as he had demanded.

Lawyer and Proofreader.

The company paid costs in this case; but usually Mr. Webster got less help in financing his various causes. As partner in a printing firm, he had done so much free printing that the business was unprofitable. He was a printer—and he worked in job offices and newspaper proofrooms while he studied law. After a few years legal practice, he returned to proofreading, and worked at this until a few years ago.

In connection with his activity in the Typographical Union, he was one of the organizers of the theater employes into the Theatrical Brotherhood local here.

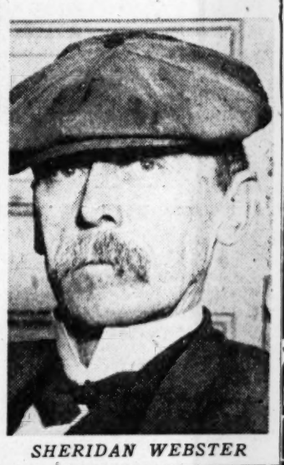

He is survived by his wife, who lives with a daughter, Mrs. Elmer Hase, at Chesterfield, St. Louis County; another daughter, Mrs. John M. White; and three sons, Ray A. Webster of the Post-Dispatch news staff; Wendell P. Webster, and Bob Webster, Post-Dispatch proofreader.

TWO CLEARED OF SELLING INTOXICANTS TO MINORS

Charges of selling intoxicating liquor to a minor brought against Robert M. Barnholtz, operator of a tavern at 4055 Olive street, and his bartender, James T. Fuller, were dismissed in the Court of Criminal Correction today by Judge Louis Comerford, when the State presented a chemical analysis of the beer which showed the alcoholic content was only 1.47 per cent by volume.

Beer with an alcoholic content of less than 3.2 per cent by volume is not regarded legally as intoxicating.

St. Louis Trusty Escapes Again.

JEFFERSON CITY, Sept. 25 (AP).—Edward Dunbar made his second escape from the Missouri penitentiary Saturday night. Dunbar, a 45-year-old trusty, slipped away unnoticed from a building outside the prison walls where he was hall-tender over other trusty convicts. Sentenced in 1930 to serve 25 years for a St. Louis County robbery, Dunbar escaped in 1933 and was recaptured in 1940.

DOUGHTON FAVORS RETAINING INCOME TAX ON BUSINESS

Rigid Undistributed Profits Levy Would Result From Its Elimination, He Asserts.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 (AP).—Although saying he is sure that tax laws will be revised to encourage postwar private enterprise, Chairman Doughton (Dem.), North Carolina) of the House Ways and Means Committee asserted today that proposals for complete elimination of corporation income taxes "are not practical."

He announced he would call the joint Senate-House Taxation Committee together immediately after Congress reconvenes Nov. 14, to tackle the job of peacetime tax revision.

"We couldn't eliminate corporation income taxes," he said in an interview, "without imposing a rigid undistributed profits tax, and the corporations are against that."

Doughton gave some of his own views on postwar taxation, coupling all his observations with a declaration that any tax adjustments should be accompanied by a program of rigid economy.

WLB HEARING ON STAGEHANDS' CONTRACT OPENED BY ARBITER

A War Labor Board hearing to determine whether all parts of a two-year contract between the St. Louis Amusement Co. and Local No. 6 of the AFL International Association of Stage Hands are binding on both parties opened today at Hotel Melbourne before Jules E. Kohn of Kansas City, WLB arbitrator.

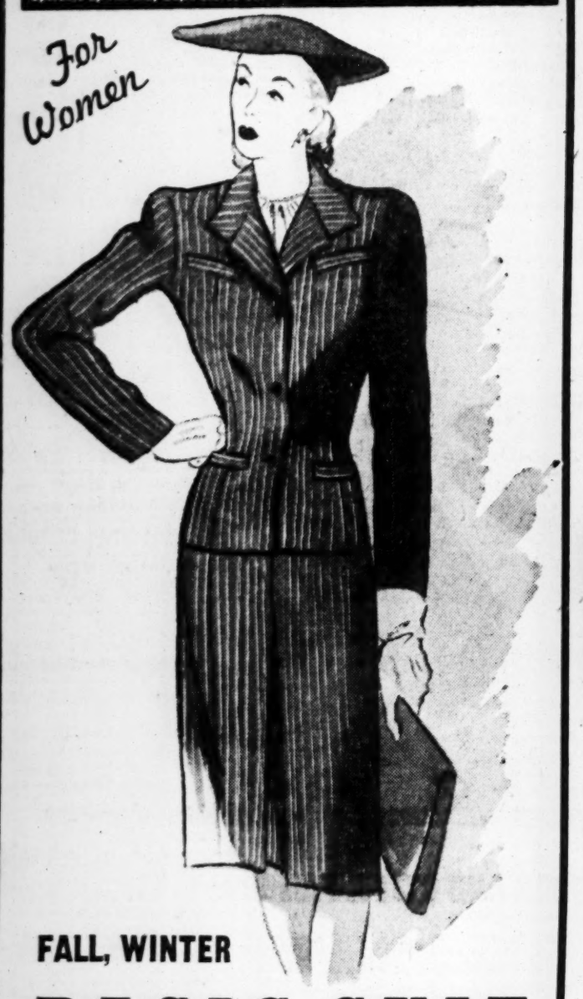

The contract was signed June 1, 1943, and a WLB panel hearing last spring approved wage increases of 15 per cent in addition to the union scale of $75 a week, which is still being paid. The union contends only the wage matter was open for discussion, whereas the company also wants to make changes in the number of stage hands to be employed and the hours of the day they will work.

The company controls Fanchon & Marco Service Corporation, and operates a chain of motion picture houses in the city and county, Harry C. Arthur, a director of the company, started the company testimony today with a review of previous contentions that virtually no work is performed by stage hands in motion picture houses. He said hours of work should be changed so that the men would be on duty while the theaters are closed and could do maintenance work.

NELSON TO REPORT TO ROOSEVELT ON MISSION TO CHINA

Declines to Comment on His Own Future as WPB Chief — Krug Technically Jobless.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 (AP). —Donald M. Nelson, chairman of the War Production Board, prepared today to report to President Roosevelt on a mission to China in which he surveyed the Chinese industrial contribution to the United Nations' war effort.

Nelson returned from the Orient yesterday. He said he was enthusiastic about China's industrial progress, but declined to comment on his future in the WPB.

When he left here a month ago, there were widespread reports that Nelson would not return to the WPB. President Roosevelt said at the time that Nelson still was WPB chairman, but did not commit himself on the future of the agency leadership.

Before his departure, Nelson was differing with representatives of the armed forces over reconversion policies. Nelson advocated a system of gradual transition to peacetime production—a policy the armed forces opposed.

J. A. Krug took over as acting chairman of WPB in Nelson's absence. Krug completed what he termed a topside reorganization of the agency two days ago.

CLOSING OF SWEDISH PORTS CUTS GERMAN TRAFFIC

STOCKHOLM, Sept. 25 (AP).—Sweden's decision to close all her Gulf of Bothnia and Baltic Sea ports next Wednesday is so broad it also includes the important ferry service from Tralleborg, Sweden, to Sassnitz, Germany, it was learned today.

The closing of the ports, putting a serious crimp in German Baltic traffic, will not affect ferries operating between Denmark and Sweden's west coast, however.

The Swedish Government further restricted German travel by instructing the Consul at Oslo, Norway, to issue no more transit visas through Sweden to Germany.

GREEKS SEEK RETURN AT ONCE OF AREAS BULGARIA SEIZED

ROME, Sept. 25 (AP). — The Greek Government has demanded that the Bulgarians "hand over at once, unconditionaly and without further discussion, the Greek territories of Macedonia and Thrace which they are occupying," George A. Cartalis, Greek Minister of Information, disclosed yesterday.

In postwar settlements Greece will ask for control of mountain passes by which the Bulgarians are able to enter Greece, Cartalis said.

Cartalis made his announcement in refutation of a report that an agreement had been reached between Greek and Bulgarian representatives "concerning settlement of certain administrative and military questions in northern Greek provices occupied by the Bulgars."

REDS CERTAIN TO SEEK 'HARD' PEACE TERMS, ALARMED AT SIGNS OF ALLIED SOFTNESS

Little Sympathy in Moscow for Some Americans' View That Harsh Treaty Would Disrupt European 'Balance'—Failure to Try Kaiser 'Cardinal Sin' of Last War.

By LEIGH WHITE

The Chicago Daily News—Post-Dispatch Special Radio. Copyright, 1944.

MOSCOW, Sept. 25.

A "HARD" peace for Germany—and for Hungary, if it fights with Germany until the end—is clearly destined to be one of the Soviet Union's preliminary peace aims. Little sympathy is exhibited here for Americans and others who fear that harsh peace terms would disrupt the economic or political "balance" of Europe, or prevent the Germans from becoming future members of the European "family of nations." If the average Russian publicist or government official were asked to choose between the moderation views expressed by Dorothy Thompson and those of Lord Robert Gilbert Vansittart urging a severe peace, he unquestionably would take Vansittart's side.

According to the traditional view long held by many American diplomats and professors, one of the greatest weaknesses of the Versailles and other peace treaties of the first World War was that in response to popular indignation they demanded for our enemies forms of expiation which they could not be made to fulfill. The Congress of Vienna (1815) was followed by a longer era of peace than the Paris conference, they submit, because it was a "professional," diplomatic peace.

A "people's" peace, according to these critics—and they consider the peace that grew out of Versailles a people's peace—usually is an unsatisfactory peace because it ignores political and economic realities and stems from the emotions rather than the mind.

Russian View of Versailles.

A contrary view is held in Moscow. Prof. A. Trainin, writing for the Red Star, declares that one of the greatest weaknesses of Versailles and kindred treaties was that the "Germans, guilty of the crimes of 1914-1918," were permitted "with the connivance of the conquerors" to judge their own guilt. Naturally, he writes, they were exceedingly lenient.

"At a time when people are demanding that these criminals receive the punishment they deserve, voices are heard which ask for lenience in our treatment of criminals of war," he continues. "Actually, such voices are calling on us to repeat the mistakes of Versailles and leave in Germany the seeds of another war. . . ."

Trainin cites the Allies' failure to try the Kaiser as their cardinal sin of omission. The "mighty conquerors who had brought Germany to her knees and imposed their will on the greater part of Europe," he remarks, "could not find the means to force Holland to submit to their demands for justice and agree to Wilhelm's extradition."

Leipzig Trials a 'Travesty.'

The professor also chides the Allies of the first world war for their failure to punish Hindenburg, Ludendorff, Mackensen, Tirpitz and the other 890 persons accused of committing war crimes in the name of the Kaiser.

Trainin recalls that the Soviet press in 1921 denounced the Leipzig trial, at which alleged German criminals were tried and acquitted by the German courts, as a "travesty of justic." He himself considers the Leipzig trial even more than that. He writes:

"If one were to judge this event for what it really was, one would have to conclude that one of the causes of Hitler's monstrous orgy was the failure of the Allies to punish the Germans for the crimes they committed in 1914-1918."

Fortunately, he concludes, the role of the Soviet Union in the war against Hitler is such that it will have "adequate influence—together with its allies" in the solution of all such postwar problems. "This is the best guarantee that the history of 1919-1921 in reference to war criminals will not be repeated."

For a 'People's Peace.'

If men like Prof. Trainin, Ilya Ehrenburg and others have their way, the Soviet Union will probably demand a "people's peace," to conclude a "people's war"—namely, a peace that will fully satisfy the desires for vengeance of all the European victims of Nazi Germany's rapine.

As if to underline this probability, Moscow newspapers recently have been full of articles exposing what they seem to fear may be tendencies on the part of the Allies toward treating the Germans less severely.

Considerable emphasis was given in a Tass (official Soviet news agency) dispatch last week quoting a correspondent of the London Daily Express who reported "fraternization" between American troops and German prisoners on the Western Front. But, although Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's order requiring that German prisoners be treated "firmly" was given due attention, the British correspondent's subsequent denial of his "fraternization" story has not yet been published.

The newspaper Trud (organ of the All-Union Central Council of Trade Unions) in a week-end review of the American press on the subject of war criminals concludes that American "indignation against all advocates of this criminal gang is growing."

Among those whom Trud denounces as "Hitler's advocates" are Dorothy Thompson and Constantine Brown. One of those whom Trud praises "for exposing the Germans' crimes" is Walter Lippmann.

STALIN GETS FULL REPORT ON ROOSEVELT-CHURCHILL DECISIONS ON PACIFIC WAR

MOSCOW, Sept. 25 (AP).

THE Kremlin is in possession of all the decisions on the Far Eastern war that were reached by President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill at their Quebec conference. The United States and British Ambassadors, W. Averell Harriman and Sir Archibald Clark Kerr, made a full report to Premier Stalin and Foreign Commissar Molotov Saturday night on instructions from Washington.

Stalin is reported to have been deeply interested in every phase of the Quebec conference and to have listened intently to the report of the military decisions reached by the two Allied leaders. He is said to have frequently asked questions.

Hull Expresses Hope of Unity On Terms for Defeated Germany

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 (AP).

SECRETARY OF STATE HULL said today he hoped that high Allied officials, including officials of the United States Government, would be able to come to agreement soon on peace terms for a defeated Germany.

He made the comment in response to a request for a statement on an Associated Press report that President Roosevelt's Cabinet Committee on German peace policy was split over a proposal by Treasury Secretary Morgenthau that Germany be converted into an agricultural nation.

Hull is understood to be cool to the Morgenthau plan and Secretary of War Stimson, the third member of the committee, to be strongly opposed to it.

The Morgenthau plan would strip Germany of much industrial territory and destroy or give away the rest of its industries.

Authorized Quotation.

Hull authorized the following quotation:

"The whole question of dealing with the postwar German situation has been receiving attention by each of the governments most interested, and that includes this Government and the State Department.

"It would serve no purpose to say more at this time except that the higher officials of the governments concerned will reach mutual understandings, I hope, at an early stage. It is very necessary that we wait until we know the true conclusions they reach."

Hull made no other comment, but it was notable that he studiously avoided in his prepared statement any denial of the fact that the Cabinet split has developed and is still wide open.

Morgenthau is reported to have considerable support for his ideas from President Roosevelt, who discussed them at Quebec with Prime Minister Churchill.

For a Hard Peace.

Treasury economic experts under direct orders of Morgenthau are reported to be seeking basic changes, pointed toward a hard peace, in instructions to be given Allied military administrators on the handling of German civil affairs.

The military instructions are to be set forth in a handbook, which eventually will require British agreements and about which the Russians will be kept informed, in order to make uniform the control over all sections of the defeated Reich.

The handbook is designed primarily for Allied Military Government or other officers charged with handling civil affairs either in the whole nation or after a general surrender in rear, noncombat areas if it is conquered piecemeal.

In Italy and in other areas where AMG or similar agencies have functioned heretofore, the basic purpose has been to keep the population quiet and safeguard the movement of supplies and troops.

Poles in London Face New Crisis Over Move to Oust Commander

Decision Delayed, Cabinet May Resign Unless President Carries Out Its Demand—Gen. Bor Considered for New Chief.

LONDON, Sept. 25 (AP).

PRESIDENT WLADYSLAW RACZKIEWICZ of the Polish Government-in-Exile delayed a decision today on a demand by the Cabinet that Gen. Kasimierz Sosnkowski be removed as commander in chief of Polish forces and the possibility developed that unless he acts soon the entire Cabinet, led by Premier Stanislaw Mikolajcyk, will resign in protest.

If the President does act and Sosnkowski is removed as commander-in-chief he will be replaced by a war cabinet, patterned after the British war cabinet, and probably Gen. Bor, commander of Polish forces now fighting in Warsaw, will be made chief of staff. This possibility was enhanced by latest reports from the Polish capital saying that Bor was working closely with the Russians to liberate the city.

The Cabinet Saturday unanimously recommended Gen. Sosnkowski's ouster—a step demanded by Russia as one of the prices of accord with the London Polish Government.

The Polish President was believed to be delaying acquiescence because he also is on Moscow's black book, with little to win personally by the move, while he is almost sure to lose what standing he has among the military clique.

Mikolajczyk, leader of the Polish Peasant Party, on the other hand is anxious to get the matter settled in order to effect a return to Poland and a reorganization of the Government under a coalition plan in which the country's five political parties—including that of the rival Soviet-supported National Liberation Committee—will be represented.

The Premier is convinced of the growing danger in a longer delay and may already have threatened to step out leaving Raczkiewicz to hold the bag with little chance of solving the long dispute with Russia.

Blocks Agreement.

Gen. Sosnkowski's titural chief, after the Polish president, is Premier Mikolajczyk. Sosnkowski, however, so bitterly opposes Mikolajczyk's attempts to save the Polish Government-in-Exile from extinction by an agreement with the Polish government recognized by Russia, and, therefore, with Russia itself, that thus far Mikolajczyk has been unable to effect an agreement. Each day the status of the Polish government-in-exile grows weaker and the Russian fostered Polish government now domiciled on Polish soil grows stronger.

Sosnkowski and the Poles sharing his views seem to believe that if they hold out long enough the United States and Great Britain somehow can save them and Poland from close relations with Russia. Their partisans seek to introduce their anti-Russian sentiments into American politics in the hope that American official pressure may prove helpful to their maneuvers.

It is impossible to determine what proportion of Poles in Poland favor Sosnkowski, what proportion favor the middle ground of Mikolajczyk and what proportion favor "the Polish republic" whose president, a Communist named Boleslaw Bierut and whose parliament the London Poles say is illegal.

The Bierut group, however, with the Russian-recognized Polish Committee of National Liberation, is exercising authority on the spot. It has accepted the Curzon line as the eastern frontier of Poland.

Annexations Proposed.

The Union of Polish Patriots in the U. S. S. R. (whose relations with the national liberation government now in Lublin are not clear) proposes to annex from Germany both lower and upper Silesia as well as East Prussia and Pomerania as far west as the River Oder. This, the union says, will make a "strong Poland" such as Stalin desires.

Some Poles in London are afraid that such annexations would eventually prove a serious embarrassment to Poland. They say that even if Hitler's precedent in wholesale transplantation of population should be employed to the extent of moving eight to ten million Germans out of this territory to make way for Poles, trouble would eventually arise from a resurgent Germany.

The Poles working with the Russians base their legality on the 1921 Polish constitution, whereas the Poles in London base their legality on the 1935 constitution which the first group says was illegally imposed on the nation by a dictatorship.

If Mikolajczyk and some of his London colleagues should fuse with the Russian-recognized Poles, the latter's claim to legitimacy would be more potent and Sosnkowski and his group would be left holding the bag. The United

MOSCOW, Sept. 25 (AP).

POLAND'S exchange of populations with the Soviet Union has been enlarged to apply to a third Soviet republic, Lithuania, it was announced today.

An agreement similar to one already concluded with the Ukrainian and White Russian Soviet republics has been signed in Lublin by the Polish Committee of National Liberation, the announcement said.

ILL-FATED REVOLT A POLITICAL GAMBLE

By CARROLL BINDER

Editor of the Chicago Daily News—Post-Dispatch Foreign Service.

(Copyright, 1944.)

When victorious Russian and Polish troops parade through the streets of liberated Warsaw, a great many patriots—some say 250,000—who ought to be on the sidewalks cheering will not be among those present.

They are the Warsaw men and women who sacrificed their lives in a premature, ill-conceived and foredoomed uprising early in August because certain Polish politicians in London mistakenly thought it would help their personal political fortunes and embarrass Poland's allies.

Even sorrier is the fate of an undisclosed number of British and Polish aviators who died in a desperate effort to try to fly assistance to the Warsaw patriots as a result of the pleadings of the Polish politicians responsible for the disaster. The Polish politician chiefly to blame then had the bad taste to sneer that not enough Allied aviators and planes had been sacrificed to retrieve miscalculations.

Major Factors Involved.

Since there are other capitals yet to be liberated and since the Polish situation is being used to create friction and distrust between the Allies and within the American democracy, it may not be unprofitable to set forth some of the major factors thus far revealed.

In a situation confused by propaganda that is not always honest it is impossible to speak categorically. What follows is based on a careful study of the available data and, I believe, will not be substantially modified by subsequent disclosures.

Polish leaders and people are of many minds regarding the best interests of their country at home and abroad. At times Polish authorities have been able to enhance their country's and their personal interests by clever exploitation of Poland's otherwise unenviable geographical position between the two great powers, Germany and Russia.

As Russia pushes the Germans back across Polish territory it is apparent that the Kremlin will not tolerate jockeying by any neighboring countries which will jeopardize Russian security after Germany's collapse.

Wants Friendly Sphere.

Russia is determined to surround itself with governments whose foreign relations and domestic behavior it can trust. Since the United States and Britain would like to do the same in their spheres they are in no position to challenge the Russians in this respect and couldn't successfully challenge them if they wished to.

A good many Poles realize this and have been trying to evolve a political arrangement with Russia which will restore to Poland as much as possible of its territory and power.

Other Poles, many of them prominent in the Polish Government-in-Exile in London and in the Polish forces serving in Italy and France, hate Russia so bitterly that they have not hesitated to jeopardize their country's welfare and the Allied interests in their anti-collaborationist activities.

The outstanding diehard among these anti-Russian Poles is Gen. Kasimierz Sosnkowski, commander-in-chief of the Polish armed forces loyal to the government-in-exile.

Inasmuch as the American and British Governments have recognized the Polish Government-in-Exile as the legitimate custodian of Polish authority, Gen. Sosnowski's attitude and maneuvers have been more troublesome than otherwise would be the case.

Interpreting The War News

'BIG SQUEEZE' AT HAND FOR NAZIS

By J. M. ROBERTS JR.
Of the Associated Press.

BERLIN reports that the Nazis expect an early resumption of the United States Third Army drive for the Rhine. If Adolf Hitler's high command is smart, it expects a lot more than that. The Reich is now pocketed in an almost continuous series of fronts which promise to blaze into action simultaneously.

While the Russians have been pressing their Baltic and Balkan campaigns, cleaning up German forces which to a considerable extent are already out of the war, they undoubtedly have been massing for the eastern front pay-off—the cutting off of East Prussia and a renewal of the drive toward Krakow, 35 miles ahead and 40 miles from German Silesia.

In the West, the Allies have had just about enough time to solidify their gains and reorganize their supply. Many rear achelons which were in England until a few days ago are now in France.

German forces in western Holland are reporting retiring en masse through the gap north of Arnhem.

After the bitter nine-day fight which shattered the Gothic line in Italy, the Allies may need a breather, but not a long one. The Nazis there appear to be through and the next battle probably will be one to prevent their escape through the Alps.

The battle for the Balkans continues largely as a cleanup operation.

If renewed drives for the Rhine, East Prussia and Silesia do develop simultaneously, all the old favorite terms for describing broad military action will be out of date. It won't be a pincers movement. It will be more like the squeeze of multiple-ton presses.

FREEDOM AWARD TO WELLES

NEW YORK, Sept. 25 (AP).—Sumner Welles, former Under Secretary of State, has been selected by Freedom House to receive its 1944 Freedom Award, the organization announced yesterday.

Welles was chosen, the announcement said, because of his "constructive liberalism and internationalism, and his contribution to the concept of a world organization."

Stokes Describes Case of Mme. Lubin, Reported Imprisoned Under Conditions of Peculiar Degradation and Squalor.

By RICHARD L. STOKES

PARIS, Sept. 25 (By Wireless.)

SACHA GUITRY, playwright and actor, is not the only French artist of the first rank to meet retribution as a result of alleged friendliness with the enemy during the German occupation of the capital. From confidential sources I learned today that the republic's most eminent operatic singer, Mme. Germaine Lubin, was arrested Sept. 15 and is held incommunicado at the depot jail of the Paris Prefecture of Police.

Connoisseurs in the American colony here describe her as not merely the supreme vocalist, but a woman of distinguished beauty and an actress of superb grace, dignity and fire. They rate her as the greatest living interpreter of the role of Isolde in Wagner's "Tristan and Isolde."

Her fame is associated chiefly with this and five other commanding roles—Dona Anna in Mozart's "Don Giovanni"; Ariane in "Ariane and Barble-Bleu" by Paul Dukas; and three formidable roles in operas by Richard Strauss. These are the title role in "Electra"; the Marrschal in "Der Rosenkavalier"; and Ariadne in "Ariadne Auf Naxos."

Created "Electra" Role.

She was chosen by Strauss to create the role of Electra and sang it 36 times at the Paris Opera, with the composer wielding the baton at the first half-dozen performances. Mme. Lubin sang at Beyrouth during the last two seasons and also has appeared frequently at the Salzburg festivals.

During the occupation of Paris, she sang the role of Isolde at many performances at the Opera House attended only by Germans and no Frenchmen were admitted. She formerly was married to the French poet and dramatist, Paul Geraldy, whose play "Aimer" has become a classic of the modern French theater.

News of her arrest reached the American colony through a letter from a French acquaintance. It said she had neither been questioned nor charged; that permission to see her had been denied her attorney by the Prefect of the Seine, who is Mayor of Paris; and that she was confined under conditions of peculiar squalor and degradation. The case was described as being worthy of the Gestapo at its worst.

American Tries to Help.

As the diva's champion came forward an American citizen of the highest standing who had remained in Paris throughout the occupation. Himself a professional musician, he admired Mme. Lubin as "one of the glories of French art." His first step, without mentioning the singer's name, was to ask a woman official of the American Red Cross to make an inspection of the prison where Mme. Lubin was confined. She reported that 357 woman prisoners were crowded into a single room barely large enough for 50, with two water closets out of order and packed with filth.

Straw had been trampled out of the mattresses on the floor because there was no room to walk across the without stepping on them. Other details, too loathesome for mention, were added.

With much difficulty, the American drove his way to an interview with the publisher of one of the most powerful and conservative of the Paris newspapers and laid the data before him. The publisher hemmed and hawed and murmured that "these are difficult times," and finally asked the visitor to return after 48 hours.

Case at Standstill.

He did so, but the journalist failed to keep the appointment. The American ran him down in a distant printing shop. The publisher said again that times were difficult, but declared he had laid the matter before the Minister of Justice and the Minister of the Interior. He requested another delay of 48 rours and that period has now elapsed without result. There, for the moment, the case rests.

It was announced yesterday that some 450 "collaborators" have been arrested in the department of . . . Announcing an entirely new and beneficial loan service for discharged service men of World War II who will want to own a business, a farm or a home

INDUSTRIAL BANK
VETERANS LOAN PLAN

INDUSTRIAL feels a deep personal obligation to all home-coming veterans — and considers it a great privilege to serve them.

Many will want to own a business, a farm or a home. To serve such veterans, INDUSTRIAL offers its VETERANS LOAN PLAN.

VETERANS LOAN PLAN will be coordinated with Servicemen's Readjustment Act and will supplement the Government "G.I." Credit Program for service men. VETERANS LOAN PLAN will provide each with the individual attention his problem requires, and will help him get the proper loan for his particular needs and circumstances.

VETERANS LOAN PLAN will be placed in full operation as soon as the Government regulations covering the "G.I." Credit Programs are issued.

Whether you are still in the service, just released, or have a relative in the armed forces, ask anyone at INDUSTRIAL about the VETERANS LOAN PLAN.

I know that my retirement will make no difference in its cardinal principles; that it will always fight for progress and reform, never tolerate injustice or corruption, always fight demagogues of all parties, never belong to any party, always oppose privileged classes and public plunderers, never lack sympathy with the poor, always remain devoted to the public welfare; never be satisfied with merely printing news; always be drastically independent; never be afraid to attack wrong, whether by predatory plutocracy or predatory poverty.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

From a Whipping Boy

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:

After reading for the past few months so many of your fine editorials, I take this means of thanking your paper. I am sure this view is shared by many more of your readers.

The editorial which at long last brings forth these words is "3,000,000 Whipping Boys," on Sept. 20. I cannot understand how some of our so-called statesmen constantly cry in Congress and in the press about Government employes.

It would almost seem that anyone who is unfortunate enough to work for our Government should be ashamed of the fact.

The amendment proposing unemployment compensation for Federal employes along with other citizens was killed. I wonder if the stigma attached to being a Government employe will carry over into the coming time of peace. It certainly looks as though this would be true.

During the conversion to peacetime pursuits, are employes of the Government not entitled to some kind of compensation, or are they to be outcasts?

P. F. C. (War Department).

Sun Time in Winter

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:

This morning at 6, day was just breaking. It was necessary to use electric light all through breakfast. For the life of me, I can't see how, from now till next April or May, war time can be said to save electric current. Most city dwellers will be using light and appliances from 5 or 6 o'clock till about 9.

Furthermore, sticking to war time during the winter months must increase fuel consumption very greatly, because all over the country it brings on the house-heating load an hour earlier than necessary. And that hour falls precisely during the coldest period of the winter day.

Why not go back to sun time during the winters and let the sun help us keep warm?

The Sweater Issue Again

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:

As recently as last March, I was requested by a friend in New York City to purchase two 100 per cent wool sweaters for him. This he could not do, nor could I in St. Louis, so I proceeded to buy wool and knit them myself. I could not purchase a 100 per cent wool skirt for my daughter, so I compromised on a 40 per cent wool, 60 per cent rayon-and-cotton mixture.

If Mr. Dewey said he could not buy it, he could not buy it. He would not leave himself wide open to ridicule by a flock of Democratic vultures by making untruthful statements.

Too bad there is no one in the Democratic party to measure up to Mr. Dewey's high standards. I like a fair race.

M. A. P.

"Inner Thoughts" Are Out

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:

In "Who's Indispensable?" on Sept. 20, you have given us a new answer to the question, "What are we fighting for?" It appears to be the unknown objectives and "inner thoughts" of Allied leaders.

You quote Truman's "We cannot expect any man wholly inexperienced in national and international affairs readily to learn the views, the objectives and the inner thoughts of such divergent personalities as those dominant leaders who have guided the destinies of our courageous allies. . . . There will be no time to learn, and mistakes made cannot be unmade."

The "dominant leaders of our courageous allies" signed the Atlantic Charter, and if a new President will stick to that document, instead of worrying about other "views, objectives and inner thoughts" of Churchill and Stalin, the people's best interests will be properly served.

Roosevelt, It's Wonderful

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:

Gov. Dewey has denounced everything President Roosevelt has ever done. Since I'm from Missouri, I have to be shown how he would do it.

President Roosevelt has shown us in his record how he does it, and so far it is wonderful.

Mr. Dewey has said that the present administration has disunited the United States. Can a nation disunited produce millions of planes, tanks and guns? Labor, business and capital have never been working so closely together.

V. R. B.

Charge of Demagoguery

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:

Gov. Dewey has said still again that the administration is afraid to release men from the armed forces because it is afraid of a resumption of its depression. Thus, by repeating this charge a third time after the War Department's announced policy to the countrary, he becomes a demagogue.

Now he attacks the idea of an indispensable man, and the idea that Roosevelt, alone, of 130 million people is fitted to run the office of President. In so doing, he attacks a straw man. The "indispensable" argument was conceived by the Republicans to have something to attack.

JOHN HAHN.

A Convention Gravy Bid

Shall the momentous work of the Constitutional Convention, now completed after a year's time and the expenditure of $700,000, be endangered by the greed of a few newspaper publishers?

We ask this question with concern, in view of the decision the delegates must face Wednesday when they meet to work out plans for acquainting Missouri's voters with the details of the revised draft.

Among the proposals for a program of education there is the recurring plea for a costly newspaper advertising campaign. The Missouri Press Association wants a 60-inch advertisement inserted 12 times in each of the State's newspapers, at a total cost, based on regular rates, estimated at $186,000. A few rural publishers want to go even further. They are bringing pressure for publication of the entire new Constitution—26,000 words, or about 26 columns—in one newspaper in every county. At the legal publication rate, this would cost the huge sum of $450,000, more than half the total expense of the convention itself.

Either of these undertakings, and especially the latter, would be an intolerable raid upon the Treasury and an imposition on Missouri's taxpayers. It would be an extravagant, inexcusable dishing out of gravy for the benefit of a special group. It would be an example of that un-American evil, a press subsidy. It would be a piece of not-too-polite blackmail.

Why would this be blackmail? Simply because some of these publishers are using the shameless argument that, if a barrel of money is not made available to them, the country newspapers will oppose adoption of the new Constitution. If this isn't attempted blackmail, then what is it?

We hope the delegates are not intimidated by this threat, which comes, after all, from only a fringe of publishers. What should impress the delegates is the fact that such a squandering of public funds may turn more Missouri citizens against the convention and its works than the grasping rural papers can convert to support of the new Constitution. Payment of any such bribe would be a real danger to an affirmative vote. And let it not be forgotten that if this excellent draft fails of adoption, there will not be another opportunity for 20 years to make the long-needed reforms.

In addition to the waste of funds and the danger to the new Constitution involved in these proposals, a principle is at stake: that of the responsibility of the press to the people. The minority of publishers who ask for a hand-out before they will support the new Constitution are being false to a trust imposed by the American guarantee of a free press.

By any consideration, revision of the State's Constitution is news. If the Federal Constitution were being similarly revised, every paper in the land would devote columns to reporting and commenting on it. For Missourians, the decisions of this convention are of high importance. Then is it not the proper function of the press, whether metropolitan daily or rural weekly, to present and discuss the facts about the new Constitution as a public service, without expecting a cash payment for doing so?

It is proper for the convention to issue material explaining its work. It is proper for formal notice of the election to be published, at the prevailing rates. But all Missouri newspapers, large and small, should be willing to devote part of their space to the timely subject of constitutional revision, as legitimate news. If convention members are concerned about reaching the voters, they can do a great deal by speaking on the subject in their communities and over the State.

It is in the worst of taste for any part of the Missouri press to solicit the convention for a hand-out. The spectacle of a publisher of several small newspapers urging the $450,000 grab is particularly distasteful. The convention surely will stand firm and avert the danger to its handiwork by resisting the pressure for a wholly unwarranted advertising outlay.

An Inhumane Proposal

The Russian delegation to the UNRRA conference at Quebec, in proposing that the extent of their contribution to the Allied cause be made the measure of relief granted to the suffering people of Europe, has made a suggestion that is repugnant in the extreme.

Americans have never tied a string to their response to the need of fellow human beings. They never will. There is no measure of the relief that should be given to people who are hungry, ill, cold and homeless, except the measure of their need.

The Russian leaders and the Russian people can help our leaders and people to do what should be done to the war criminals by hardening our hearts enough when they become too soft. But they risk estranging American approval and losing American support for their views when they offer a proposal which we are bound to regard as inhumane and unthinkable.

Two members of the cast of "Oklahoma" are getting married. It would sound more likely if members of the troupe were becoming grandparents.

Robert Murphy?

The appointment of Robert Murphy as Gen. Eisenhower's political adviser in Germany has become still more questionable with the disclosure by Joseph G. Harrison in the Christian Science Monitor that Murphy is expected to give political counsel also regarding Austria.

There are, Mr. Harrison points out, three possible roads for Austria: democracy, Socialism and totalitarianism. "Persons familiar with Robert Murphy's record in pre-war France, in Vichy, in Algiers and in Italy believe his sympathies may prove to lie more with clerical authoritarianism than with either popular democracy or Socialism," the correspondent writes.

Edgar Ansel Mowrer also has brought spirited and documented objection to the Murphy appointment. In a letter to the Washington Post, he writes that in North Africa Murphy did nothing to prevent the now fugitive traitor, Nogues, from maintaining contact with Vichy; that his "prize friend" was Jacques Lemaigre-Dubreuil, collaborationist industrialist, and that Mr. Murphy was complacent toward continued enslavement in the coal mines of Polish and Czech aviators who had been sent there by Vichy.

Is Robert Murphy a proper person to represent American democracy in Germany and Austria? Or is he a cynic, an opportunist, whose guiding principle is success? The question mark against his appointment to a position of enormous responsibility grows daily.

The Wraps Are Off

Gov. Dewey announces that tonight he will take off the kid gloves and sail with bare fists into the New Deal, in answer to the President's rousing speech of Saturday night. The campaign, which had been in the doldrums until the President addressed the Teamsters' Union, now goes into high gear, and any notion that it was to be a polite sparring match is dispelled.

In his Saturday night speech, the President spoke as a politician and a political candidate, in defense of his administration's measures, and he poured irony and invective in full measure upon the G. O. P. He has seen all three of his opponents in 1936, 1940 and 1944 espouse New Deal measures, and it was fair for him to ask if the Old Guard can pass itself off as the New Deal.

Evidently nettled by Mr. Dewey's repeated statements that the New Deal was guilty of prolonging the depression, he recalled the old phrase, "Never speak of rope in the house of one who has been hanged," and said that, if he were a Republican, the last word in the dictionary he would use would be the word "depression."

The President defined the tasks ahead of us as the task of finishing the war as speedily as possible, of setting up international machinery to guard against a third world war and of reconverting our economy from war to peace levels. He was at his best and most convincing when he boiled down the reconversion aim into just one word, "jobs," and when he told of the measures he would employ to create those jobs. He employed the fine phrase, "logistics of peace," which he said were being organized just as Marshall, King, et al., are organizing the logistics of war.

If there are those who feel that the President was out of character Saturday night in his biting wit and his bludgeoning of the Republican party, it should be remembered that no presidential campaign in the United States is ever a namby-pamby business. It is only in the sharp clash of contrasting points of view that issues are hammered out to a fine edge. It should be remembered, too, that the President has been at the receiving end of the needling of Mr. Dewey and of other Republican speakers and is entitled to return the compliment.

Mr. Dewey is supposed to have been gathering damaging material against the New Deal, and tonight, evidently, we will find out what he has been able to discover. Meanwhile, the wraps are off and the presidential derby goes into its stretch run.

After Gov. Dewey's Hollywood premiere, there seems some doubt whether he is running for President or Rhett Butler.

Order of the Day

There's a great day coming, a red-and-green-striped day, a day of mumpish cheeks and sticky fingers—if OPA has the inside stuff in its announcement that more lemon drops and peppermints in the candy stores are just around the show-window.

Soon blank, staring candy jars may be filled to luxurious overflowing and a treasured sight of pre-war days return: expectant faces flattened against the glass of the candy counter at the corner drug store, bright-eyedly giving the once and twice and thrice-over to the rows upon rows of gaudy, gooey sweets, as the momentous decision is made: lemon drops or jelly beans.

No longer will "Elsie Dinsmore" and "Little Women" be the youngster's only source of information regarding the merits of pink and white peppermints, that panacea of childhood that stops tears in a second.

For the possessor of every fat and eager fist that's got a nickel in it, there's a day coming that a nickel's worth of lemon drops or peppermints is going to be the order of.

Mr. Morgenthau's Idea

The immediate problems that will arise as Allied forces advance into Germany are well in hand, thanks to the comprehensive orders issued a few days ago by Gen. Eisenhower. The long-term policies for treatment of Germany, however, are still in a state of indecision, as is proved by the deadlock that has developed over them in the Cabinet, precipitated by Secretary Morgenthau's plan for converting that country's post-war economy to a solely agricultural basis.

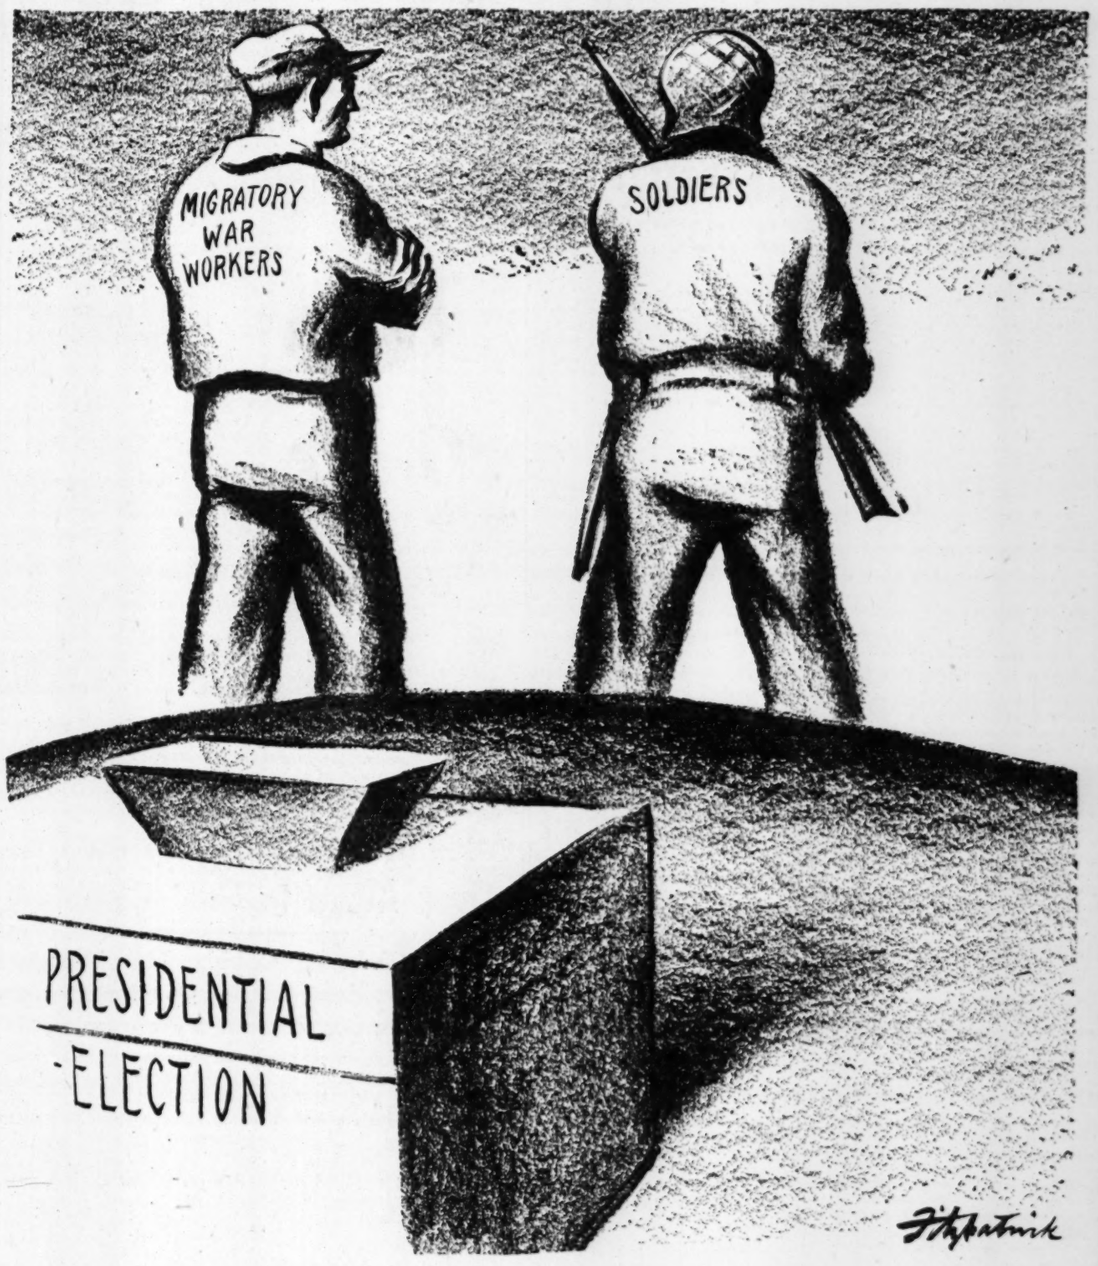

Germany is not to have a "soft" peace—that is generally agreed upon. The Morgenthau proposal should at least serve the useful purpose of starting a debate which will develop the most practical means of permanently subduing that chronic disturber and ultimately fitting the Reich to play a peaceful role in the family of nations. Destroying German industry may appear, at first glance, to be such a device. But what of its effects on Europe's economy if it loses the potential benefits of a German production capacity converted to constructive ends?

Walter Lippmann, never an advocate of a "soft" peace, in his article today considers this problem, and offers a cogent answer:

> The whole theory of destroying the German war potential by destroying German industry is a confusion of cause and effect. It assumes that people are warlike because they can make weapons, whereas in fact they make weapons because they wish to be or have to be warlike. . . .
> Our target in Germany should not be her civilian industries but her military system. . .

Rigid postwar control of German industry is a necessity. But its outright destruction would mean a shake-up of Europe's economy which might well prove disastrous. To repair the wreckage of war and place the Continent on a sound trade basis, the services of Germany's industrial plant, properly regulated, will be required.

George Bernard Shaw says George is an ugly name and he doesn't use it. This will make people named George think of a really ugly name, and they will use it.

IMPORTANT ABSENTEES

A Job Decision to Cheer GI Joe

The Mirror of Public Opinion

Federal court's edict that veterans must have their old jobs back, without technical evasions, is a morale builder, newspaper says; minority of ex-service men may abuse the privilege, but humanitarianism calls for liberal treatment, and the majority will use it well.

From the Philadelphia Record

Biggest boost of the year to GI morale, next to the floodtide of Allied victory in Europe, is the decision of Federal Judge William H. Kirkpatrick insisting that returning veterans be given back their pre-war jobs—and no fooling about it.

Judge Kirkpatrick, overruling a District Court decision, says: "Every consideration of fairness and justice makes it imperative that the Selective Service Act of 1940 be construed as liberally as possible so that military service shall entail no hardship on the returning soldier."

The principle that GIs shall get their old jobs back applies, rules the Court, "even where the substitute has done better work."

This decision sets an important precedent. A number of similar cases are now in the courts.

Suit by a Doctor

In this one, a doctor wanted to claim his old job, as medical director of the General Cable Co. The company asserted that since he had a small private practice, he was not an "employe" in the usual meaning of that word, and hence not entitled to regain his post. The Court called that "quibbling."

Judge Kirkpatrick's decision recognizes not only the words but the intent of the Selective Service Act. That act originally provided that after discharge from military service, a man has 40 days to reclaim his pre-war job. And his seniority in that job is protected for one year.

President Roosevelt recently asked Congress to extend the claim period from 40 to 90 days, and his suggestion has just been accepted.

America's intent, as Judge Kirkpatrick recognizes, is to lean over backward this time to avoid the mistakes which followed World War I, when the veterans got plenty of cheers but too often found their jobs gone.

Last time, the GI had no such clear-cut legal protection as he has now. There was no United States Employment Service. The District Attorney's office was not prepared then, as it is now, to fight, without cost, in the courts for a GI's job when it considers his claim just.

Some of our conservative friends will call this "coddling," or some other nasty name. And some veterans probably will try to take undue advantage of this protection to make unreasonable demands, or claim United States protection for poor work, laziness or indifference.

But we would rather lean over backward to protect the 98 per cent of GIs who, like 98 per cent of other Americans, are industrious, capable and want only the chance to earn a decent living, than to neglect the 98 per cent because 2 per cent may be shiftless.

After all, the law merely gives the returning GI his job. Then it is up to him to keep it.

Answer to the Critics

We shall hear, too, from certain quarters, that there is danger in veterans' preference both as to reclaiming pre-war jobs and as to Federal civil service ratings. We shall be told that this may set veterans and civilians against each other.

There is one answer to that. Full employment—enough jobs for all.

The answer is in the Federal Government assuming responsibility for maintaining full employment by having ready, as soon as hostilities cease, enough public works jobs to take up any slack in private employment.

Yes, Judge Kirkpatrick has set a notable example. Every GI at home and abroad will breathe easier, for himself and his family, thanks to Uncle Sam.

Some term that kind of government paternalistic. We call it humanitarian.

From the Pittsburgh Press.

No candidate for such a high office as President of the United States can be responsible for the conduct of all of his camp-followers.

President Roosevelt has been handicapped by zealots, crackpots and political phonies and demagogues. Gov. Dewey, as the Republican nominee for President, is "blessed" with some of the same stripe.

One of these is Congressman Dewey Short of Missouri, who calls himself the "hillbilly from the Ozarks."

Mr. Short delivered a speech here to inaugurate the Republican campaign in Pennsylvania. The speech was utterly devoid of persuasive and logical arguments in behalf of the Republican ticket. It was an abusive, offensive diatribe, replete with invective and vicious innuendo.

This election will be determined by public judgment of the personal abilities of the rival candidates and their basic policies and intentions, as revealed by their own words and records. There are ample issues to be debated. They can be debated logically and clearly.

The Republican State Committee conferred no favor on the voters of Pittsburgh—and won no votes for its cause—when it brought Mr. Short here.

Both camps have their Dewey Shorts. The less we hear of them, the better it will be for the candidates, for the parties, for the country.

A Plan to Preserve the Peace By Postwar Use of Air Power

"It Can Be Done This Time," by Frederick Palmer. (Charles Scribner's Sons, New York.)

This new volume by the doyen of the distinguished corps of American war correspondents is particularly useful at this time because in it Col. Palmer uses the fruit of long experience to suggest the lesson of history to the keeping of the peace hereafter. And well he might, for he knows the wars of the last half-century from first-hand observation, and often participation, perhaps as well as any living American.

His first was the Greco-Turkish war of 1897. He was on the march to Peking during the Boxer Rebellion, then with Japanese headquarters in the Russo-Japanese war, in the Balkans in the preludes to World War I, then with the British "Contemptibles" until we entered World War I. Called into military service as Chief of Press Relations for Gen. Pershing, he followed the formation of strategy and the Service of Supply for the A. E. F. His numerous writings are all of a high order.

The present volume represents Col. Palmer's projection into the future of the fruit of his experiences and his high-order judgment of strategy and tactics. Especially interesting is his view of the role that air power can play in preserving, protecting and defending the peace of the United States and the peace of the world.

Just as all peoples, in his view of the post-war world, "habituated themselves to instinctive obedience of urban traffic regulations after the coming of the automotive vehicle, they will habituate themselves to world traffic regulations, without the traffic policeman who carries a gun having often to draw it, let alone to fire a shot."

This should implement the real limitation of armaments, which would be the supreme triumph of international law, but which heretofore has been frustrated by the unhappy fact that one country could not permanently disarm another country by victory at war. A fully armed occupation of the vanquished nation was necessary to keep it from rearming, and this usually was too laborious, expensive and frustrating a process; therefore the victor nation had chosen to keep strongly armed itself instead of to continue to occupy.

But now, he points out, "for the first time in history we have the necessary common denominator, an over-all yardstick, since air power is indispensable to either land or sea forces. . . . Once the enemy countries are disarmed and the occupied breathe freely in their labors of reconstruction, we shall have in air power the mechanism for the general reduction of armaments.

"If we make the plane a servant, we can envisage a world court which will not require for the enforcement of its judgments the dropping of any more bombs by an international air police force than our armed forces have to fire shots to compel compliance with the judgments of the United States Supreme Court. . . . If we make the plane our servant, the ancient prayers of mothers of this generation and of generations to come may be answered at long last."

GEORGE FORT MILTON.
Washington.

Stimson's Reports on the War

Shortly after Pearl Harbor, Secretary Stimson began issuing statements every week or so on the progress of the war. These were intended as official news summaries, but often they also contained analytical comments. Now gathered in book form, under the title "Prelude to Invasion" (Public Affairs Press, Washington), Mr. Stimson's reports constitute an informative war document.

WALTER LIPPMANN

Problems of a German Settlement

THE problems of the German settlement beyond the first phase of military occupation—particularly, what is to be the enduring political order of the German nation, what is to be its social economy—cannot be resolved at this time.

He who thinks, for example, that he can draw lines on a map for the partitioning of Germany and then order Germany partitioned, is indulging his own fantasies. He could just as well order the cook to unscramble yesterday's scrambled eggs.

Whether Germany should and can be partitioned is an unanswerable question until we know what the Germans are like who will rise to leadership after the destruction of the Nazi regime.

It may be that these postwar Germans will wish to break up the German Reich. It may be that they will wish to decentralize it. If what we are looking for is a lasting solution, we must not for a moment imagine that it can be achieved without a very large measure of German consent and participation.

The crucial need at this time is that we should think systematically, which means above all to realize that these problems can be decided rightly only if they are decided in the right order.

What Partition Means.

Partition is a confusing word for the thing that Sumner Welles and others are advocating. To partition a country has always meant—as in the case of Poland in the eighteenth century—to divide it up and then to annex the parts to its neighbors. But nobody dreams of annexing all the separated parts of Germany.

What is really meant by "partition" is the dissolution of the German national state by the secession of the old German states which have become incorporated in the Reich.

Now secession, without annexation to anyone else, would leave several independent German states. Mr. Welles thinks there should be three. Others think there should be more than three. But the great question is: How are these "partitioned" German states to stay partitioned?

If they like independence and cherish it, that is one thing. But if they resent the partition and long to reunite, then the attempt of the Allies to enforce partition becomes like the attempt to unscramble yesterday's scrambled eggs.

For this reason, we must not, I believe, waste time arguing fiercely about whether we think Germany should be divided up. We must fix our attention on the necessary and prior problems of administering the military government of Germany in such a way as to promote the appearance by democratic processes of trustworthy Germans.

Only when that has been done can we know what we are talking about when we consider the German political settlement.

Economic Decisions Vital.

Nor have we yet got to the bridge we shall have to cross in settling the economic position of Germany. We, that is to say, the Allies, cannot make the long-range decisions until we have decided what economic measures are necessary to prevent the revival of German military power. This problem is now being discussed in all the Allied capitals, and opinion ranges widely between two poles.

There are those who propose the destruction of German industrial power on the theory that only if the Germans cannot rearm can we make sure they will not rearm. At the opposite pole there are those who believe that a flourishing German economy should be restored, and that German rearmament should be prevented not by economic measures but by military force.

Between these two poles of theory there are many proposals which lean one way or the other.

My own view is that the more objectively the problem is examined, the greater will be the tendency toward the second view — that is to say, toward regarding the prevention of rearmament as calling primarily for military measures, and only incidentally for economic.

To Prevent Rearmament.

In such a view, we would forbid the making of any weapons and the training of any men in military formations, and we would destroy or remove any installations or tools exclusively designed for war. We would reserve the right to be the judges of what is a violation of this rule and to back up this prohibition by drastic penalties quickly applied. But just because civilian industry can be converted to war purposes, we would not attempt to destroy German civilian industry.

The reason for not destroying German civilian industry is that it is impossible to reduce the German people to an agricultural level. They would die of famine; or rather, long before they died of famine, they would become a sullen, festering mass of desperate human beings that no one could deal with.

The whole theory of destroying the German war potential by destroying German industry is a confusion of cause and effect. It assumes that people are warlike because they can make weapons, whereas in fact they make weapons because they wish to be or have to be warlike.

We had in 1941 the greatest war potential in the world and we were just about as unwarlike as a big nation can be. The Japanese have a small war potential, but they are a warrior nation.

Militarism Is Big Issue.

Therefore, our target in Germany should not be her civilian industries but her military system—the finished products for use in battle: weapons, an officers' corps, trained troops, planning staffs, mobilization plans and records, intelligence services. That is easier than trying to stop automobiles because they can transport troops or closing factories because they can make uniforms.

This does not mean or imply that German civilian industry should not be controlled. Control and destruction are two quite different policies. German industry must be controlled, not so much to prevent war but for the purpose of making it serve the reconstruction of Europe.

How this is to be done cannot, however, be settled until the three big powers call France and the leading European nations into their councils.

MARQUIS CHILDS

Optimism From Dumbarton Oaks

WITH the first phase of the Dumbarton Oaks Conference drawing to a close, the conferees are showing real signs of optimism. The extent of the agreement they have reached apparently goes beyond what they had hoped for when they first sat down around the conference table.

It hasn't been easy, by any means. In fact, it has gone more slowly than had been expected. There were long discussions over the degree of representation to be accorded the small nations, and also over what should be done if one of the Big Four should turn aggressor.

Shortly, the three-way discussion with the Russians will be over, and then the Chinese will move in. With a framework already laid down, the hope is that this second meeting can be concluded in a week or 10 days.

Stettinius to Report.

Then Under Secretary of State Edward R. Stettinius Jr. will report to the President. His report will, it is hoped, be made public almost at once. Protocol calls for holding it up until all the governments are ready to release the reports of their respective chiefs of delegation.

The men laboring over this agreement know best of all that it's only a beginning. Having taken this first step, they realize what patience, what painstaking effort must go into building up from this point on.

A lot of questions are unanswered. What about the place of France? What about the status of colonies in the new organization?

The knots that must be untied before anything like peace can prevail in Europe are soaked in blood. The question mark of Poland casts a dark shadow over the peace table. It stands as a kind of symbol of the tortured world that has seen so much of sanity and decency—yes, Christianity—lost in the swamp of despair.

While the peace planners were sitting around the table at Dumbarton Oaks, there was agony in Warsaw. It was the agony of men dying in the conviction of betrayal.

Whatever the truth about who said what and who said it first, the fact remains that the Soviets did not come to the aid of Gen. Bor's underground army and, indeed, put obstacles in the way of the British and Americans getting help in. Putting emotion to one side, Russia lost an opportunity to show the world that aid for Poland could come only from Moscow; that the Poles are forever linked to their great neighbor on the east.

Washington Stood Firm.

The tragic misunderstanding is ended now. Help is coming from all sides. It was ended, I believe, because the Government here in Washington stood firm.

There is a difference, although some people won't see it, between standing firm for what we believe to be right and muddying the issues with the kind of silly intrigue that William Bullitt sought to revive. We know World War III—a war of annihilation—lies down that road. There's a chance to avoid it on the other road.

In 1919, the victorious nations drew up a pretty blueprint for a league of perfect nations. The peace planners preferred to close their eyes to the faults and failings of human beings, once they'd tailored their plan to an ideal pattern. This time, we're going about it the other way—setting up a framework in which the tangles of the war can be unsnarled.

Now and then, the old voices still echo the past. Senator Wheeler, who never learns and never forgets, apparently wants to repeat 1919. He predicts a fight on anything that Dumbarton Oaks may offer.

Fortunately, most Americans know now that this is merely the croak of a past which preferred self-destruction to anything less than impossible perfection. They knew that Dumbarton Oaks is merely a station on a difficult journey.

NEW CEILING FOR CANNED PEARS AND DRIED FRUITS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 (AP).—Ceiling prices for the 1944 pack of canned California Bartlett pears and for a number of dried fruits were announced by the Office of Price Administration yesterday.

The new pear ceilings, effective immediately, are higher at retail than last year's by about 2 cents for a No. 2½ can.

At the retail level for dried fruits, apricots will sell at approximately 5 cents a pound under prices of last season, while there will be no change in prices for peaches and pears. Housewives will pay about a half cent more a pound for prunes and from a half cent to 3 cents more for raisins, depending upon the type. Fig prices stay about the same.

MRS. PAYNE WHITNEY, SPORTSWOMAN, DIES

NEW YORK, Sept. 25 (AP).—The first lady of the American turf, wealthy Mrs. Payne Whitney, died yesterday. She was 68 years old.

A dominant figure in the social world, she was the daughter of John Hay, Secretary of State in the cabinets of Presidents McKinley and Theodore Roosevelt. Her husband, Payne Whitney, left an estate valued at 250 million dollars. He died in May, 1927.

As mistress of Greentree Stables, she was the owner of two Kentucky Derby winners and a number of stake and steeplechase champions. Twenty Grand carried her cherry and black silks to victory in the Louisville classic in 1931 and Shutout triumphed for her in the 1942 race.

The Thoroughbred Club of America in 1938 gave Mrs. Whitney the first life membership ever presented to a woman.

Mrs. Whitney was born in New York, made her debut in Washington and was presented at court while her father was Ambassador to Great Britain. She was married in 1902. She wrote 12 books of verse.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Charles Shipman Payson, and a son, Col. John Hay (Jock) Whitney of the Army Air Forces, who recently escaped after being a prisoner of the Germans for two weeks.

Of her husband she once said: "Our marriage was of the best. I never had a quarrel with him—or with any one else that I can remember."

Mrs. Whitney's daughter and her daughter-in-law, Betsey Cushing Whitney, former wife of James Roosevelt, were with her when she died.

Funeral services will be held at 4 p. m. tomorrow at Christ Episcopal Church, Manhasset, Long Island.

112 COMPETE IN FREE FLIGHT MODEL AIRPLANE CONTEST

Free flight events of the Missouri Valley model airplane contest, held yesterday at the Civil Air Patrol field near Ellisville, attracted 112 entries and a crowd estimated at 1200. The meet was sponsored by Air Scout Squadron No. 1 of the St. Louis Boy Scout Council and the Webster Groves Kiwanis Club.

Floyd Snow of Ferguson, whose Class C gasoline-powered model achieved a flight of over eight minutes, won the Kiwanis Club trophy. Youngest winner was 4-year-old Johnny Hotze of Webster Groves, who placed third in the junior division. A jet-propelled model entered by the Hellcats Squadron of St. Joseph, Mo., made a spectacular flight to a height of 50 feet and then crash-dived to the ground.

MRS. PAYNE WHITNEY

SISTERS, SEPARATED 21 YEARS AGO AS CHILDREN, REUNITED

Two sisters whose mother died when they were 2 and 4 years old, respectively, and whose father placed them in different children's homes in Georgia, held a reunion here yesterday after 21 years' separation.

The reunion was really a gift to one from her husband. From old records, he learned the names of a pair who had adopted his wife's sister, and with the help of the Red Cross, traced them to St. Louis. Then Mrs. Helen Frances Busby of Memphis, Tenn., telephoned Mrs. Inez Schoen of St. Louis, and the reunion was arranged at the home of Mrs. Schoen's foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. St. Elmo McClure, 2805 Eads avenue.

The sisters had been searching for each other for many years. Yesterday, as they compared notes, they discovered they had been in Atlanta twice at the same time, in 1935 and 1937, trying to trace the whereabouts of the other.

CAPT. R. C. HEIMER TO LEAVE

Capt. Roger C. Heimer, District Coast Guard Officer for the St. Louis Ninth Naval District, will leave St. Louis late next month to become commanding officer of a new transport, it was announced today.

Capt. Heimer has been stationed in St. Louis since February. His successor has not been announced. Before coming here, he was commanding officer of the combat transport U. S. S. Samuel Chase, which took part in the invasions of Algiers, Sicily and Salerno. For action in the latter two invasions he was given the Legion of Merit and the Gold Star awards.

FALL HORSE SHOW TO OPEN TONIGHT

Ten Classes to Be Staged at Each of Six Performances.

The St. Louis Fall Horse Show will open at Missouri Stables Arena tonight for six performances through Saturday. Ten classes will be staged each night including three- and five-gaited classes, hunter and jumper events, fine harness, hackney and heavy harness pony contests, children's horsemanship classes and special feature events.

Among features will be the first showing in St. Louis of the palomino pleasure horse, a breed developed in California and Texas. The horse gets its name—literally "gold coin"—from its tawny coat. The mane and tail are silver or ivory color. The palomino class will be exhibited tomorrow night.

Tonight's program, starting at 8 o'clock, will include locally owned hunters and roadsters, a coaching exhibition and jumpers. Prizes for the week total $8000.

Net proceeds of the show will go to the American Women's Voluntary Services for the enlargement of their war service activities in St. Louis and St. Louis County. The Missouri Stables Arena is at 5200 Berthold avenue.

SON OF JUSTICE JACKSON WEDS GRANDDAUGHTER OF T. R.

COLD SPRING HARBOR, N. Y., Sept. 25 (AP).—Miss Nancy Dabney Roosevelt, daughter of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Archibald B. Roosevelt and granddaughter of the late President Theodore Roosevelt, was married yesterday to Ensign William Eldred Jackson, U. S. N. R., son of Supreme Court Justice and Mrs. Robert H. Jackson.

The bride's father arrived from the Pacific theater to give his daughter in marriage.

The candlelight ceremony was held in St. John's Episcopal Church with Canon Albert H. Lucas, headmaster of St. Albans School in Washington, the bridegroom's alma mater, officiating. A reception and supper in the gardens of Turkey Lane House, the Roosevelts' home, followed. Miss Theodora Roosevelt was maid of honor for her sister and Justice Jackson was best man.

Tigers Lose; Browns Could Tie for Lead With a Victory Tonight

Christopher on Mound For Macks; Each Team Scores on an Error

DETROIT, Sept. 25 (AP).—The Detroit Tigers were defeated by the Philadelphia Athletics in the first game of the series this afternoon and their American League lead was reduced to a half game, pending the outcome of the Browns' night contest with the Red Sox at St. Louis.

The score was 2 to 1.

Russ Christopher pitched for the Athletics and Rufus Gentry for the Tigers.

Dick Siebert singled to open the second frame for the A's and when Eddie Mayo dropped Pinky Higgins' throw after fielding Bill McGhee's bounder, both runners were safe. Charley Metro walked to fill the bases and Siebert scored as Ed Busch hit into a double play.

Dick Wakefield walked to start the Tiger half but was forced by Jim Outlaw. After Paul Richards flied out, Joe Hoover bounced to Metro, who threw wild to first, Outlaw scoring.

Neither team was able to score in the next three innings although the Athletics threatened in the fourth with singles by Siebert and McGhee. Metro lined to Hoover, however, and the Tiger shortstop tossed to Mayo for a double play to end the inning.

Newhouser Gains His 27th Victory

DETROIT, Sept. 25.—Southpaw Hal Newhouser scored his twenty-seventh victory of the season here yesterday as the Tigers routed the Boston Red Sox, 9 to 5, to sweep the four-game series.

Detroit made 15 hits of Terry, Cecil, O'Neill and Bowman, while Newhouser yielded only one safety in the first five frames and then coasted behind the big early lead his mates gave him.

79,000 Crowd Sees Irish Football Final

DUBLIN, Sept. 25 (AP).—Roscommon retained the Irish Gaelic football (soccer) championship yesterday by beating Kerry, 12 points to 10, at Croke Park. Roscommon won with a late rally, ramming in four scores in quick succession to erase Kerry's two-point lead.

A record crowd of 79,000 paid $25,904 to see the game.

The defeat thwarted Kerry's bid for its sixteenth championship that would have set a new record.

Columbus Recalls Seven From Farms

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 25 (AP).—The Columbus Redbirds of the American Association announced the recall of seven players who have been on option in the lower minors.

The seven, all of whom are to report next spring, are: John Bucha, catcher, from Allentown, Pa.; Vaughn Hazen, outfielder, from Lynchburg, Va.; William Cloude, infielder, from Johnsoh City, Tenn.; James McKinnon, pitcher, from Lima, O.; Nick Vucovich, pitcher, Arthur Frantz, infielder, and Peroy Pfund, pitcher, from Mobile of the Southern Association.

Luckman Stars, but Bears Lose Opener at Green Bay

Their debut was spoiled yesterday at Green Bay when the potent Packers of Curly Lambeau rallied for their second league victory with a rousing 42-28 decision before 24,000 fans.

In the other league game, the Cleveland Rams celebrated their return to competition after a year's hiatus with an eye-lash 30-28 triumph over the Pittsburgh-Chicago combine. The campaign opener for both was witnessed by 20,968 at Pittsburgh.

The fifty-second tangle between the Bears and Packers came within nine points of the league scoring record for a single game set in 1942 when Green Bay crushed the Chicago Cardinals, 55-24.

The Packers started with a 28-0 advantage in the first 19 minutes. Ens. Luckman, who rejoined the Bears last week end pending sea duty call by the Maritime Service, soon found range with his famed passing arm to rally the champions to four touchdowns and a 28-28 deadlock in the final period.

The Packers struck back with a 41-yard touchdown gallop by Lou Brock and a 50-yard payoff sprint on a pass interception by Ted Fritsch to win going away.

Green Bay's brilliant oldster, End Don Hutson, grabbed a touchdown pass and place-kicked six consecutive extra points to further enhance his scoring reputation. Hutson has booted 60 straight conversions and has scored in 37 consecutive games.

Cleveland's pass-wrought triumph gave Buff Donelli a successful debut as a new league coach. The Cardinal-Steeler team topped Donelli's crew in every department statistically, but the Rams snatched their victory in the last two minutes on Tom Collela's third touchdown pass to End Jim Benton.

The Card-Pitts converted after all four of their touchdowns, but although the Rams missed one of four conversion tries, their victory margin came on Lou Zontini's first quarter field goal.

Another league contest is scheduled tomorrow night at Boston between the Philadelphia Eagles and the new Boston Yankee entry.

Major League Games Drew 117,061 Fans

NEW YORK, Sept. 25 (AP).—Topped by a crowd of 48,702 that saw the Detroit Tigers defeat Boston, a total of five major league doubleheaders and three single games drew 117,061 fans today.

Biggest crowd in the National League was 13,480 at Philadelphia where the Phillies lost two to St. Louis.

The figures:

Monsanto Loses; Meyers, Kellers In Muny Final

Only two teams remain in the hunt today for the Municipal Athletic Association senior baseball championship, after Monsanto was eliminated by the Meyers, 6 to 4, yesterday afternoon at Fairground Park.

*Monsanto, with a victory and defeat in the playoffs, will meet the Kellers, who have won twice and need only one more victory to clinch the title. If Monsanto wins next Sunday it will be necessary to play another game.

There were three "under-the-fence" home runs, Monsanto getting two on drives which rolled under the canvas around the outfield. The Meyers' was made by Herman Stauder, while Joe Sadowski and Delmar Schwinke of the Monsanto team collected round-trippers on smashes which rolled under the canvas.

In the junior final, Jerry Ahrens pitched one-hit ball to enable the St. George nine to defeat St. Philip Neri, 4 to 0, giving St. George the title on two straight triumphs.

The Intermediate series opened with the Zenthoefers smothering the Pals A. C., 22 to 1. Blessed Sacrament, with a 14-to-2 decision over St. France de Sales, and St. Philip Neri, with a 2-to-0 victory over Our Lady of Presentation, reached the C. Y. C. final round and will begin their title series next Sunday.

Cooper and Wilks Show They Are Ready for Series

BROOKLYN, Sept. 25. — Mort Cooper and Ted Wilks, who will probably be Billy Southworth's one-two starters in the world series, showed that they are ready for the issue in Philadelphia yesterday when each pitched a stirring game to beat the Phillies.

Cooper had to go 16 innings to gain his twenty-second victory of the season and the Cardinals hundredth, 4 to 3, while Wilks came through with a five-hit, 1 to 0, triumph for his seventeenth and the Birds' 101st decision.

Cooper was hit freely, being touched for 19 hits over the marathon route, but he was tight in the pinches and also had fine support. A home run by George (Whitey) Kurowski was the sixteenth inning shot that produced victory.

Wilks, leading percentage pitcher of the National League, hooked up in a scoreless battle for eight frames with Charley Schanz before the Birds got him a run in the ninth.

"They both looked great," commented Southworth on Cooper and Wilks after the game. "It was just the kind of tests they needed."

Riley and Canadeo Are Signed for Bout At the Auditorium

A special bout, scheduled for six rounds, between Savey Canadeo, a sergeant in the air corps at Scott Field, and Dave Riley, broad-shouldered local Negro welterweight, has been arranged for Friday night's boxing card at Kiel Auditorium.

Canadeo looked good in his last bout when he floored Charley O'Kelly three times in winning a six-round decision.

Been able to get some extra overtime money — so what do you say, let's go dancing tonight. You can step on my Ice-Mint feet all you want.

By W. J. McGoogan

The final and decisive week starts today with the Browns meeting the Boston Red Sox in the first of a series of three games at Sportsman's Park tonight at 8:15 o'clock, while the Athletics opened a set with the Tigers in Detroit this afternoon.

With the Tigers losing to the Athletics in Detroit this afternoon, the Browns were only a half game out of first place, pending tonight's contest in which a victory would give Sewell's men a tie for the lead.

Potter to Hurl Tonight.

But one thing is sure—the Browns aren't going to give up. They've proven that time and again this season and they may catch the Tigers if the Bengal can be stopped by Connie Mack's men, who have won 10 of 19 games between the teams this season.

Nelson Potter is scheduled to pitch against Joe Cronin's team in the opener and it is likely that Clem Driesewerd, once a Cardinal, will hurl for the Red Sox.

The Browns will be seeking their sixth straight victory. They have won eight of their last 10 contests to remain on the Tigers' heels.

Once again the Browns showed their ability to fight against odds in the final with the Athletics, and, it must be admitted, for one of the few times this season, they got help from a slip on the part of the opposition. They scored three runs in the ninth to win a thriller, 3 to 2, to send the more than 14,000 fans home in high glee, but a little startled by the suddenness of it all.

Christman to the Rescue.

After Laabs fouled out in the last frame, Stephens kept hope alive with a single to right, but Byrnes forced him. McQuinn then walked after he had hit a long foul into the right-field stand. Shirley ran for McQuinn and Mark Christman didn't hesitate as he lined a double to left center to score both runners, Shirley making a diving leap to touch the plate as Busch, taking Ford Garrisons' relay, made a wild throw home, which enabled Christman to move to third. Floyd Baker, who had entered the game at second base after Gutteridge retired for pinch batter Gene Moore in the eighth, sent a harmless appearing fly to center field.

Estalella reached it, got both hands on it, then the ball bounced out of his glove and Christman cantered home with the winning tally.

Previously the Athletics had built up a two-run lead against Jack Kramer, one through an error by Stephens and the other on clean hitting. The first came in the seventh inning when Stephens made a low throw to first base after fielding Garrison's grounder. Estalella sacrificed. Stephens atoned in part for his boot when he made a sparkling stop of Hayes' grounder behind second, Garrison moving to third to score as Siebert bounced a single through the box. In the ninth, Garrison tripled and Estalella singled.

BROWNIE NOTES.

Stephens had a rough afternoon. In addition to his wild throw, he was guilty of two bits of lax baserunning. With Laabs on second in the fourth, one out, Junior sent a fly to short left. It looked like it would be easy for Garrison and Stephens loafed going to first. The sun got in Garrison's eyes and he missed the ball entirely. Stephens should easily have been at second base but he only reached first, Laabs moving to third. That set the stage for a double play on Byrnes' grounder to McGee to end the inning. Had Stephens been on second the double play would have been impossible.

In the seventh, he was on second base when a pitch got away from Hayes and rolled 30 feet behind the catcher. Stephens wasn't on his toes and made no attempt to go to third.

Some fans wondered about Baker's batting in eighth place in the ninth after he had replaced Gutteridge at second base. Moore batted for Gutteridge and Zarilla for Hayworth. Mancuso replaced Hayworth and, under the rules, a manager is permitted to insert the new men into the lineup in either one of the places vacated.

Attendance included 12,196 paid.

Ladies First? Well, Not Necessarily.

"LADIES FIRST" may get the go sign socially . . . But on the-race track sex appeal gets the fillies exactly nothing, unless we except a five-pound weight allowance when racing against males.

In fact, right now a race is being promoted in which the lady will get that five-pound sex consideration—and that's all. . . . In every other particular the idea will be for the gentleman to give the lady a sound beating.

That may occur when the Pimlico Special is run at Baltimore Nov. 1. . . . The colt in question is By Jimminy, male three-year-old standout, and the lady involved is Twilight Tear, winner of some 11 straight races until she was beaten trying to give away too much weight.

The Pimlico Special, you'll recall, is Alfred G. Vanderbilt's "dream race." . . . It is supposed to settle the champion horse of the year of all ages, and is run on a winner-take-all basis, with $25,000 as the stakes.

BY JIMMINY'S owner, hoping to settle the three-year-old crown for both sexes, has announced that he will start his fine Pharamond II colt if Twilight Tear also is entered. . . . And there the case rests, with Trainer Ben Jones and the Calumet Stable owner, Warren Wright, mulling over the matter.

This week will see the running of the Belmont Futurity, at six and one-half furlongs, with the pick of the nation's juveniles opposing the unbeaten Pavot. . . . Free For All, likewise unbeaten this year, has been retired.

Pavot, it is anticipated, will win this race and be retired, without going through the distance tests of the Pimlico Futurity and the Walden Stakes later in the season. . . . If Pavot wins, he'll undoubtedly be the winter favorite for the Kentucky Derby.

Fairmount Corrects Betting Situation.

CORRECTIONS in Fairmount race track's approximate odds board refunds, made after races had been started and made necessary by errors of calculation, probably will be obviated by a plan which was put in operation last week. . . . Mutuel ticket windows now are closed during the parade to the post, when the field arrives within 100 yards of the starting gate.

Under this system the time occupied in the remaining walk to the starting stalls and the short delay at the post will afford sufficient time for calculators to post the final payoff odds accurately before the horses have been sent away.

In several instances prior to the inauguration of the new system corrections in the odds had to be made during the running of the race because wagers were accepted right up to the post time. Then, in event the field was sent away almost immediately, the final approximate odds could not be calculated before the racers were off.

New Season for State Squirrel Hunters in 1945

JEFFERSON CITY, Sept. 25 (AP).—Foxes—accused of killing nearly $4,000,000 worth of Missouri poultry and livestock last year—must risk a longer hunting season next winter.

The State Conservation Commission last Saturday added two months and a half to the open season on gray foxes and relaxed trapping rules on all foxes in response to a plea by the Missouri Farmers' Association.

A. D. Sappington of Columbia, MFA attorney, told the commission a survey by the Federal Crop Reporting Service showed foxes killed 2,824,629 chickens, 103,170 turkeys, 14,520 lambs and 52,480 pigs in 1943 at a total loss to Missouri farmers of $3,837,625.

He argued foxes have grown too numerous under the commission's protection policy which permits them to be killed only from Dec. 1 to Jan. 15.

So the commission set a hunting season of Dec. 1-March 31 on gray foxes, but retained the Dec. 1-Jan. 15 period on red foxes. The trapping season was unchanged, but rules were liberalized to permit trap setting anywhere except on open trails.

The commission also added a new squirrel hunting season of Nov. 10-30 to the present season of June 1-Oct. 1, and authorized use of trammel nets by commercial fishermen.

Hodge Captures Veterans' Title

RIVER FOREST, Ill., Sept. 25 (AP).—Karl Hodge of St. Louis won the singles title of the Western veterans' tennis tournament by defeating Jacob Greenberg of Chicago in straight sets, 6-2, 6-4, here yesterday.

Hodge Saturday teamed with Dr. S. G. Walters, also of St. Louis, to defeat defending champions Art Kaiser and Fred Wittleder of River Forest, 7-5, 6-3, for the doubles crown.

Central Catholic Loses, Coyle Wins In Football Games

St. Louis district high school football teams broke even in their out-of-town games yesterday, Coyle High of Kirkwood defeating St. Vincent of Perryville, 27 to 0, and Central Catholic, Preparatory League co-champion, losing to Notre Dame High at Quincy, Ill., 20 to 14.

Bob Marks accounted for two of the Coyle touchdowns, John Collins scored another, while Joe Linkogel registered the fourth tally and kicked the three extra points.

Central Catholic scored both of its touchdowns on forward passes, one being a 32-yard heave from Dick Wellmuenster to Ritchie Sullivan. Jack Finnegan starred for Quincy, sparking the attack and counting one touchdown.

Basketball Coach Dies.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Sept. 25 (AP).—Alfred C. (Allie) Seelbach, 46, who coached the Canisius College basketball team for the past 11 seasons to bring the Griffins national recognition, died today. Seelbach was stricken with a back ailment this summer.

QUICK AID FOR 1,200,000 IN WARSAW TO BE NEEDED ON LIBERATION, POLE SAYS

By EDWARD P. MORGAN

The Chicago Daily News—Post-Dispatch Special Cable. Copyright, 1944.

LONDON, Sept. 25.

A POLISH Government-in-Exile official here said today that the problem of administering relief to some 1,200,000 civilians in Warsaw, once the capital has been liberated, would be tremendous and he was worried whether medical supplies and food could be delivered to them quickly enough.

The dangers of disease and starvation must be confronted, he said, and winter will complicate these emergencies. Delivery of Allied airborne supplies has been of help to Gen. Bor's home army, but thus far it has been impossible to do much to alleviate the suffering of the populace.

Much will depend on what supplies Marshal Konstantin K. Rokossovsky's advancing army will be able to spare and what emergency organization the Poles and Russians, between them, will be able to set up in Warsaw. The Russians, as well as the British and Americans, already have made airborne contributions to Bor's meager stocks.

POLES IN LONDON FACE NEW CRISIS OVER COMMANDER

States and Britain probably would lose what remaining interest they have in the Polish London government and this intra-Polish quarrel over legitimacy and sovereignty.

When Mikolajczyk was in Russia early in August for conferences with Marshal Stalin, Sosnkowski's group fought desperately to prevent an agreement.

Sosnkowski's critics attribute his order to Gen. Bor, Sosnkowski's lieutenant in the Warsaw underground, to revolt against the German rule in Warsaw beginning Aug. 1 to a determination to break up the Mikolajczyk negotiations in Moscow and to embarrass Russian relations with the Allies.

Mission Failed.

Whatever Sosnkowski's motives, Mikolajczyk's mission to Moscow was unsuccessful.

Sosnkowski seems to have thought that it would be better for his cause to have the capital of Poland liberated by a Polish patriot uprising just as the Russians were entering the city than to have Warsaw liberated by Russian military operations.

Sosnkowski's propagandists alleged on Aug. 14 that "Premier Stalin as well as the British and American high command in London had promised to send aid to the ill-armed Polish forces and that detailed plans for the delivery of arms and the bombing of German strongholds had been dispatched to Moscow."

The Russians said this was an outright lie, that they were not notified of Sosnkowski's intentions to order such a rising and that Sosnkowski had no reason to believe that the Russians would modify their strategy to come to the rescue of his dupes. His charges have not to my knowledge been confirmed by American and British military authorities.

The strategy of the Russians, like that of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower in Italy and France, was not to make early and head-on attacks on such key positions as Rome, Paris or Warsaw, but to make those positions untenable to the Germans by encirclement. This is far less costly and more effective.

Flyers Sacrificed.

The Russians went right on with their operations to the north and south of Warsaw and in Romania and Bulgaria despite Sosnkowski's cries for an immediate attack on Warsaw. They are said to have refused to permit their bases to be used for makeshift Allied attempts to help Sosnkowski's victims out of their agony as the Germans shot down poorly armed, poorly led patriots and burned an estimated third of Warsaw.

British and Polish flyers in the Royal Air Force thus had to fly 900 miles to drop arms to the doomed Warsaw Partisans. The Germans brought down at least 27 planes. At least half of the planes engaged in this politically necessitated mission failed to return to their bases.

Sosnkowski showed his ingratitude by issuing a statement Sept. 4 accusing the Allies of "abandoning" his followers. Sneering at Allied "arguments about gains and losses" in the Warsaw relieving operation Sosnkowski said "the loss of 27 planes over Warsaw (not the total Allied loss) in dropping aid to the Patriots means very little to the Allied Air Forces who have at present more than 10,000 planes of all types at their disposal."

The fact that American, British and Russian forces were using those planes in co-ordinated efforts to smash Germany was overlooked by the Polish politician in his chagrin at the failure of his coup and the impending liberation of Warsaw by Russian armies headed by a Polish-born Russian marshal and Polish armies headed by a Polish general (Berling) opposed to Sosnkowski's politics.

The patriots who perished futilely in Warsaw were probably the most favorably disposed toward Sosnkowski of any Poles remaining in Poland. The General's miscalculation thus relatively increased the number of Poles in Poland favorably inclined towards Polish collaboration with Russia and further weakened the prestige of the Polish Government-in-Exile.

Match Story.

An American officer watching a movie on a Southwest Pacific island, where soldiers maintain perimeter defenses against thousands of by-passed Japanese soldiers, touched off the flame and offered his lighter in response to a "Gotta match?" request from another film fan.

Ten minutes later the officer quietly arose and wandered off. He came back quickly with two armed guards.

The neighbor who had asked for the match was a Japanese soldier who had slipped into the outdoor movie arena.

JAP ATROCITY STORIES TRUE, SAYS SERGEANT

Published Accounts of Mistreatment of Yanks Conservative, Missourian Asserts.

Accounts of Japanese mistreatment of American soldiers in the Philippines which have shocked newspaper readers have been "very conservative," Sgt. Howard T. Chrisco of Salem, Mo., said in a letter yesterday at a meeting of the Association for Americans Interned by Japan.

"Stories you read about the March of Death are true," he wrote. "Eight boys escaped with me, but many more aren't coming back."

Sgt. Chrisco escaped from a prison camp and hid in the Philippine hills for 11 months before making his way to Australia. He said he could not reveal how his escape was effected. He was scheduled to address yesterday's meeting at Central Library, but was unable to attend, being confined to a hospital at Bowie, Tex.

St. Louisans interned in the Zentsuji prisoner of war camp near Tokyo have gained weight and are in good health, according to letters read by relatives at the meeting. A few prisoners inclosed snapshots to bear out their statements. Some of the internees told of receiving Christmas presents sent on the liner Gripsholm last December.

Messages received from St. Louisans interned in the Philippines were "noncommittal and not very encouraging," it was reported, although two prisoners sent postcards on which they checked the notation, "condition is fine."

TWO BOYS ARRESTED, ADMIT BREAKING INTO 11 HOMES

Two boys, 10 and 12 years old, were being held for investigation in the St. Louis County Juvenile Detention Home after they admitted breaking into 11 homes in Richmond Heights, one in Brentwood and one in Clayton.

Richmond Heights police arrested the boys Saturday night near the home of Paul Ellis, 1521 Hawthorne place, from which two toy soldier's helmets and a handkerchief were taken. The boys then pointed out, from a police automobile, other homes they had entered. The articles taken were of little value.

They admitted taking from a Brentwood home two watches which they gave concession operators at a carnival at Grand boulevard and Laclede avenue in exchange for rides. The watches were recovered there.

Eight of Petain Cabinet Among 1100 Arrested in France.

PARIS, Sept. 25 (AP).—The French Ministry of the Interior has disclosed the arrests of 1100 additional men and women on charges of collaboration, including eight former Petain Cabinet members apprehended last month in the vicinity of Vichy.

A roundup yesterday netted 500 persons, including a beautiful young woman described as a drug addict, who served as a personal escort to Heinrich Himmler when the Gestapo chief visited Paris, the ministry said.

Listed as under arrest were former Vichy Minister Jacques Benoist-Mechin and Col. Georges Lelong, described as a member of Joseph Darnand's militia, who led opposition to the Maquis in the Haute Savoie Hills; former Police Director Andre Parmentier and Phillippe Renaudin, former Secretary General of Health.

CURTIN SEES NO PROSPECT OF EARLY DEFEAT OF JAPAN

CANBERRA, Sept. 25 (AP).—Prime Minister John Curtin said in a broadcast today he could give no hopeful assessment pointing to an early conclusion of the Pacific War.

He said that stresses on Australia would double or treble when the Allied forces fighting Japan reached the massive proportions upon which President Roosevelt and Churchill have agreed.

RUSSIANS X-RAY BEARING STRAINS IN METALS AT WORK

The Chicago Daily News—Post-Dispatch Special Radio. Copyright, 1944.

MOSCOW, Sept. 25.—An X-ray apparatus using an exposure of one-millionth of a second and capable of photographing the strain on a bearing in an engine in motion has been perfected by two young physicists of the Institute of the Soviet Academy of Sciences, L. Altschuler and V. Zukkerman.

"For years scientists have been perfecting methods of investigating the internal structure of metals," they explained, "but usually their samples have been X-rayed in the static state, and we wanted to record the performance of metals at work."

The Altschuler-Zukkerman apparatus operates on ordinary electrical current and so can be used in any factory laboratory.

COTTON PUSHES UP $5 A BALE, WHEAT, OTHER GRAINS 5C ON WFA PARITY PAYMENT PLAN

NEW YORK, Sept. 25 (AP).—Announcement that the WFA would purchase the 1944 cotton crop at parity brought in a wave of trade and commission house buying in cotton futures today.

Prices soared the permissible daily trading limit of $5 per bale as the market moved upwards to the full parity level or better of 22.13 cents a pound for 15-16 inch middling cotton. Part of the gains were pared by heavy profit taking and hedge selling with the market confused.

The closing market was $3.05 to $4.75 a bale higher.

Trade and commission houses bid spiritedly for contracts and there was active covering by shorts in meeting the conditions created by the Saturday night announcement of Marvin Jones, WFA Administrator, that the Government agency would purchase from farmers at parity prices all cotton of the 1944 crop for which a loan schedule had been announced and which may be placed in acceptable storage.

Under rules of the Cotton Exchange, the maximum fluctuation permitted in any single day is $5 a bale.

Futures closed $3.05 to $4.75 a bale higher.

CHICAGO, Sept. 25 (AP).—There was no wheat and rye for sale in late futures trading today and prices were up five cents from the previous close, the limit permitted for one day's trading.

Frenzied short covering was apparent through most of the day in the wheat pit, following announcement of the War Food Administration's decision to pay farmers parity prices less carrying charges for 1944 crop wheat under the loan May, 1945.

All other markets reacted quickly to the trade in wheat. All corn deliveries but the December climbed to the limit, then receded slightly under selling on the bulge. The trade in oats was heavy and prices at one time reached the limit, then dropped back under the pressure of profit-taking.

All deliveries of wheat at Minneapolis and Kansas City also advanced the permissible limit of 5 cents and held there. At both points the trade was light.

At the close all grain futures except December corn were up the limit of five cents. December corn was 4½ @ ⅝ higher than Saturday's close. Closing prices for the December contracts, all bid except for corn, were: Wheat, $1.61⅝; corn, $1.15¾ @ ⅞; oats, 64⅛; rye, $1.05⅛, and barley, $1.04¾.

Trade sources said the Government action practically guarantees an average of $1.50 per bushel to all wheat producers at country points.

Directors of the Chicago Board of Trade, at a special meeting before the opening, decided to permit continued trading in wheat despite the fact that Government purchases will materially reduce amounts available for delivery on futures contracts. The directors made no changes in the daily 5-cent limits.

Announcement of the new Government move was made by the War Food Administration which said it would pay parity, less carrying charges to the end of the storage year, on all unredeemed 1944 wheat under the loan May 1, 1945.

WFA Administrator Marvin Jones said Commodity Credit Corporation would do the buying and that purchase prices CCC will pay for wheat in store at terminal and subterminal elevators will be advanced from time to time.

The program, to start as soon as arrangements can be made and to continue through next June 30, was said to be an attempt to follow instructions set down in a recent Act of Congress which directed the Government to take all lawful means to assure parity prices for farm commodities.

The wheat parity price is the 1944 loan rate plus 15 cents a bushel, Jones said, adding that the carrying charge to the end of the storage year will be deducted.

ST. LOUIS CASH GRAIN.

MERCHANTS' EXCHANGE, Sept. 25.—In the cash grain market today wheat was 4½ @ 6s higher and oats 3 @ 4c.

GRASS-FED CATTLE RECEIPTS HERE DOUBLE YEAR AGO

NATIONAL STOCKYARDS, Ill., Sept. 25 (AP).—About twice as many grass-fed cattle are being shipped to market here than at this time last year, the Office of Distribution of the War Food Administration announced today.

The reason, officials said, was the scarcity of feed, causing ranchers to reduce the herds. The price is about the same as last year, ranging from $9.50 for common to $14 for good Western grassers.

Heavy shipments began at the start of the grassers shipping season, the middle of August, and the WFA said they will probably continue until the end of the season in November.

NATIONAL STOCKYARDS, Ill., Sept. 25 (WFA) (AP.)—Hogs, total receipts, 13,500, salable 11,500.

Active and steady.

Good and choice 150-240 lbs $14.70; heavier weights and sows $13.95; thin sows $13; 120-140 lbs $13.25 @ 14.25; 90-110 lbs $11.75 @ 12.75; stags $13.25 @ 13.95; boars $6.50 @ 9. Clearance complete. Shippers took 3000.

The Cattle Market.

All classes slow, steady to weak with Friday.

Good steers $13.75 @ 15.25, including 10 cars medium and good western $13.75 @ 14.10 medium steers $9 @ 13.25; common $9 @ 10.25; good heifers and mixed yearlings $12 @ 15.25; medium $10.50 @ 13; common $8 @ 10; common and medium beef cows $7.75 @ 10.50; good to $12; canners and cutters $5.25 @ 7.50; good beef bulls $12; medium and good sausage bulls $8.25 @ 10.25; vealers 25c lower; good and choice $14; medium and good $11.50 @ 12.75; stocker and feeder steers in light supply; medium and good about steady at $9 @ 11.50. MODEST GAINS IN LEADERS OF SEVERAL BOND GROUPS

NEW YORK, Sept. 25 (AP).—A modest advance was scored by leading rails, industrials and utilities in today's bond market. Trading was more active.

Late gainers included bonds of the Seaboard, New Orleans, Texas & Mexico, Northern Pacific and Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron.

A sizable number of reorganization and other type rail loans moved up fractions to around a point as against a small number of unchanged or lower positions. Investment rated industrials and utilities attracted selective support and Governments were quiet but steady.

Prominent on the upward move were bonds of the Missouri Pacific, New Haven, St. Paul, Baltimore & Ohio, Rock Island, Illinois Central, Lehigh Valley, New York Central, St. Louis-San Francisco and Southern Pacific.

In the higher priced division Standard Oil (N. J.) 3s sold at 103, Youngstown Sheet & Tube 3¼s at 105, Hudson County Gas 5s at 116½, National Distillers 3½s at 102⅝ and Ohio Edison 4s at 104¼.

The market held up well in the final hour, although there were some cases of declines from the day's best levels as a result of profit-taking. Central Pacific 5s ended up 1¼ at 89¼, Monon 6s were up 1¼ at 75 and Big Four 4½s added ⅞ at 70¼. Delaware & Hudson 4s were under water along with National Steel 3s.

Foreign dollar bonds moved narrowly.

SOARING COMMODITIES GIVE STOCKS STRENGTH

NEW YORK, Sept. 25 (AP).—Soaring commodities, responding to Washington price boosting moves, imparted some of their strength to the stock market today and leading issues pushed up fractions to more than a point, several to peaks for the year or longer.

Rails and carrier equipments were especially popular from the start with dealings livelier than in most recent sessions. Aircrafts and motors eventually joined the swing while industrials generally tilted upward. There were slowdowns after midday, but gains were at or around the best near the close.

Transactions amounted to 792,590 shares, compared with 546,460 shares last Friday.

Of the 846 issues traded in today, 492 were higher, 165 lower and 18 unchanged. Thirty-one made new 1944 highs and none new 1944 low.

Factors in the Market.

Individual situations and suggestions that the war in Europe might drag on long enough to obviate reconversion troubles at home served to attract bidders. Political wishful thinking also was a factor. Numerous customers held aloof, however, on the idea the market had failed to discount many problems which would arise with the return of peace.

At tops for 1944 or longer were American Locomotive, Lima Locomotive, Grumman Aircraft and Consolidated Vultee. In the rising contingent were Beech Aircraft, Lockheed, Santa Fe, Southern Railway, Great Northern, Southern Pacific, United States Steel, Bethlehem, General Motors, Chrysler, Sears-Roebuck, Schenley, United Aircraft, Savage Arms, Johns-Manville, J. C. Penney, Western Union "A," American Smelting and American Telephone.

New York cotton rose $5 a bale and approaching the finish was up $3 to $4.65 a bale. At Chicago all grains ended up the permissible limit of 5 cents a bushel except December corn which was ahead 4½c to 4⅝c.

Trend on the Curb.

In the curb higher tendencies were exhibited by Baldwin Locomotive warrants, Hazeltine, Brewster Aero, American Light, Cuban Atlantic Sugar and Glen Alden Coal.

Farm staples received their main spur from the WFA announcement over the week end that the administration would purchase at parity all cotton of the 1944 crop for which a loan schedule had been arranged and which may be placed in acceptable storage. It was added that wheat also would be bought at parity figures and that the CCC buying rates for this cereal in storage, in terminal and subterminal elevators would be "advanced from time to time" during the season.

Helpful to securities was Secretary Morgenthau's Boston comment that consideration was being given to lower taxes for individuals and corporations after Germany's collapse because of the drop expected in armament expenses. The outlook for heavy demand from abroad for locomotives and other railway material again aided stocks in this group.

News in the Market.

Holders of tobacco shares were heartened by the War Food Administration announcement that cigarette manufacturers would be alloted 624,000,000 pounds of flue-cured leaf from the 1944 crop instead of the previously allocated 578,000,000 pounds. The increase was based on a larger production estimate of this tobacco by the agricultural department.

ICKES SAYS, DEWEY THREW IN DIAPER, NOW TOSSES IN SPONGE

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 25 (AP).—The Democratic administration does not propose to be a party "to any policy of economic isolationism while giving lip service to political co-operation between nations," Interior Secretary Harold L. Ickes said yesterday.

Asserting that Dewey "if he means what he says in his speeches, is now one of the most ardent New Dealers of them all," Ickes went on:

"Four years ago I observed that Mr. Dewey had thrown his diaper into the ring. At Los Angeles on Friday night he threw the sponge after his diaper," Ickes said, for having upbraided "the New Deal for not being New Dealish enough."

DON'T SCRUB! Sani-Flush REALLY Cleans

You want your toilet bowl to sparkle—but don't do the job the hard way. Messy work is unnecessary. Just use Sani-Flush twice a week. Removes ugly stains and the constantly forming film that holds toilet germs.

Don't confuse Sani-Flush with ordinary soaps and cleansers. It cleans chemically—the quick, easy, sanitary way. Removes a cause of toilet odors—even cleans the hidden trap. You don't need a special disinfectant. Sani-Flush does not injure toilet connections. (See directions on can.) Sold everywhere—two handy sizes.

FATHER OF PLAN SEES BIGGEST GLIDER HERE

Col. F. R. Dent Visits Laister-Kauffmann Plant Building Experimental Craft.

Col. F. R. Dent, father of glider development in the Army Air Forces, yesterday made an unofficial inspection of the Laister-Kauffmann Aircraft Corporation plant, 5660 Oakland avenue, where this country's largest experimental glider, plans for which were initiated by Col. Dent two years ago, is being constructed.

Details of the huge motorless aircraft are secret, but John W. Laister, president of the company, said indications point toward it being the forerunner of large freight gliders planned for the postwar era.

Col. Dent stopped in St. Louis while en route to a combat zone after a month's convalescent leave in this country. While serving as command pilot of a Liberator bomber wing in England, he was wounded by flak over Saarbrucken last June 28. His home is in Kerrville, Tex.

When the Army embarked on its experimental glider program early in 1941, Col. Dent was placed in charge and became the Army's first glider pilot. A West Point graduate and an aeronautical engineer, he drew up preliminary designs for a troop-carrying glider which resulted in development of the now famous CG-4, used with such success in the airborne invasions of Burma, Sicily, Normandy, Southern France and Holland.

Col. Dent, having seen gliders grow into a vital arm of the Army Air Forces, transferred to heavy bombardment early in 1943 and went overseas in May, 1943. He was presented the Legion of Merit for his part in developing gliders and the Silver Star for gallantry in action in the first daylight raid by heavy bombers on Berlin last March.

MAN GIVEN 2 WEEKS TO FIND JOB FOR SUPPORT OF FAMILY

Andrew J. Brown, 5027 Washington boulevard, was ordered to find employment within two weeks by Judge Louis Comerford of the Court of Criminal Correction today, or serve a year in City Workhouse on a charge of failing to provide for his wife and 17-month-old child.

Brown, who said he was an advertising salesman, was sentenced today, but was paroled on condition he find work within the two-week period. His wife, Mrs. Nada Flynn Brown, 4015 De Tonty street, testified she was unable to support herself and the child on her $18-a-week salary as a department store clerk.

When arrested Sept. 14, police said, Brown told them he had been unable to get a job as an advertising salesman since last Dec. 29, but considered himself unqualified for any other kind of work.

AUTOMOBILES WANTED

WHAT'S IT REALLY WORTH?
This ad appeared in the Post-Dispatch Jan. 20, 1942:
"1939 Chevrolet Sedan—Perfect condition; radio, heater; 15,000 actual miles; for sale by original owner; $250 cash."
That was two years ago when prices were based on new car values less normal depreciation.
Today that car would sell for $640 according to OPA ceiling prices.
It's time for you to decide what your car will be worth as soon as new cars are available.
DON'T KID YOURSELF
It won't be based on today's prices. It will be based on its new value less depreciation for its age.
If you want to cash in on the top value, do it today!
AUTO EXCHANGE
3710 S. Kingshighway. LO. 1808.

SPOT CASH FOR YOUR CAR

Movie Wilson

Knox Is a Writer As Well as Actor

By Sidney Skolsky

HOLLYWOOD.

ALEXANDER KNOX'S greatest surprise was not that he was selected to play "Wilson," but that he had to take singing and dancing lessons for the role. Darrly Zanuck, in trying to cast the picture, remembered the actor who had played the role of the curate in "This Above All." Previously he had played in Warner's "The Sea Beast." But after each picture he was not signed and he returned to the Broadway stage. When Zanuck found him, he had just finished playing the Nazi in "None Shall Escape." Harry Cohn who liked his performance, had placed him under contract. He was loaned to Zanuck. "If he can be made to resemble Wilson, the job is his," said Zanuck. "I know he can play it." The make-up department went to work on him—and he was "Wilson."

ALEXANDER KNOX

YET, HIS ONLY similarity to Woodrow Wilson is the fact that he, too, is the son of a Presbyterian minister. He was born in Strathroy, Ontario, Canada, on Jan. 16 1907. He attended local Canadian public and high schools, then went to Western Ontario University. He received valuable training from his aunt, a celebrated dramatic reader.

He is five feet ten and a half inches tall, weighs 150 pounds, has dark brown hair, blue eyes, and likes to go for long walks, especially in the woods. It was there that he practiced speaking, declaiming with no one to bother him.

HE MIGHT HAVE BEEN an author if he hadn't turned to acting. He wrote reviews and criticisms for the London Times and Manchester Guardian. He has written a novel, "Bride in Question," and a play, "Old Master," which was performed at the Malvern Festival.

He says the most unforgettable character he ever knew is George Bernard Shaw. He is disappointed that Shaw never insulted him.

HIS FAVORITE MEAL is breakfast, but he cannot eat before ten in the morning. He has installed a hot plate in his dressing room trailer, and when working, makes his own breakfast between scenes. He generally has fruit, cereal, eggs, toast and coffee. For lunch, he usually orders another breakfast—ham and eggs. He says he likes to see ham on a plate, where it belongs.

Ha lives alone in a small furnished apartment in a swanky apartment house where he is meticulously neat about everything but emptying ashtrays. His pet extravagance is Virginia cigarettes. He is very reserved. He describes himself as the kind of person waiters ignore.

He comes on the set fully prepared, knowing his job and ready to listen to suggestions. His performance is studied, worked out almost like a mathematical problem, with perfection of acting technique. Yet he accepts readily any suggested change in interpretation.

HE BELIEVES stage acting is completely different from motion picture technique and expresses it in this manner: In the movies, the whole thing is a dress rehearsal. The actor never gets to an opening night."

He has no distinguishing gesture, but looked up Wilson's for the picture. He found Wilson had the habit of fumbling with his watch chain. "I couldn't do that," he said, "because as an actor it would just make me look like a self-conscious ham."

The next picture scheduled for him is Columbia's production of James Hilton's "And Now Goodbye." He would like, some day, to play the role of Charles Lamb whose story, he is convinced, would make an excellent picture.

HE PLAYS THE PIANO, and chess, and "the worst game of tennis ever played." He plays Bach, Brahms and Beethoven like a professional pianist, but is having difficulties with boogie-woogie.

A story he tells on himself is when "Wilson" was on location at the Biltmore Theater. He took a few minutes off to drop into the hotel coffee shop for lunch. He removed his glasses, but didn't have time to change his wardrobe of striped trousers and long-tailed dinner coat. He sneaked, rather than walked, toward a secluded table, and thought he had made it without causing comment until a high feminine voice chirped, "Look at the dignified man in the zoot suit!"

He sleeps in a large bed with the windows open and always wears pajamas, for as he puts it, "I always like to have pants on."

He will tell you, "I didn't know very much about women, but I'm enthusiastic about them."

WOUNDED TAKE COVER IN HOLLAND

Wounded British soldiers take cover in a grassy ditch during a German attack Saturday on a convoy (in background) on the Eindhoven-Niimegen road, in Holland, the "rescue route" over which reinforcements and supplies were dispatched to airborne troops trapped in the Arnhem pocket. The attackers were driven off and the convoy proceeded.

Smoke pours from an underground Japanese hideout in the beach area of Angaur, in the Palau Islands, as grenades explode and American riflemen stand by, ready to pick off any enemy soldiers who attempt to flee. Despite heavy naval shelling and aerial bombing, some Japanese clung to these defenses. The Yanks mopped up the island in four days.

FAMILY PROGRAM AT PARK

At left, youngsters participating in the finale of the evening recreational program for families at Tower Grove Park yesterday are shown on the "junior commando" obstacle course. Standing at right is John Winklmeier, who directed "commando" training. At right, some of the 144 men and women taking part in a "mass workout" rise from sitting to standing positions, under direction of W. C. Eberhardt of St. Louis University, in charge of conditioning classes. Miss Bernice E. Gurney, park superintendent, said 405 family groups were participants in the program, which began June 19.

Social Problems

By Emily Post

THE mother of the bride-groom writes me "My son was married at his army post and there were no members of the family present. The bride's mother now sends me a batch of announcements and asks me to send them to our friends. Shouldn't these have been mailed from where her family lives?"

In my opinion it would have been more usual had her mother sent them, but there is no impropriety in having them sent by you. In fact, your relatives and intimate friends, seeing your handwriting and the postmark of your home address, would feel that they were more personal, than receiving announcements in a strange handwriting from a strange address. On occasion, moreover, if your name is not unusual, nor your son named Junior, it could happen that old friends who do not live in your town, might not recognize your son's name.

DEAR MRS. POST: I intend to visit a relative of my fiance and would like to know what obligations I shall have as a guest. How can I repay this relative? I doubt that I could invite her to visit us.

Answer: You are under no obligation further than being agreeable and appreciative while you are her guest. Afterwards, write her a bread-and-butter letter and tell her how much you enjoyed your visit. It is neither necessary nor expected that you return her invitation.

DEAR MRS. POST: Is it wrong to go to a church wedding when one was not sent an invitation?

Answer: Unless a general invitation is given to all members of the congregation, or general word has gone out that everyone will be welcome, one should not go.

Economical Menus for Tomorrow

By Meta Given

ONE of the best ways to use two or two and one-fourth cups of blueberries — the amount that would be left from the pint box suggested in yesterday's menus, would be in a pie with a lattice top. For the most part, lattice-top crusts are best adapted to cooked fruit pies, but fruits that are as easily cooked as blueberries will behave well in this kind of crust. Mix the washed, drained berries with the sugar and flour and pour into the pastry-lined pan. Shake to obtain a level surface. This is necessary if the pastry is to brown evenly. Drizzle lemon juice over the berries. Have plain pastry rolled out to the same thickness as lower crust, to prevent top pastry from soaking up juice, and in a rectangle about six by 11 inches. Cut in half-inch strips lengthwise. Brush edge of lower crust with water or milk and lay strips parallel to each other across the pie, keeping them at least an inch apart. Do not press down edges. Now fold every other strip back to the center of the pie, and lay on a strip across center perpendicular to the first series of strips. Unfold the first strips back into position and fold back other strips to allow space to lay on another strip of pastry an inch from the last strip placed. Proceed until the entire pie is covered with these interlocking strips. Trim off in the usual way. Brush edge of pastry with milk or an egg wash, then lay twisted strips of dough around the edge to give a ropelike effect. Bake pie in usual way.

MENUS FOR TUESDAY

Breakfast.

Sliced sugared pears with top milk, four to six pears, chilled and sliced; hot oatmeal, four generous servings; whole wheat toast, eight slices.

Luncheon.

Western sandwich, cook in one tablespoon melted margarine, one-fourth cup chopped onion, two tablespoons green pepper, two slices chopped luncheon ham, for five minutes. Scramble four to six eggs in same pan. Serve on eight slices white toast. Sliced tomatoes, four large; peanut butter cookies, one-half remainder; fresh stewed plums, one pound fresh plums.

Dinner.

Veal marjoram, one pound veal shoulder cut for stew. Dredge veal in one-fourth cup flour and brown on both sides in hot shortening or drippings. When nicely browned, season with one-half teaspoon paprika and one-half teaspoon marjoram, salt and pepper to taste. Add one-half cup water and one cup sour cream. Cover tightly and cook very slowly until done, about 30 minutes. Remove to hot platter and make sour cream gravy by adding milk or thickening as needed. Mashed potatoes, two pounds; fresh buttered broccoli, one and one-half pounds fresh; grated carrot and onion salad, grate four large carrots and one onion. Mix with peppy French dressing and serve on lettuce cups; rye rolls, eight bought; blueberry pie, have pastry for double crust pie (two cups flour, one teaspoon salt, one-half to two-thirds cup shortening, six tablespoons ice water). Fill seven-inch pie plate with pastry. Mix two to two and one-fourth cups blueberries, three tablespoons flour, three-fourths cup sugar and few grains salt. Sprinkle with two tablespoons lemon juice. Cover with lattice top crust. Bake in hot oven, 450 degrees F., for 15 minutes. Reduce heat to 325 degrees F. and continue baking until berries are thoroughly cooked, about 20 minutes. Butter or fortified margarine used on all breads. Include in today's menus, milk to drink: eight cups for children, three cups for adults.

My Neighbor Says:

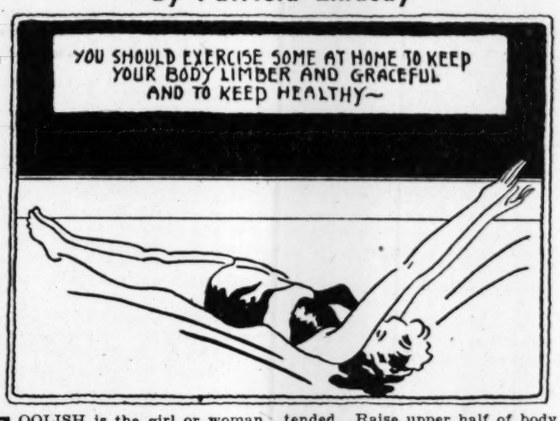

The cooking of bacon is an art. It requires slow cooking, careful watching and removal from the heat when it is just crisp, but not brittle.

Patches of dirt that will not come off floors by dry mopping may be cleaned by rubbing lightly with fine steel wool moistened with turpentine.

Men's shirts may be made into aprons or children's sun suits when they are no longer useful for their original purpose.

Exercise for Beauty

By Patricia Lindsay

FOOLISH is the girl or woman who neglects to get some exercise each week. Even if you can take no holiday, you should exercise some at home to keep your body limber and graceful and to keep healthy.

There is always a part of the day or evening when you can exercise in privacy on the floor of your bedroom. Spread a blanket and over it an old sheet and then stretch and kick and turn and roll until you banish all minor aches and feel like a new person. A tepid bath or shower afterward helps greatly to keep you serene for hours.

Lying face downward, bend elbows and place your hands with fingers turned toward body, palm downward, at shoulder level. Keep your hips on mat and legs extended. Raise upper half of body from mat about six inches and sort of "walk" with your hands (right, then left) in a wide semi-circle. First toward right then back and toward left. Relax. Repeat three times. (See illustration.)

SECOND EXERCISE: Lie on your back, relaxed and heavy. Extend your arms up in the air. Reach with your right fingers as high as you can by lifting right shoulder off the mat. Lower shoulder, then reach with your left fingers. Repeat six times and then go limp. Repeat six times more.

THIRD EXERCISE: Still lying on your back do this: Clasp your hands behind your head, elbows touching mat. Push your elbows upward and forward and let your hands lift your head and pull it forward. Give it several jerky tugs. Relax and repeat three times.

My Day -o- By Eleanor Roosevelt

HYDE PARK, Sunday.

IN Oswego, N. Y., the other day, a local newspaper publisher told us with some pride about the rumor clinic which his paper had established there.

As he described it, the clinic works out very well. For example, when cigarettes are hard to buy in town, and someone begins to ask whether the shortage is due to the fact that they are all being bought by the refugees at Fort Ontario, this item is published in the paper and the real answer is given. The real answer, of course, is that the cigarette shortage exists almost everywhere, and is not due to any local condition!

The Oswego advisory committee feels that the newspaper clinic has stopped many rumors which might have caused friction between the people of the city and the people living in the refugee shelter.

I can't help thinking that something of this kind in every community in the United States might be wonderfully useful. For instance, a friend of mine who is traveling around the country tells me that people come up to him constantly and say: "We know that you are a Democrat. You must be so concerned about the President's health. We hear that he is desperately ill."

When the President went on his recent trip, which took in Hawaii and the Aleutians, I accompanied him as far as San Diego. I had just returned, when I received a letter telling me that the writer heard the President had been very ill in San Diego, and had been taken on board a ship to be operated on!

For security reasons, at the time, I could say only that I knew this tale was untrue. Now that he has been to Quebec and back, I hope everyone realizes that the people who spread these rumors are not really concerned about the President's health. They are working to create an impression which they think will serve their interests.

Of course, I realize that it is easier to spread rumors now, when a certain amount of secrecy has to be maintained because of wartime conditions. But I think rumor clinics in every town and village would help to break us of the habit of repeating things which we are not really sure are true.

It is said that gossip is the vice of women. Yet I have lived nearly 60 years, during which I have spent a good part of my time with men, and I have not found that they are any less quick to repeat things about which they know little and which they have not verified. When it comes to gossip about people I have often wondered if the curiosity of the male members of the family was not one of the real reasons why the ladies gather their little items of scandal to retail at home!

OTHER PEOPLE'S GUESTS

YOU can regulate the flow of your own house guests but not that of your friends' house guests. Friends do not ask your permission before inviting house guests.

So you never know when friends will, without warning, announce that they are having house guests and they want you to come over and meet them. Having once met them, you realize it is up to you to entertain them.

But how are you going to work in the entertainment of your friends' house guests when you have a hair appointment on Monday, a dentist appointment on Tuesday, the wallpaperer is expected on Wednesday, the children are being equipped for school and every other minute of the week is taken up with committee meetings, volunteer service and similar essential tasks?

It would be mean not to entertain your friends' house guests, especially after you have been invited to meet them. And, furthermore, you no doubt are meeting them every day at the homes of other friends who do not put off making decisions and crash through with card parties, luncheons, dinners and teas.

While you are trying to make up your mind what to do for your friends' house guests and when to do it, they are perpetually hanging over you. You have a dreadful fear they may pick up and go before you get around to them. You go to sleep worrying about them; you dream about them; and, if you wake up in the night, you toss from side to side thinking about them.

After a few days of this anxiety and frustration you may come to the conclusion that your friends having house guests is more perplexing than if you were having house guests of your own. It would seem the least friends could do would be to warn you that they are contemplating house guests and ask if it will be all right with you.

MILLION FOR CHINESE RELIEF

NEW YORK, Sept. 25 (AP).—The National War Fund has appropriated an additional $1,582,380 for the quarter beginning Oct. 1 to meet emergency needs arising from recent Japanese drives into China, robot bombings in England and "critical conditions" in Greece.

The fund already had set aside a budget of $26,683,001 for work of its 22 member agencies during the three-month period. Of the additional allocation, one million dollars will go for relief in China.

CITY OFFICIALS VISITING ZOOS IN STUDY OF POSWAR PLANS

A group of city officials left today on a tour of Eastern and Mid-Western zoos in connection with plans for using the $4,375,000 allotted to zoo, park and playground improvements under the recently approved 63-million-dollar postwar public works program.

The group included Park Commissioner Palmer B. Baumes, George Vierheller, director of St. Louis Zoo, and Edwin Lemp, a member of the zoo's administrative board. They will visit New York, Washington, Philadelphia, Cleveland, Detroit and Chicago.

My OPINION

By MARTHA CARR

Dear Martha Carr:

WE are a group of five girls, all age 15. We have meetings every two weeks which always end between 9:30 and 10 p. m. and always in each other's homes by turns. Four of the girls' parents don't object to the meetings, but the parents of the fifth girl think the hour too late, or don't like the idea of our meetings in the homes by turn. At any rate they have begun to object to her attending the meetings. This girl is nice and we all like her, but perhaps because she's been babied, she seems much younger than the rest of us. We all feel sorry for her and have tried to make her feel like one of us. Do you think we should stick to her and try to gain her parents' confidence so they will cease to object to her coming to meetings? Or should we just drop her from the crowd? That would hurt her terribly.

THE 4 C's.

Letters intended for this column must be addressed to Martha Carr at the St. Louis Post-Dispatch. Mrs. Carr will answer all questions of general interest, but of course, cannot give advice on matters of a purely legal or medical nature. Those who do not care to have their letters published may enclose an addressed and stamped envelope for personal reply.

It is possible that the parents object not only to the hour, but feel that when their daughter's turn comes to entertain the club they will be greatly inconvenienced, for lack of space or the like, and object to her belonging when she will be unable to do her share. If you are sure that they have no reason to object to you girls, that your conduct is all it should be, why not let the girl know that one of you will take the club for her instead, when her turn comes? That would solve that. Then since her parents object to the lateness of the hour, agree to break up the meetings promptly at 9:15 and stick to it. All this, of course, providing you like the fifth girl well enough to want to upset your own plans to this extent. Personally I agree with her mother about the time, and think 9:15 should be quite late enough for girls of fifteen.

Dear Martha Carr:

I WORK IN A LARGE manufacturing plant. There are two women working in the office. One woman is past 40, her fiance was killed in World War I, and she has never married. I suppose she hasn't married because she didn't meet anyone else who appealed to her. But the fact that she is an "old maid" seems to worry the other woman very much. This woman is about 30 and has already divorced three husbands and is now out busily hunting Number Four. She is always asking questions of the first woman about her fiance, the circumstances of his death, etc. The older woman tries to get out of answering these questions which I suppose she considers her own personal business. So the younger one has decided she is going to find out all about this affair and says she is going to contact some of the other woman's relatives whom she has never met and get her story. What do you think of a person of this type, and how can she be stopped from prying into other people's personal affairs?

DISGUSTED.

It is probably quite difficult for a woman who apparently possesses little constancy, since she has loved and left three husbands, to understand the fidelity of a woman who has loved only one man for a lifetime. But whether she can understand the matter or not she has no right to pry and to try to intrude on the privacy of the older woman. If she actually tried to get information from relatives whom she does not know, she would doubtless and deservedly meet with rebuff. The only way to handle such a person is to learn to turn aside questions, answer them evasively, answer them not at all. Then if nothing helps a good "telling off" would be excusable under the circumstances. How about the older woman finding a job in an office where co-workers have some "bringings up" and mind their own affairs?

CASE RECORDS

By Dr. George W. Crane

CASE D-261: Draper M., aged 17, is a college student. "I have a terrible complex about street cars," he admitted one afternoon after class. "Since I live at home and must come to school each morning from a distance of five miles, it is necessary to use the street car. But I have some unaccountable fear of them. It is literally torture for me to go inside and sit on one of the seats. So I stand on the platform with the conductor, even on the worst winter days. Dr. Crane, am I crazy or what is wrong with me?"

FEAR CAUSES more human misery than cancer or any other organic ailment. In fact, the fear of cancer diminishes the happiness of tens of millions of Americans who will probably never have cancer. But they worry and fret and otherwise lessen their enjoyment of life, simply because they permit themselves to become slaves of this emotion. Draper has a fear of street cars. Hundreds of you readers write to me complaining of similar fears, but yours may pertain to trains or to going shopping alone, or to making a speech or playing a musical instrument before a crowd. Never surrender to these foolish types of fears that cannot be supported by logic. Instead, enshrine your brain as the captain and let your emotions serve as the crew. But never permit mutiny to occur!

DRAPER HAD BECOME car sick about ten years earlier after a trip to a carnival where he had gorged on soda pop, hot dogs, and other nicknacks. He couldn't get off the car in time to prevent his vomiting. The social humiliation thus "branded" this shy boy, so he now is being hampered in his proper use of street cars as a means of getting to college each morning. To cure these silly fears, it is helpful to think back to their origin, but even if you cannot remember a terrifying experience in early childhood, the procedure is otherwise the same. Second, reassure yourself by realizing that literally thousands of intelligent people have the same type of fear as yourself. If you are a victim of stuttering, for instance, just recall that Demosthenes and Moses, as well as the King of England and Churchill, are in the same boat with you. Third, boldly face your fear and go out of your way to meet your bugaboo. Don't flee from it, but resolutely attack! Wage an offensive campaign.

I ADVISED DRAPER to go into the middle of the street car and take a seat. Then when his heart begins to pound wildly, he can partially calm himself by doing something which will divert his attention. He should count his pulse for one minute, then rest 60 seconds, and repeat the process. Each pulse rate should be recorded on a little card. For variation, he can count his respiration rate, or see how long he can hold his breath. Or he can sketch the noses or ears of the people around him. Anything that diverts his attention and utilizes his mind, will help free himself from his fear. Send for my bulletin "How to Control the Emotions," inclosing a three-cent stamped envelope, plus a dime.

Tests Reveal Average Man In Poor Shape

By Logan Clendening, M. D.

Thirteen per cent of American men in a group of college age could not swim at all, and 64 per cent of them could not swim 50 yards. Three per cent of them could not chin themselves once. Twenty-six per cent could not chin themselves five times. Twenty-four per cent could not jump an obstacle waist high. Fifty per cent could not make the muscles of the abdomen hard enough to resist a fist pushed in by the examiner. Seventy-nine per cent could not lift the legs from the floor 20 times when lying on the back and then do 20 sit ups in succession.

These statements are almost unbelievable, considering this was a group of boys about 18 years of age. They did not belong to an underprivileged class. They were preparing to enter a state university. Somewhere along the line of their preliminary education they must have heard of mens senis in corpore sano. Yet there the flabby muscled, bedraggled specimens were.

EVEN I AT THE AGE of 60 and weighing over 200, having gone through five wars, prohibition, and three major financial depressions, with consequent damage to a good deal of my plumbing, can do those things. I did them yesterday. This is not offered boastfully. I am no Bernarr Macfadden, nor have I ever subscribed to the doctrines of the big muscle boys. I admit I fudged a little on the fifth chin, but that every boy in the United States, 18 years old and not actually crippled, should not be able to accomplish these stunts is shocking.

The experience was repeated even more strikingly by the draft boards. As of May 1, 1944, 22 million men between the ages of 18 and 37 have been examined and of these four million were rejected because of physical or mental defects. A great many of these were preventable and could have been prevented if the organized medical profession had been awake to its responsibilities and insisted on general public medical service instead of being pushed into it by the Murray-Wagner bill, and by other more comprehensive legislation which is bound to follow.

But, says the official report by Col. Rowntree, which I have before me, "Not only do the defects, deficiencies, disabilities, disorders and disease abound, but, in addition, many of the registrants were found to be pampered, soft, flabby and in need of conditioning. Special training in physical fitness was necessary which represented weeks of wasted effort which could have been avoided if every young man prior to induction had made himself physically fit."

NO WONDER THEN that the year beginning Sept. 1, 1944, has been designated "Physical Fitness Year." Put in operation by order of the President, and under the direction of various responsible agencies, a physical fitness program will be put into effect on a nation-wide basis.

This will only initiate a program which should go on indefinitely. "It must," as Col. Rowntree says, "become a part of our school programs at every level—elementary, secondary, advanced and adult. It must become a part of the personal hygiene and regimen of each individual expressed in habit."

Your Stars

WHAT TO EXPECT TOMORROW.
Sun in Libra.

General Tendencies—This seems a poor day to choose for unusual events of any kind, since the general trend of affairs is toward discord and conflict. You may be able to enjoy competitive sports tomorrow, or to win something which requires extra effort, but the easy and pleasant ways of peace and harmony are apparently not present. The best hours are early in the morning, before the full strength of the day's character can get into full swing.

If Tomorrow Is Your Birthday.

People who celebrate their birthdays tomorrow can look forward to a year of much event, and, if they are careful, they can avoid many of the unwanted circumstances which might visit those who saw no need to take special pains of any kind. During the remainder of 1944, be particularly accurate in your dealings with others; then no blame will return upon you. The most critical month of all will be next December, at which time you should avoid drastic moves or hasty decisions.

Tomorrow's Watchword — In reading ancient literature one is often struck by the emphasis placed upon certain numbers—numbers being the point of interest for tomorrow. Thus the Bible speaks of the Seven Seals and the Seven Churches while the Seven Elohim of the Jews and the Seven great gods of the Egyptians are similar. These are all references to the forces symbolized by the seven planets known to antiquity, counting the Sun and Moon in this group. The best side of these forces constitute the Seven Virtues, while the perversion of them is known as the Seven Deadly Sins. Just numbers, but what a meaning!

They Swapped Pulpits for a Week

How a City Preacher and a Country Preacher Solved a Vacation Problem

By F. A. Behymer

THE REVEREND RALPH C. ABELE OF ST. LOUIS AND (INSET) THE REVEREND T. A. TUENGE OF BAY, MO., WHO TRADED PULPITS FOR A WEEK.

THIS is the story of how two preachers solved their vacation problems by swapping pulpits for a week. By the exchange the city man and his family had a week in the country and the country man and his wife had a week in the city. It was a change for both. They enjoyed it and benefited by the experience. They hope that when vacation time comes again their example will be followed by many with happy results for all, congregations as well as preachers.

The idea came to the Rev. Ralph C. Abele, minister of the Holy Ghost Evangelical and Reformed Church at 4916 Mardel avenue. The time was coming for his annual vacation and it posed the usual problem of providing a substitute for his pulpit during his absence.. He and the Rev. T. A. Tuenge of Bay, Mo., were attending a church conference at Washington, Mo. They fell to talking about their approaching vacations and the trouble they probably would have to find substitutes. "How about a swap?" said Abele to Tuenge. "Fine," said Tuenge to Abele.

But first they had to get the approval of their church boards. These sanctions were obtained and the two preachers went ahead with their plans for the swap. It would be an even trade. The Abeles would move to the country home of the Tuenges and the Tuenges would move to the city home of the Abeles. Each preacher would occupy the pulpit of the other and they would perform each other's parish duties.

ON the usual basis of computing clerical assets, Abele had more to trade in the way of experience and the qualifications that come with experience, but he didn't feel that way about it. It did not matter that he had been the minister of an important city church since 1931, a church that was beginning preparations for the celebration of its 110th anniversary, while Tuenge was only two years out of the theological seminary and had been for only that long pastor of the church at Bay. They were yoked in a common service of equal usefulness, and furthermore they were good friends.

Tuenge had attended Abele's church when he was a student at Eden Seminary. On his graduation he was married at Holy Ghost Church to Miss Ella Fuerst, who had been a nurse at Deaconess Hospital, and Abele had paid a visit to the Tuenges at Bay, where Tuenge had become the regular pastor.

So, on the date agreed upon, Abele and his wife, their two sons, Rheinhold, 11 years old, and George, 6, and a nephew, Robert Thornton, 11, left for the country. At Bay, which is a Gascanade County hamlet with a population of 75, the Tuenges were ready to move to town, but they had to wait until the Abeles arrived to look after their menage, which included three goats, three dogs and a couple of cats and a flock of chickens. It was blackberry time and both families went picking, so that the Tuenges could bring some along, to be made into preserves by Mrs. Tuenge. Then the Abeles were left in charge, with the city preacher to look after the farflung farming members of the church and the boys to try their hands at looking after the livestock. That night they went to sleep to the cicadas' lullaby.

The days that followed were filled with discoveries and delights for the boys. On a ramble, with the city preacher as their guide, they made the acquaintance of a skunk. It barred the way and the boys wanted to catch it, but changed their minds when they were told what it was. Another encounter, less fraught with hazard, was with a mother quail and her family, which enabled the city preacher to impress upon the boys the prompt obedience of the little ones when they were ordered to take cover, an example for all little boys. A water snake, caught in a brook, provided another lesson as the preacher handled it and showed how harmless it was.

Come Sunday, there was a big congregation at Bay Church to hear the city preacher. That person, if he had been less experienced, might have been embarrassed when the members of the church board took their places in the pulpit, according to local custom. It might have been their way of backing him up or checking up on him in case he was one of those modernists. His text, though, reassured them. It was John 17, 3: "And this is life eternal, that they might know Thee, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom Thou has sent."

The most important thing, as he saw it, and as he told them, was to know that men are children of a righteous and a forgiving God and that all men are brothers all over the world. In a simple, practical way he stressed that the people of the city and the people of the country were of equal importance and each necessary to the other. It must have been a good sermon, for the members and the church board told him it was.

THE thing that impressed the city preacher most was the way the people came early and tarried after the service to walk among the graves in the churchyard, keeping company with the departed. "It is good," he says now, for folk to walk among the graves in remembrance of those who rest there, keeping faith with the past and the debt that they owe to those who have gone before and not forgetting that one day they will be lying here."

Looking back on what was a happy privilege, the Rev. Abele says: "City preachers and country preachers should swap places now and then. City preachers should know more about the country preachers, who, though they receive smaller salaries, are not lacking in ability. Something should be done to work out a plan of equalization and give the country preachers a better break."

Rev. Tuenge, back in the country, is thankful for the opportunity that he had of serving a big city congregation for a little while. "Being rather happy in my work here at Bay," he says, "I nevertheless feel that once in a great while a change from the usual Sunday routine of the same places and the same faces is a worthwhile thing. An objective viewpoint regarding the church, its life and its activities is sometimes a little difficult to maintain when, as a rural pastor, one's whole life becomes wrapped up in the intimate and small details of the congregation's life. Thus exchanging pastorates with a minister in an entirely different situation serves as a sort of refreshing interval and influence. All this stimulation is important to a rural minister, for it helps prevent his getting into a rut as time goes on.

"For the rural congregation the exchange of pastorates should also serve a real purpose. First, it brings to them the same eternal message but through the medium of a different person and a different voice. Secondly, and most important, is the fact that city people and rural inhabitants are unconsciously brought closer together.

Rev. Tuenge's only regret is that the exchange was not for a longer period. His judgment is that an exchange for three weeks would be best.

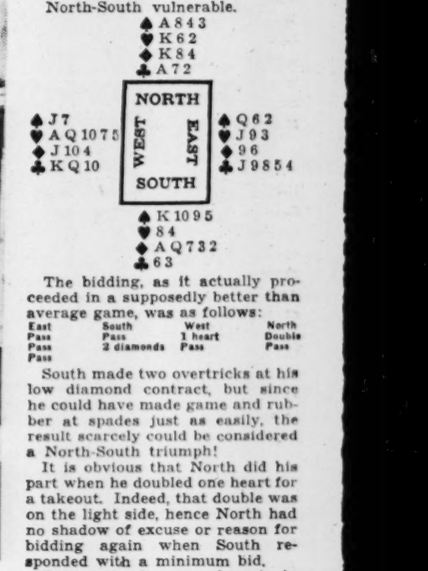

It is the wish of both ministers, growing out of their experience as swappers, that the practice may spread.

Contract Bridge

By Ely Culbertson

RESPONDING properly to partner's takeout double involves a special philosophy and technique of bidding. Consider this typical case:

East, dealer.
North-South vulnerable.

East	South	West	North
Pass	Pass	1 heart	Double
Pass	2 diamonds	Pass	Pass
Pass

South made two overtricks at his low diamond contract, but since he could have made game and rubber at spades just as easily, the result scarcely could be considered a North-South triumph!

It is obvious that North did his part when he doubled one heart for a takeout. Indeed, that double was on the light side, hence North had no shadow of excuse or reason for bidding again when South responded with a minimum bid.

This puts it squarely up to South for having failed to reach the game contract in spades that was the next thing to a laydown, requiring only a trump break that was not too bad. The two diamond response was timid, unimaginative, and unconstructive! South had passed a hand that was fairly near to an opening bid; his partner had made a vulnerable double of one major suit, and South had real strength in the other major. What was more likely than that North was hoping for a spade response? Thus, South not only should have obliged him, but should have announced that his hand as a whole offered real prospects of "going somewhere," by jumping to two spades! North undoubtedly would have raised that sort of response.

Take My Word for It

WORDS TO WATCH

ASPIRANT. Whenever I hear the mispronunciation "ASS-pi-rn't," I am invariably reminded of the popular tablets for "this headache I've got," as the transcriptions elegantly phrase it. An aspirant is one who aspires (eagerly tries for). Place the accent on the second syllable, which rhymes with "by, my." Say:

ass-PIR-r'nt.

WERE. Several readers have reported hearing were recently pronounced on the air as "wair." How come? they ask. Also, they want to know if we're is ever correctly pronounced "wair."

"Wair" for were is sometimes heard in British usage. But in American speech it is as out of place as a monocle in the bleachers at Soldiers' Field. Better say: wur, to rhyme with "fur, cur."

SUGGEST. Reader F. T. writes: "What about the pronunciation 'suh-JEST'? Is there any dictionary sanction for it?"

Of six American dictionaries, three only list "suh-JEST," and as second choice. It is the customary British pronunciation.

In the prevailing American pronunciation, the first "g" is hard, and the second has the "j" sound. Say: sug-JEST.

Typohowler of the week was spotted by C. L. H. of Cincinnati: "Nazis in Terror of Gigantic Red Nose!" Another blow to German morale?
